NY 2305-C advised on 2/1/62, that he had been approached that week by Assemblyman Mark Lane, who made the conflict of interest charges involving NY State Senate Speaker Joseph Carlino in Lancer Industries, a bomb shelter building concern. Lane asked the informant to contact Carlino on his behalf since he had been "ostracized" by members of the NY Assembly since making the charges. Informant contacted Carlino who wanted no part of a deal with Lane and told the informant that the Queen's County Dist. Atty. was investigating Lane at his request and that he was going to cause trouble for Lane.

NY 3134-S advised that a meeting of the Lower Manhattan Youth Club of the CP was held on 3/5/62, at 620 E. 6th St., NYC, at which the campaign for Mark Lane was discussed. Mike Stein reported to the meeting that portions of the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee's (PYOC) National Youth Act were encompassed in the petition to draft Lane, and that the petition was to be distributed by the members of Advance and Burning Issues (100-435442) under the name of the 4th A.D. Reform Democrats.

Above informant advised that on 3/28/62, Stein, Chairman of Advance, was a member of the NY Youth Coordinating Committee of the CP.

CG 5824-S* advised that the PYOC was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Ill., on 12/30/60 thru 1/1/61. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, CP, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization.

AL 2955-S made available a letter bearing the return address of John Boardman (100-434795), 166-25 89th Ave., Jamaica 32, NY, which was addressed to Lillian Reiner, 1009 Cumberland Ave., Syracuse, NY, dated 7/27/62. Boardman's letter revealed that in his estimation the Reformed Democrats were putting on a good campaign with many of them, like Mark Lane, being strong peace workers. He stated that Lane was retiring temporarily from active politics in order to teach and study for the next few years and then believed that Lane would try to obtain a seat in Congress in either 1964 or 1966. It was Boardman's hopes that he would make it, adding that Lane had cut his eye teeth politically in Vito Marcantonio's organizations. He stated that one of Lane's proteges, Carlos Rios, would run for Lane's assembly seat in the fall.

NY 3635-PSI advised that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) (100-384660) held a protest meeting under the slogan "Stop Vigilantism in New York" on 10/21/62, at the Hotel New Yorker. Corliss Lamont was chairman of this affair, according to informant.

Dr. James F. Slevin (protect identity) advised that Lamont stated that the ECLC was concerned with the rights of individuals and not their political beliefs and that the purpose of the meeting happened to be with the side of "pro-Castro" in Cuba only because of their rights.

Slevin advised that NY State Assemblyman Mark Lane spoke at above mentioned affair. (Excerpt of speech set out.)
