both attended the Excelsior school, Marianao, Havana, Cuba, at the same time. During ARDURA's youth he was an active athlete and played amateur baseball in Cuba. As a result of this, according to MM T-1, (u) he became closely associated with ROBERTO FERNANDEZ MIRANDA, who was, at that time, Director of Sports in Cuba during the BATISTA regime. Subsequently, MM T-1 stated that ARDURA apparently became a partner of FERNANDEZ in the slot machine business in Cuba, and also that ARDURA was one of the owners of the Tropicana Night Club, Havana. MM T-1 stated that he had not been closely associated with ARDURA since his arrival in the United States, but that he had observed him on numerous occasions at the Biltmore Terrace Hotel, of which he, ARDURA, and FERNANDEZ were reportedly the owners. MM T-1 was not familiar with any Cuban political or revolutionary activities in which the subject might have been engaged, but stated that he understood from source whom he believed to be in a position to know that FERNANDEZ was actively endeavoring to aid BATISTA in his return to the United States. He further believed that ARDURA, because of the close association with FERNANDEZ, would also aid BATISTA, wherever possible, to gain entry into the United States.

MM T-2 advised on September 10, 1959, (u) that ARDURA was in partnership with MARTIN FOX at the Tropicana Night Club, Havana, Cuba, when BATISTA was in power. According to MM T-2, (u) the main interest in the Biltmore Terrace Hotel, Miami Beach, was allegedly held by ARDURA, who purchased it in a pesos exchange deal with SAM KAY, previous owner.

On June 4, 1959, MM T-5 ^{(S)(u)} advised that RICHARD H. PARKER, Attorney, DuPont Plaza Building, Miami, was attorney for Alcama, Inc., doing business as Biltmore Terrace Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida.

On January 13, 1960, MM T-6 advised that ARDURA was closely associated with ROBERTO FERNANDEZ MIRANDA, BATISTA's brother-in-law. He stated ARDURA was the reported owner of the Biltmore Terrace Hotel, Miami Beach, but that he believed BATISTA and FERNANDEZ both had an interest in this hotel. He also advised that ARDURA attended a meeting at the home of EMILIO RIVERO, former representative in Cuba and Treasurer of the Electric Company of Cuba and brother of the former provisional president of Cuba. He stated this meeting was held around the middle of November, 1959, and was also attended by ROLANDO FISHER, Cuban currently residing in Miami Beach. He believed the purpose of this meeting was to help finance a group rendering aid to Cuban exiles in Miami and associated with General JOSE PEDRAZA, currently residing in the Dominican Republic. (S)(u)

MM T-6 also advised that the principal purpose of this meeting was to raise $2,000,000.00 for the purchase of a newspaper in order to put out counter propaganda against FIDEL CASTRO and the current Cuban Government. They also discussed the possibility of obtaining a radio station in furtherance of their counter propaganda activities. (S)(u)

Reportedly they submitted a bid for the Miami daily Spanish language newspaper "Diario Las Americas" and were refused by HORACIO AGUIRRE, who stated he would sell the paper for $7,000,000.00. (S)(u)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

MM T-6 further advised that subsequent to this meeting he had learned ARDURA, RIVERO and FISHER had decided that only financial aid would be given to Cuban exiles in Miami for necessities of life in order that they might continue to live in the manner to which they were accustomed in Cuba. (X)(u)

Cuba

MM T-7 advised, on December 16, 1959, that he was acquainted with ARDURA in Cuba, and that ARDURA had been very closely associated with ROBERTO FERNANDEZ MIRANDA in Cuba and in the United States. He advised that the only information that he possessed concerning any alleged Cuban political or counterrevolutionary activities concerning the subject was that ARDURA, FERNANDEZ and MARTIN DIAZ TAMAYO had recently had a meeting at DIAZ TAMAYO's home concerning Cuban problems. He described DIAZ TAMAYO as former military leader in Cuba, and stated he was informed that ARDURA and FERNANDEZ want DIAZ TAMAYO to head the army of the proposed Cuban counterrevolutionary movement against Cuba in the future. MM T-7 continued that he did not have any details concerning this, but that ARDURA and FERNANDEZ were opposing General JOSE E. PEDRAZA, Cuban exile currently in the Dominican Republic and reportedly leader of the Cuban counterrevolutionary army. (X)(u)
