Requests for coverage by highly confidential sources have been refused by the Bureau in regards to ZIZZO and GRUTTADAURO, since both are under investigation in substantive cases.

A request for similar coverage on FORMUSA's activities is being withheld at this time pending his recovery and release from a Chicago hospital.

A request for coverage by highly confidential sources regarding MORGANO has been refused by the Bureau since the location of intended source did not appear to be a meeting place where information of value could be obtained. Further, MORGANO has been free on bond in a local bribery case, and in addition, under deportation orders from the Immigration and Naturalization Service.

~~ANTHONY GRUTTADAURO~~, also known as Anthony Philip Gruttadauro

On September 18, 1962, Confidential Informant IP T-2 advised SA HAMILTON that since FRANK NICK ZIZZO, FBI #1538814, has been indicted by the Federal Grand Jury in Hammond, Indiana, GRUTTADAURO is now in charge of all Lake County, Indiana gambling activities.

On November 20, 1962, Confidential Informant IP T-3 advised SA JAMES E. DOYLE that ANTHONY GRUTTADAURO is in charge of all football-basketball parlay cards distributed throughout the Hammond-Gary area. IP T-3 advised that GEORGE CVITKOVICH, also known as GEORGE CORY, a present East Chicago, Indiana City Councilman, formerly handled football-basketball parlay cards for GRUTTADAURO in East Chicago, Indiana, but this assignment had been taken from him when he became City Councilman. IP T-3 stated that CASIMIR ZAWADA, also known as CASEY, a runner for these parlay cards, wanted CVITKOVICH's job, but did not get it, in favor of EDMUND MILOZEWSKI, Hammond, Indiana, a relative of CVITKOVICH.

IP T-3 has previously advised that about three years ago a dispute arose over one week's parlay cards involving winners making it necessary for IP T-3 to contact the man in charge of these parlay cards. He stated that shortly thereafter, FRANK NICK ZIZZO, whom IP T-3 advised is in charge of all bookmaking in the Calumet area, appeared at IP T-3's place of business, and introduced the informant to ANTHONY GRUTTADAURO, whom he advised was in charge of the parlay cards in this area.

~~FRANK NICK ZIZZO~~, also known as Frank P. ~~Cease~~,
