WFO 97-1847

Logical city and telephone directories, the "Congressional Directory", and lists of correspondents in the Washington, D. C., area failed to disclose any listing for PAULINE MOSBY. WFO files disclose that ALINE MOSBY, a United Press International (UPI) correspondent, was assigned to Moscow for three years beginning in 1959. WFO file 134-4659, entitled "NORMAN RAY RUNNION: PSI - DESECO - R", (S) Bufile 134-11384 discloses that on 10/15/62, (RUNNION) (pro- (S)) advised that a UPI newspaperwoman, ALINE MOSBY, was found unconscious and partially disrobed in a gutter in Moscow while she was stationed there. She was jailed overnight at that time and the incident mentioned in "Izvestia". MOSBY was reportedly examined at the United States Embassy, Moscow, the following day, and it was determined she had been drugged. The episode was considered an attempt by the Russians to place UPI at a disadvantage if at some future time UPI should incur the displeasure of the Soviet Government. To preclude such an eventuality, Miss MOSBY was transferred by UPI to another post, thus terminating her career in Moscow.

The above information was furnished the Bureau by WFOlet dated 10/24/62, captioned as described above.

For a time ALINE MOSBY was also considered a suspect in the case entitled "UNSUB; Approximately 30-year-old Female American Tourist of Interest to KGB For Possible Recruitment; IS - R", Bufile 105-106958, WFO file 105-47870. Investigation in this case disclosed that MOSBY was rumored to have undergone an abortion while in Moscow. A book entitled "The View From Number 13 Peoples Street", authored by ALINE MOSBY and published in 1962 by Random House, New York, was reviewed by WFO on 10/17/63, at which time MOSBY was described as being born and reared in Missoula, Montana, and graduating from the University of Montana. At the time of the book's publication, Miss MOSBY was with the Paris Bureau of UPI.

A telephone call to "Life" Magazine, 1120 Connecticut Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., during 8/67, by SA JAMES O. WATSON, JR., who did not have need to identify himself, failed to disclose any information concerning a PAULINE MOSBY or Miss MOSBY connected with "Life".

It is noted that JOHN SKELLY, during interview 8/17/67, was uncertain of the correct spelling of MOSBY's name, and in particular was uncertain of her first name, which, he stated, was PAULINE or a name similar to this. WFO, therefore, is of the opinion that SKELLY was referring to ALINE MOSBY.

EDGAR TRIVERI is the subject of WFO file 105-40383, entitled "EDGAR ARNOLD TRIVERI, aka; IS - CU", Bufile 105-88854.

WFO files contain no additional pertinent information concerning HUGH O'SHAUGHNESSY or MALCOLM RUTHERFORD to that available to the Bureau.

WFO files contain no information identifiable with ROGER BECK, DANIEL GOTTLIEB, DWIGHT CLARK, EDWIN LOUREIRO, the newsletter "Latin America", Volunteers in Asia or International Students Fund.

Referenced San Francisco letter advised that their files disclose that ~~MICHAEL HOLT RUFFIN~~ is mentioned in a letter from Jackson, dated 8/10/64, which noted that RUFFIN was working on the Mississippi Summer Project. Credit, criminal and informant checks at Palo Alto, California, failed to produce any information concerning RUFFIN.

Synopsis:

On 7/20/67, a confidential informant advised EDUARDO DIAZ was given $150 to assist with his educational expenses by the Maryland Province Mission Bureau, Baltimore, Md., at the request of Jesuit missionaries in Chile. Informant also advised DIAZ was reported to be a close associate of the Chilean Ambassador and to be making speeches for the Ambassador when a conflict of dates prevented the Ambassador from speaking. A second informant reported Kennecott Copper Corporation, New York, New York, received a letter dated 7/21/67 from Latin American Newsletters Ltd., London, (England), introducing a weekly newsletter, "Latin America", at a yearly subscription rate of $59 (US dollars). IPS was identified as the principal source of "Latin America". On 8/17/67, JOHN T. SKELLY, Public Information Office, Pan American Union, Wash., D. C., advised ROBERTO SAVIO, Director of IPS, has offered SKELLY a position as IPS representative in Wash., D. C., on numerous occasions. SKELLY denied receiving offers for this position from officials of the Chilean Government. SKELLY advised SAVIO also reportedly offered the position to PAULINE MOSBY (phonetic), a correspondent for the Spanish issue of Life magazine, and to
