MOVIMIENTO INSURRECCIONAL
DE RECUPERACION REVOLUCIONARIO

Previous information has indicated that the captioned anti-Castro organization is planning to carry out a bombing raid over Cuba from Bimini in the Bahama Islands. The airplane scheduled to be used in the raid, an Aero Commander, Number N2624B, was located at the Broward International Airport, Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

On December 21, 1963, our source in the matter who has furnished reliable information in the past learned that one of the motors of the above-mentioned plane had burned out and that plans were being made to obtain another plane.

On December 22, 1963, Orlando Bosch Avila, head of the captioned organization, stated that he wanted the bombing raid to take place on Christmas day as the vigilance of the opposition would be at a minimum at that time.

Charles Bush, owner of the above-mentioned Aero Commander airplane, stated on December 22, 1963, that he would substitute a two-motor Piper Aztec airplane for the Aero Commander.
