The Las Vegas Office advised that on 7/21/63 the flight manifest of Flight 133 (Bonanza Airlines) from Reno, Nevada, to Las Vegas, Nevada, carries "Mr. and Mrs. John Rosselli" and "Mr. and Mrs. M. Friedman" as passengers. It is recalled that FRIEDMAN and ROSSELLI reportedly left Los Angeles together on 7/18/63 for Cal Neva Lodge on Lake Tahoe. The means of travel they used is not known, however, additional information may be obtained from Bonanza Airline records in Reno where it was indicated that ROSSELLI and FRIEDMAN cancelled reservations to San Francisco and Chicago, Illinois and went to Las Vegas.

ROSSELLI, according to a neighborhood source, has been driving a 1962 Ford T-Bird. This car is registered to Brand Motors where ROSSELLI bought his 1963 T-Bird. The reason for ROSSELLI using a Brand Motors car is not presently known.

AUSA THOMAS SHERIDAN is considering issuing a subpoena for ROSSELLI to appear before a Federal Grand Jury which is inquiring into the activities of several members of Friar's Club in connection with bookmaking activities. (This is an IRS investigation). LA 4268-C has advised that someone from the Beverly Hills Police Department suggested to the Friar's Club that they shut down on some of the larger gambling games at the club during the current inquiries.

E. STEPHEN D'ARTOIS, Sales Manager, Doheny Plaza Apartments, where ROSSELLI has a reservation to purchase an apartment advised on 8/22/63 that he has heard nothing further on this from either ROSSELLI or MAURICE FRIEDMAN.
