RE: PROSECUTIONS PENDING IN FEDERAL COURT, CLEVELAND, RELATIVE TO RELATED FEDERAL GAMBLING VIOLATIONS

Relative to the case captioned "ANTHONY J. CORBISELLO, aka.; Et Al; ITWP," Cleveland file 168-62, Bureau file 168-508, on 7/24/64, AUSA HARRY E. PICKERING, Cleveland, advised that ANTHONY J. CORBISELLO entered a plea of guilty that day to four counts. He stated he will receive his sentence following a presentence investigation. He stated following this, he contemplates dismissing the indictment against BEN JOSEPH CORBISELLO.

RE: SUSPECT DOMINIC MOIO (Deceased)

CV-344-C on 7/22/64 visited FRANK MEZZATESTA, Kent, Ohio, a close associate of DOMINIC MOIO before his murder. While there visiting, MEZZATESTA's nephew, ANTHONY MADAFFARE, appeared at his home. The conversation between the informant and MEZZATESTA and his nephew got around to Youngstown and both cautioned the informant to stay away from there. MADAFFARE stated in Italy when a man has a friend, he can trust him, but in Youngstown "friend kills friend."

CV-344-C stated he learned that MADAFFARE was probably closer to DOMINIC MOIO than MEZZATESTA. He stated from their conversation, he gathered MOIO and MADAFFARE had lived together and although they did not say so specifically, he gathered it had been in Youngstown. He stated he got the impression that MADAFFARE had more information about MOIO's activities than MEZZATESTA.

When discussing the bombing of BILLY NAPLES on 7/1/62, MEZZATESTA again stated MOIO had been responsible and that "they" had ordered him to do this. He stated he liked BILLY NAPLES, but when such a thing was ordered he was powerless to interfere. MEZZATESTA also stated MOIO made the mistake of working for too many factions, and he would work for any group for money and this was what caused his death when it was determined that he had "hit" some member of the "organization."

CV-344-C stated neither mentioned who the "organization" member had been who was "hit," but he assumed that it was either CAVALLARO or VINCE DE NIRO, who was blown up 7/17/61 while MOIO was in the employ of BILLY NAPLES.

CV 157-127

CV-344-C stated he invited MEZZATESTA and his wife to visit him and he believes under the right circumstances, he can get more and specific information on this.
