DOCUMENTATIONS

Per Bureau airtel to New York, 4/16/63, captioned "CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE PROGRAM", the following documentations are set forth to be utilized by all field offices in handling "La Cosa Nostra" investigations.

"La Cosa Nostra", translated as "Our Thing", is the name used by members of the organized Italian criminal element to refer to their over-all criminal organization. The framework of "La Cosa Nostra" consists of "borgeate" or "families", each ruled by a "capo" or "boss". The "capo" appoints a "sotto-capo" or "underboss", and a "consiglieri" or "counselor", who advises the "boss" and the "soldati" or "soldiers", when required. The "soldati" are the lowest strata of membership and are directly under a "capodecina" (a "captain" or "lieutenant"), appointed by the "capo" to exercise his authority over the "soldati" assigned to a "decine", or group. A "Commissione" or "Commission", comprised of a group of "bosses" from various parts of the United States is the ultimate authority of "La Cosa Nostra". Members of the "Commissione" are referred to individually as "rappresentante", a term also signifying the status of "boss".

(Note: The term "caporegina" is used interchangeably with "capodecina", as is "regina" with "decina".)

Sources: The following sources have furnished the information concerning the above and are to be reflected in the usual manner of reporting:
