Legat, Bern (105-270) (P)

JAMES W. EGAN;
JAMES G. RYAN
IS - R

On 1/30/64 [redacted], Office of the Special Assistant [redacted] the Embassy, Bern, furnished information which has been made the subject of a letterhead memorandum, 6 copies of which are enclosed.

T-1 in the enclosed memorandum is OSA and the memorandum is classified confidential since the original information was so classified.

In addition, [redacted] mentioned that when a check had been made by his agency with the Bureau concerning subjects
the following information had been obtained:

EGAN had been the subject in an ITSP case involving fraudulent checks and bonds. RYAN was on probation on an income tax violation, had been a subject in an AR case, and was a potential witness under protection of the U. S.
Marshal, in Denver, Colorado.

Both EGAN and RYAN had been allowed to go to Switzerland on a business venture. It was considered that EGAN might possibly develop some information concerning bank accounts of U. S. gangsters in Switzerland.

The Bureau is requested to furnish any pertinent material concerning these individuals for dissemination to interested U. S. and Swiss agencies.
