MASSEY, JOSEPH
Grand Hotel
Miami Beach, Florida

MASSEY still retains his position as key-figure and leader of the power group of national racketeers in this area. Informants FRENCHY GIPS and FRED LENK advised that MASSEY is one of the leaders in the so-called Big Six, which includes FRANK COSTELLO, MEYER LANSKY, JOE ADONIS, CHARLES FISCHETTI; and BENJAMIN "BUGS" SIEGEL was one of these Big Six before his death. MASSEY has an interest in the Grand Hotel which he is believed to own and he lives in the penthouse of said hotel. MASSEY operates a legitimate business, known as Miami Provision Company, 1062 N. W. 22nd Street, Miami, Florida, which gives him a legitimate front. He is said to own the "Tahiti Bar" on 23rd Street, which he bought for a nephew when the nephew came home from the service; and also owns Steve's

Barber Shop on 23rd Street, Miami Beach, besides a financial interest in many other businesses in the 23rd Street area. He is in Miami Beach at the present time and lives here the year round.

MONTALDO, CHRISTOPHER JOSEPH
Dolphin Hotel
Miami, Florida

MONTALDO is a hoodlum from Verona, New Jersey, a former black marketeer and possibly a jewel thief. He was given considerable attention in jewel theft cases last year, and for a period of time operated a bar in the Dolphin Hotel, Miami, Florida.

MORGAN, SWIFTY

This individual is reported by several Informants to be a messenger or contact man for big time criminals throughout the country, many of whom appear in Miami Beach. He is widely known and sells neckties, which he professes to be his livelihood. According to a confidential source, he stopped at the Grand Hotel, Miami Beach, last January. His present whereabouts are unknown.

POLLIZZI, AL
1302 Astoria Avenue
Coral Gables, Florida
FBI Number 118357

POLLIZZI is one of the key-figure Cleveland hoodlums who moved to Coral Gables in 1946 and still resides there. He is often visited by JOHN KING, a local hoodlum, who stands high in the JOE MASSEY mob on Miami Beach. Informant FRED LENK advised that POLLIZZI is often seen in the 23rd Street area associating with the hoodlums of the JOE MASSEY mob. POLLIZZI, at last report, was head of the TIPTOP DISTRIBUTING COMPANY in Cleveland, Ohio. Informant ED POORMAN, now Finance Director in Coral Gables, Florida, advised on September 22, 1947, that three weeks ago POLLIZZI incorporated the ALFRED POLLIZZI GENERAL CONTRACTING COMPANY to do general contracting work, and that TOM MAYS, former Mayor of Coral Gables, acted as his attorney in incorporating the company.
