for approximately ten years and enjoys an excellent reputation and has been cooperative with this Bureau. There has been no indication of any gambling activity in Putnam County and therefore no necessity of searching indices concerning the sheriff of Putnam County, nor is it necessary to conduct any credit or criminal checks of this sheriff. There is no question about his integrity, based on the experience of the Cleveland Office with him.

On 3/10/71, EP 655-C and EP 583-C, who are well acquainted with gamblers in the Midland area, could give no information regarding W. J. JOURENOX.

The indices of the El Paso Division contained no information identifiable with W. J. JOURENOX.

On 2/10/71, G. C. VICKREY, aka Vick Vickrey, former PCI, Las Vegas Division, confidentially furnished the following to SA WILLIAM DEAN JANSEN:

VICKREY advised that W. B. VICKREY is his brother and that his brother is presently the casino manager in the Riverside Casino located near Bullhead City, Arizona, which is across the river from Bullhead City, Nevada.

Former PCI VICKREY said that he is well acquainted with TOMMY MOORE from San Antonio, Texas, because when MOORE was the owner of the Holiday Hotel-Casino in Reno, Nevada, VICKREY worked for him. MOORE according to former PCI, owned the Holiday Hotel in Reno until July, 1970, he sold it. MOORE was in co-ownership with the owner of a Cadillac agency in San Antonio, Texas, when MOORE owned the Holiday Hotel.

VICKREY added that MOORE allegedly is one of the people who is buying an interest in the Union Plaza Hotel-Casino which is presently under construction in Las Vegas, Nevada. It was VICKREY's understanding that
