Subsequently, an unidentified man was observed with the subject and PETER A. MAGADDINO and in whispered conversation was heard to ask PETER A. MAGADDINO for $1,000. The subject and this man then engaged in a whispered conversation which was not audible to the informant.

Later when news of the assassination of President KENNEDY was received, PETER A. MAGADDINO commented that a person would have to be a maniac to commit this assassination.

On 11/23, 24, and 25/63, CI furnished no pertinent information.

Information furnished by informant on 11/26/63, will be the subject of a separate memorandum.

On 11/27/63, CI advised that PETER A. MAGADDINO had been observed with PETER (MACK) and that the latter related that he had been in New York City for two days. MACK indicated that he thought he had been under surveillance while on this trip and felt that on the plane coming back someone had gone through his briefcase. He pointed out that he has gone by the Magaddino Memorial Chapel at intervals around 4:00 or 4:30 a.m., and has seen a car with two men in it apparently watching the chapel. PETER A. MAGADDINO agreed that the routine of the employees at the funeral parlor is known. Subsequently they were joined by JOHN (FELL) who indicated he had stopped by to wish the subject a happy Thanksgiving.

A short time later the subject was observed with FELL and PETER A. MAGADDINO at which time he appeared to be upset concerning a woman named JENSON. The subject also made reference to the state troopers. FELL indicated that he would check on the matter and after apparently consulting a telephone directory indicated that JENSON resides at 510 Dana Drive. After some conversation, during which it was indicated the JENSONs were attempting to sell their home, the conversation turned to politics. FELL indicated that the next time he might be asked to run for Congress and if he runs he will be elected.
