Dear Mr. Field:

Hester
Silverman (info)

This is in reference to your two letters to me dated August 27, which request FBI materials relative to Donald Uffinger and Richard Bast, and interviews with five special agents of the FBI. While your letter did not mention the subject of the interviews with the FBI agents, we assume that the subject concerns Mr. Bast and Mr. Uffinger.

As you may know, this Department is involved in litigation with Mr. Bast in the District Court of the District of Columbia styled Bast v. Kelley. Departmental policy precludes release of information which may impair the Department's position in any pending litigation. Your requests also touch upon matters which are currently the subject of a criminal investigation by the Department. Department of Justice policy precludes release of information which may impede any ongoing Departmental investigation. Certain exceptions to these policies have been made for the Senate Select Committee when special arrangements have been agreed to which ensure that neither the Department's litigative position nor its criminal investigation will be jeopardized. We would be pleased to discuss such special arrangements relative to the pending litigation and ongoing investigation with you or your staff at your convenience.

The House Select Committee on Intelligence hereby requests the Attorney General to provide the committee with the following materials:

1. Copy of a recent memorandum from Director Kelley to the Attorney General concerning FBI "break-ins" for the National Security Agency prior to 1966.
2. A list of all domestic surreptitious entries or "break-ins" engaged in by the FBI for the National Security Agency or the service cryptologic agencies from 1961 to the present. Such a list should of course, include any entries where an ancillary purpose or result was the obtaining of materials for NSA or the service cryptologic agencies. Indicate as to each "break-in" whether it was done at the request of NSA or the service cryptologic agencies and whether employees of NSA or the military participated.
3. Copies of all memoranda concerning arrangements or agreements for such "break-ins" and results thereof.
4. A detailed description of the FBI involvement, either alone or in conjunction with NSA, in obtaining copies of diplomatic and other international printed messages from common carrier corporations here in Washington.

We would appreciate receiving this data at the earliest possible date.

Reference is made to memorandum of Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, dated August 19, 1975, and attached letter from House Select Committee on Intelligence (copy attached). The following information is furnished in reply to the request for a list of all wiretaps or electronic surveillance by state or local authorities that have been investigated by the FBI from January 1, 1970, to June 30, 1975.

The FBI does not maintain records on wiretaps or electronic surveillance by state or local authorities that have been investigated by the FBI. The attached list was prepared from a review of interception of communication matters in which investigation was initiated by the FBI from January 1, 1970, to June 30, 1975, which related to state or local authorities.

The following time was spent by employees of the General Investigative Division and Files and Communications Division in compiling this list.

No. Employees	Grade	Total Time

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20530

SEP 3 1975

Mr. Aaron Donner, Counsel
Select Committee on Intelligence
U. S. House of Representatives
Washington, D. C. 20515

Dear Mr. Donner:

This is in reference to your letter to me dated August 27, 1975, in which you indicated that the Department's position that all oral requests for materials and information made during the testimony of Messrs. Pommerening and Walsh before the Committee on August 7, should be submitted in writing was intended to delay and impede the work of the Committee.

Your letter makes two main points. The first is that you were not informed of the Department's position concerning oral requests until August 21, and the second is that other agencies do not require similar requests for materials or information to be put in writing.

First, let me explain the reasons for the delay in communicating the Department's position on oral requests. You will recall that on August 7, 1975, Special Counsel Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., wrote to Mr. A. Searle Field, House Select Committee Staff Director and Chief Counsel, requesting a meeting on August 8, to discuss the need for agreeing to structured procedures for processing Committee requests. It was anticipated that at this meeting agreement would be reached concerning procedures which would apply to the oral requests for materials. No response to the request for a meeting was received until August 18, and the meeting was held August 19. You will recall that at the meeting, Mr. Field rejected any formal procedures for processing requests. My letter to you was an attempt to resolve, on an ad hoc basis, a matter left unresolved by the failure to agree to procedures. My letter would have been sent earlier had we anticipated that the meeting would not be arranged until August 19.

Secondly, let me explain why the Department of Justice would like all Committee requests to be in writing and signed by either the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Staff Director or Counsel. Essentially there are four reasons. The first is to avoid receiving requests for materials which duplicate or overlap one another. The second is to avoid having to interpret oral requests which are usually less precise than written requests. The third is to avoid placing the Department in the position of having to choose whether to respond first to requests made by individual Committee members or to requests made by Committee staff. The fourth is that written requests afford this office with a formal vehicle for transmitting Committee requests to the various divisions, agencies and bureaus of the Department for appropriate response and indexing.

I regret that you interpreted my letter of August 21, as an attempt to hinder or delay the Committee's investigation. In any event, I have asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to prepare responses to all oral requests, not already responded to, for materials made during the testimony on August 7, and which have not been covered by previous written requests. The FBI has informed me that responses to the oral requests will probably be available by September 12. To avoid any additional problems, we request that all future requests for materials or information be submitted in writing over the signatures of the Committee Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Staff Director or Counsel.

Sincerely,

Steven Blackhurst

Dear Mr. Levi:

The House Select Committee on Intelligence requests the following information for the time periods of January 1, 1970 to June 30, 1975.

1. Please supply us with the Bureau's and/or Department of Justice's definition of "informants",

2. The total amounts paid to "informants" for each of the years specified above.

3. The method of payments used by the Bureau for "informants", i.e. cash, check, loans, etc.

4. For each of the year's specified, please state the portions of the payment to "informants" made in cash, checks or otherwise.

5. Whether or not any statements or reports of payments to "informants" were filed with the Internal Revenue Service and/or state and/or local taxing authorities.

6. Records of the Bureau of prosecution of "informants" by federal Department of Justice and/or authorities and/or local authorities for violations of law, indicating the nature of the violations of law for which "informants" were prosecuted; the Court or forums where such prosecutions were held, and the disposition of such prosecutions; whether or not the Bureau or Department of Justice interceded in any manner in such proceedings.

This is to advise of briefing afforded Mr. Tim Oliphant and Mr. Richard Vermeire, House Select Committee (HSC) staff members, on 8/22/75 and to identify documents relating to our Counterintelligence Programs (Cointelpros) being furnished the Committee as a result of agreement at the briefing.

Participating in the briefing were Assistant Director W. R. Wannall, Deputy Assistant Director H. E. Helgeson and Supervisors Edward J. Pistey, Elmer W. Larson, and David Ryan, all of the Intelligence Division (INTD), Supervisor Paul V. Daly of Legal Counsel Division and Mr. Steven Blackhurst, Deputy to Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, Office of the Deputy Attorney General. General details relating to the origin, scope and objectives of our discontinued Cointelpros were related to the HSC staff members. Additionally, general background regarding the work of the INTD, the organization of the Division and our foreign and domestic intelligence responsibilities were outlined. The HSC members expressed extreme appreciation for this briefing and it was suggested to them that they and Mr. A. Searle Field, Staff Director, HSC, take advantage of the formal filmed INTD briefing which has been prepared by the Research (IS-3) Section. 12

Mr. Oliphant and Mr. Vermeire indicated they did not anticipate the HSC would want to explore those areas of Cointelpros which are being scrutinized by the Senate Select Committee. They pointed out that Congressman Otis G. Pike, Chairman, HSC, was extremely interested in developing costs relating to Cointelpro activities.

informant coverage and other areas of intelligence responsibility. It was pointed out to them it would be difficult to assign cost figures to any area of our Cointelpros as efforts in this regard were only a minor adjunct to our overall intelligence efforts. The HSC members indicated they anticipated carefully reviewing our Black Extremist Cointelpro and our White Hate Cointelpro as Congressmen Dellums of California and Treem of Louisiana felt a responsibility to their constituents to thoroughly review these programs. It was also indicated the program which targeted militants seeking independence for Puerto Rico would also be reviewed.

During this briefing it was agreed the FBI would immediately make available to the HSC the following materials:

1. The Study Committee report on FBI Counterintelligence Programs (Petersen report) and its exhibits A through P. It is noted this report has already been made available to the Senate Select Committee. Exhibits A through E are individual summaries of all proposals under the five domestic programs. At this time they are being made available to HSC, excised to protect sensitive informants, operations and for privacy considerations.
2. Thirteen documents which have been released in response to the Carl Stern and Fred Graham Freedom of Information Act requests will be made available to HSC. These documents relate to the initiation of the Cointelpros and have been extensively excised to protect sources, ongoing investigations and for privacy considerations.

ACTION:

For information. The Legal Counsel Division should arrange to obtain the above-described documents from Room 4063, JEH, for delivery to HSC.

At 10 a.m. 8/18/75, by appointment, Messrs. James B. F. Oliphant and Richard Vermiere, representatives of the House Select Committee on Intelligence, appeared at my office to receive a briefing on the activities of the Intelligence Division (INTD).

In addition to myself, Inspector-Deputy Assistant Director Hunter E. Helgeson, IS Branch, INTD; SA Paul V. Daly, Legal Counsel Division; SA Elmer W. Larson, Senstudy Project; and SA Fred J. Cassidy, #1 Man of IS-3 Section, were at this briefing.

After determining that Oliphant and Vermiere had appropriate clearances, I gave them a rundown on the structure of INTD, the substantive matters handled by this Division, and the jurisdiction under which we operate. I also advised them that we will cooperate with the House Committee to the best of our ability.

Mr. Oliphant advised that he was familiar with the Attorney General's proposed guidelines under which the FBI will operate in the future and asked what our position on these guidelines were. I told him that we were currently studying the guidelines and at the completion of this study we would be glad to discuss this matter with the Committee.

Both gentlemen seemed to be particularly interested in manpower committed to the foreign counterintelligence field and the domestic internal security field both at FBI Headquarters and in the field.

I conveyed to these gentlemen the fact that through the years the FBI has done its utmost to be responsive to the desires of the Congress and the people of the United States, and continues to desire to be responsive to their wishes. They indicated that the primary area of concern was our

By request, Inspector Bowers called on Congressman Dale Milford of Texas, a Member of the House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities, shortly before 10 a.m. on 8-5-75. The Congressman furnished the enclosed document which he said had been furnished to him on 8-4-75. He said he had read it that evening and was concerned some of the information contained therein might be classified or based on classified information. He said the document, which he described as a very detailed questionnaire regarding intelligence activities, undoubtedly was prepared by someone with a good knowledge of intelligence organizations in this country. He noted the document shows on its last page that it apparently was prepared by the National Security Study Group, Institute for Policy Studies, 1901 Q Street, Northwest, Washington, D. C. He stated he had never heard of this organization. The Congressman was furnished a brief description of this organization based on public source material. Congressman Milford said he had not supplied a copy of this document to CIA and had no objections to our furnishing them a copy. A copy of the document has been forwarded to CIA through the Senstudy Project Personnel of the Intelligence Division.

During the brief conversation with Congressman Milford-- he was rushing to attend a meeting of the House Select Committee on Intelligence Activities--he expressed grave concern over damage being done to the intelligence community by the demands growing out of some of the inquiries by various committees. He indicated he was shocked by the determination on the part of some Members of the Committee to insist on public disclosure of a detailed budget of CIA. He also commented that recently he had been told by the president of one of this country's international airlines that the airline president had issued written orders to all

Legal Counsel to Mr. Adams Memorandum
RE: HOUSTUDY 75

INSTITUTE FOR POLICY STUDIES
INTERNAL SECURITY - IPS

airline employees that they are not to cooperate in any manner whatever with CIA. He said actions such as this undoubtedly will greatly weaken our intelligence gathering capacity. He indicated the airline president apparently had taken this action out of concern that the company might run into difficulties with some foreign governments if it was in any way connected with CIA activities.

The Congressman was thanked for having brought this matter promptly to our attention and for his support of the intelligence community. He offered to be of assistance to us whenever possible.

The document furnished by Congressman Milford contains 78 demands for information and/or documents from CIA, compliance with which would reveal the most highly secret operations of the organization. Four separate categories are covered. These are (1) Table of Organization, (2) Laws Governing the CIA, (3) The Budget, and (4) Policies and Procedures Concerning Disclosures.

The FBI is mentioned only in passing in this document; however, it can be assumed the National Security Study Group of the Institute for Policy Studies is working on a similar questionnaire regarding the FBI. //

RECOMMENDATION:

For information.

This afternoon (8/21/75) House Select Committee (HSC) Staff Members James Oliphant and Richard Vermiere indicated to Supervisors E. W. Larson and S. F. Phillips of INTD that they would like to promptly see all the material relating to COINTELPRO which has already been made available by access or delivery to the Senate Select Committee (SSC). Because of the considerable volume of this material and the fact that Staff Members of the SSC are in the midst of reviewing much of it, it was pointed out that the immediate production of this material to the HSC would pose some logistical problems and that, further, it would probably be most difficult for them to fully understand the material going into it "cold." It was therefore suggested to Oliphant and Vermiere that perhaps an oral briefing on COINTELPRO would be productive to them. They immediately accepted the idea and asked for such a briefing as soon as possible.

We have made arrangements for a briefing as described to take place commencing at 3:00 p.m. tomorrow (8/22/75) in the INTD Conference Room. It is planned that the following individuals in addition to Oliphant and Vermiere will be present. Mr. Steven Blackhurst, who is Deputy to the Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination in the Office of the Deputy Attorney General has indicated a desire to be present and plans to attend. It should be noted that we have already cleared with Blackhurst our having the briefing and he indicated it would not interfere with negotiations currently under way between the Bureau, Department and the HSC regarding procedures.

From INTD will be present yourself (Mr. Wannall), Mr. H. E. Helgeson, Deputy Assistant Director, Mr. E. J. Pistey, Mr. D. Ryan and a representative from the Senstudy 75 Project. We also plan on having present a representative of the Legal Counsel Division.

The Department by letter dated 8/7/75 requested a meeting with House Select Committee representatives to arrange for procedures for the handling of requests by that Committee. The Department as of 8/18/75 had not received a response despite the fact we had received requests from the Committee in writing and also requests which were set forth in the printed transcript for the hearings with the Select Committee on Intelligence dated August 7, 1975. We requested on 8/18/75 that the Department expeditiously contact the Committee to determine when a meeting could be held with Committee representatives to discuss the aforementioned matters including the outstanding requests. Steven Blackhurst, Deputy Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, in turn advised a meeting was scheduled for 8/19/75 with A. Searle Field, Staff Director.

The meeting was held as scheduled on 8/19/75 and in attendance were Inspector John B. Hotis, SA Paul V. Daly and SA Elmer Larson; Aaron Donner, Counsel for the Committee; A. Searle Field, Staff Director; Richard Vermeire and Tim Oliphant; Staff Investigators; Pete Hughes; and Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination; and his Deputy, Steven Blackhurst.

Field stated at the outset of the meeting that he did not accept nor would the Committee accept the procedures concerning the production of documents that existed between the Justice Department and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Field and Donner both expressed the opinion that these procedures appeared to be much too restrictive. Field also stated that he wanted it understood that this was an investigation and that there would be no courtesies extended. He expressed his displeasure at the agreement existing between the Senate Select Committee and the Department allowing for in certain instances the review by FBI personnel of notes taken by Staff Members from Bureau documents and being told how in certain instances to handle information furnished. He said there would be no precensoring of any information by the FBI before it gets to his Committee. He felt that a prior review would be intimidating and self-defeating and would not permit his Committee to acquire the facts it needs to conduct a thorough and comprehensive investigation. As an example of the type of information he intends to obtain for the Committee, he cited the identities of informants, payment schedules to informants and access for interview purposes to informants. His Committee is interested in the auditing procedures which are employed and it may be necessary to recommend to the Congress that procedures be established which will enable the Congress to exercise oversight in this area. He said that the CIA is making their confidential sources available to the Committee Staff Members for interview in some cases in "safe houses." Field said that the Committee Staff has no less authority than anyone in the FBI in these matters and stands coequal with them in the review of informants. The purpose of the interview of informants by the Committee, according to Field, would be to verify the payments made to any particular informant and to insure the taxes were paid on that money.

A lengthy discussion concerning the existing procedures by the Senate Select Committee and the FBI concerning document responses was had with Field by both Bureau and Departmental representatives explaining to him the necessity for a structured guideline for responses. It was apparent that Field did not share the feeling that guidelines were necessary in this area and remarked that he did not want to be constrained by any formed agreement in this area but rather handle the Committee requests on an ad hoc basis. He emphasized that he was under pressure from individual Congressmen on the Committee to show results concerning requests for information from the FBI and his feeling was to date that we had not been responsive on a timely basis. Mr. Shaheen pointed out to Field that the Bureau had responded to certain other requests and highlighted the Department's request of 8/7/75 for the opportunity to discuss procedures and guidelines for future Bureau responses.

RE: HOUSTUDY

With respect to interviews of current and former Bureau employees, Field was informed of the existing arrangements with the Senate Select Committee allowing a Bureau representative to be either present and/or available for consultation if requested by the proposed interviewee. He was also informed of the regulations in the Department and Bureau which require current and former employees to be released for purposes of interview by Committee representatives. He was also advised that we have generally been informed in advance of interviews by Congressional Committees of the identities of current and former employees who were to be interviewed and of the topic of the interview so that appropriate arrangements could be made for such an interview. Field accepted these procedures in principle; however, he felt that in certain instances the Committee would want to conduct interviews without prior notification of the Bureau pointing out that current or former Bureau personnel might desire to be interviewed without Bureau knowledge.

It was apparent that the Committee Staff Members of the House Select Committee do not have expertise on Bureau operations that is enjoyed by the Senate Select Committee and that it would be to our advantage to this point to educate the Committee Members with regard to FBI operations and in so doing hopefully making their requests reasonable. Since the prime area at this point based on conversations with Committee Staff Members appears to be informant operations including audit procedures concerning payments. It would appear that a detailed briefing in this area concerning our informant matters would be of value to the Staff Members.

At the meeting it was agreed that with regard to the House Select Committee request for all materials furnished to the Senate Select Committee, that the House Select Committee would be allowed access to such material and if they so desire, they would subsequently request the material be delivered to the Committee. This is in accordance with the decision made by the Deputy Attorney General as relayed to the Bureau concerning the furnishing of material given to the Senate Select Committee to the House Select Committee.

Subsequent to the meeting, Steven Blackhurst and Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., advised that the Bureau should not prepare responses concerning the requests made of Assistant Director Walsh during the hearing on August 7, 1975. It was the Department's intention at this point to request that the Committee make those requests in writing.

RE: HOUSTUDY

At approximately 4:10 p.m. on 8/19/75, Tim Oliphant contacted Inspector Hotis and requested that he and Richard Vermeire meet with Bureau representatives at 10:15 a.m. on 8/20/75 to discuss their request for all documents previously furnished to the Senate Select Committee. He would like to see a general index for all such requests and determine the amount and nature of the information that has been given to the Senate Select Committee. He was told that it was not possible to provide all the information requested on such short notice but we would brief him on the general scope and nature of the Committee's request.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- (1) That a briefing be arranged by the Intelligence Division concerning informant matters in coordination with the Special Investigative and Administrative Divisions.
- (2) That we expeditiously prepare the material furnished the Senate Select Committee for access by the House Select Committee Staff Members.

HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE REQUEST FOR SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE
MATERIALS

A memorandum from Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, dated August 6, 1975, requested our views concerning a request from the House Select Committee for all materials and documents which we previously provided to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. For the reasons set forth below, we believe that the Department should not comply with this request.

To begin with, this request will add to the already substantial administrative burdens imposed upon this Bureau by various Congressional committees. We can also expect similar demands by the House Subcommittee on Civil and Constitutional Rights, chaired by Representative Don Edwards, and Mrs. Abzug's Subcommittee on Government Information and Individual Rights. In addition, the House Select Committee has asked for all documents previously furnished the General Accounting Office at the request of the Judiciary Committee.

Although we are not suggesting that information be withheld which Congress needs to make appropriate oversight and legislative judgments, we feel that it should be sufficient that the information sought is provided one Committee in Congress. Otherwise, we will soon be at the point where the effort needed to comply in a complete and timely fashion to Congressional demands will seriously undermine the ability of this Bureau to carry out its normal investigative responsibilities.

Some support for this position can be found in the Senate Select Committee on Campaign Activities v. Nixon, 493 F. 2d, 725, 732-33 (D. C. Cir. 1974). In a unanimous decision, written by

The Attorney General

Judge Bazelon, the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia refused to enforce a subpoena for Presidential tapes, on the grounds the House Judiciary Committee already had such tapes in its possession. Thus, the [Senate] Select Committee's "immediate oversight need for the subpoenaed tapes is, from a Congressional perspective, merely cumulative." In addition, the court said, there was no showing that the subpoenaed materials were critical to the Committee's legislative functions. Id. 732.

We are also concerned about the possibility of compromising extremely sensitive sources or ongoing investigations. While we do not question the integrity of the staff members of these Committees, the broad dissemination of these materials unavoidably increases the likelihood of improper disclosure.

An additional problem is presented by Rule 11 of the House Rules which provides that information furnished to a Committee is available upon request to any member of the House. As you know, Rule 7.3 of the House Rules for the Select Committee on Intelligence Activities states that, "Until such time as the Committee has submitted its final report to the House, classified or other sensitive information in the Committee records and files shall not be made available or disclosed to other than the Committee membership and the Committee staff, except as being otherwise determined by the Committee." It is not at all clear, however, whether the Committee Rules supersede established rules of the House. Furthermore, Rule 7.3 does not deal with the ultimate disposition of such materials once the Committee has submitted its final report.

For these reasons we strongly urge that Chairman Pike's request for the materials provided the Senate Select Committee be denied. We stand ready, of course, to respond to specific requests for information but do not feel it is wise to honor such a broad and indiscriminate demand.

NOTE: A memorandum from Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, dated 8-6-75, requested our views concerning a request from the House Select Committee for all materials and documents which we previously provided to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. Mr. Shaheen notes that an informal request by the House Select Committee to the Senate Select Committee for a copy of the list of requests for documents and materials was refused. The deadline for our response was extended to 8-12-75 by Steven Blackhurst, Deputy Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination.

SUBJECT: House Select Committee Request for Senate Select Committee Materials

The House Select Committee (Pike Committee) has asked this Department to furnish it with all materials and documents which we previously have provided to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (Church Committee). To date we have not complied with this request and would like your views on whether or how it would be appropriate for us to do so.

The House Select Committee has not asked us for a copy or the Senate Select Committee's list or requests for documents and materials, nor has it formally requested such a list from the Senate Select Committee itself. We understand that an informal request for the list was refused.

Please give us your views on the appropriate response to the House Select Committee request no later than August 8. They will be forwarded to the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General for consideration and decision.

By letter dated 7/30/75 from A. Searle Field, Staff Director and Chief Counsel of the House Select Committee on Intelligence (HSCI), the Committee requested briefings for its staff by me as well as by a number of other Bureau representatives. On 8/5/75 Committee staff member Richard Vermeire telephonically contacted the office of Michael E. Shaheen, Jr., Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, Department of Justice, and requested that I provide the staff members a briefing concerning budget and accounting matters at 4 p.m. on that date. The purpose of this memorandum is to record the information discussed at that briefing part of which you attended.

The briefing was attended by Vermeire and staff member James B. F. Oliphant. They inquired initially as to whether we had a separate accounting and budgeting for Intelligence. It was explained to them that in connection with the fiscal year 1977 Spring Call we had an item for the first time which was labeled Intelligence. It was explained to them also that Intelligence was divided into four parts which are Intelligence - Organized Crime, Intelligence - General Crimes, Intelligence - Internal Security, and Intelligence - Counterintelligence. These items represent the FBI's handling of informants in each of the four areas and include the personnel cost and other expenses related thereto as well as the actual payments to informants. They then wanted to know whether you would bring with you information concerning payments to Counterintelligence and Internal Security informants when you testified before the Committee on 8/7/75. They were advised that you would have some information with you concerning payments to informants.

RE: HOUSTUDY

They asked whether I could give them a definition of Counterintelligence and Internal Security. I told them that we could provide them a more detailed definition later if they liked but in general terms Counterintelligence deals with countering the efforts of foreign intelligence agencies to collect information in this country and that Internal Security deals generally with threats or potential threats against the United States arising from groups or individuals domestically. They did not request any further detailed explanation.

A discussion then followed concerning how we allocated our cost to the various programs such as those included in the fiscal year 1977 Spring Planning Call. An explanation was given to them of our manpower utilization surveys and how this formed the basis for the distribution of cost to programs.

They wanted to know what security categories or programs were set forth in our fiscal year 1975 and 1976 request under the Management By Objectives (MBO) Program. They were advised that the submission for each of these two years included categories for Counterintelligence, Internal Security and Terrorism.

Oliphant wanted to know whether there is any distinction between a radical and an extremist. I told him I knew of no clear distinction between the two. They then inquired as to whether there is a distinction made between our budget and accounting for activities which are conducted before a crime is committed (intelligence) and after a crime is committed. They were advised that there is no such distinction.

They asked whether there is anyone from any other investigative or intelligence agency, such as the CIA, on the payroll of the FBI. They were told that there is not. They then asked whether there is anyone from the FBI on the payroll of any other agency. They were advised that there are not except that the FBI now and has for many years loaned personnel to the investigative staff of the House Appropriations Committee on a reimbursable basis. They were also told that the Director and two Assistant Directors of the investigative staff of the House Appropriations Committee have actually left the rolls of the FBI.

L. C. GROOVER TO MR. WALSH MEMO

and are carried on the rolls of the House Appropriations Committee for a period of time after which it is expected that they will return to the FBI. They asked whether we have people who maintain liaison with intelligence or investigative agencies. They were told that we do have personnel who are responsible for maintaining liaison with each of the other investigative and intelligence agencies. I asked the staff members whether they are confining their inquiry to activities in the security field either Counterintelligence or Internal Security. They indicated that they were interested in "intelligence" activities regardless of whether it were security or criminal. I asked them then what was their definition of intelligence. They responded that they could not provide a definition of intelligence but that there are two pending bills, one of which deals with criminal justice investigative information and the other deals with criminal justice intelligence information; and that they would be interested in the intelligence information side. They pointed out further that you would most likely be asked for a definition of intelligence when you appeared before the Committee.

seems not asked when
Returning to the budget they wanted to know whether there is any category which shows what we spend working with other agencies. They were advised that there is no such category.

Oliphant pointed out that the FBI has always been noted for maintaining a good public image. He asked whether in our fiscal year 1977 Spring Call there was any item setting forth our cost of public relations programs or dealing with the public or news media. He was told that such cost would be set forth under the program for External Affairs, since inquiries by the public and the press were generally answered in the External Affairs Division. It was also pointed out that inquiries under the Freedom of Information Act are handled in a separate Division. They then inquired as to whether the FBI's program priorities are established on the basis of programs that would generate the best image of the FBI. They were advised that this most certainly was not the case. They inquired as to whether there are any statistics regarding the "Top Ten" Program which would show the number of such fugitives which had been apprehended based on information received from citizens. They were advised that such statistics were available.

L. C. GROOVER TO MR. WALSH MEMO

se never not asked after
They suggested that you might have these statistics available when you testified before the Committee on 8/7/75, inasmuch as the Committee members might be interested in this.

They inquired as to whether we have an accounting procedures manual and account code. It was explained to them that our accounting system is undergoing revision in order to comply with GAO standards and that our overall accounting manual has not been completed. They were advised that the payroll portion of the accounting system had been approved by GAO on 6/30/75. They were advised that we do have a code book which sets forth the various accounts and codes. A brief discussion took place concerning the request for information in the Committee's letter of 7/28/75. It was pointed out to the staff members that some of the questions were so non-specific and all-encompassing that they could not possibly be answered in a short period of time if at all. It was also pointed out to them that some of the requests were for information that even if eventually compiled would be of minimal or of no use to them. Some of the questions of this type were the number of payments to the informants and the number of informants with a breakout of multiple payments to a single informant. They said that what they were really looking for in a question of this type was that as of a given time we had so many Organized Crime, General Criminal, Internal Security or Counterintelligence informants and that they were paid a certain amount of money. They indicated that if a question were stated in such a way that it were impossible or extremely difficult to answer we should set that forth pointing out what would be involved in responding to the request so that they could make a decision as to requesting the information in a more limited form.

They next inquired as to whether payments to general criminal or internal security informants would be larger. You responded that while all payments are different since they are on a COD basis, it was your impression that individual payments to criminal informants would probably be larger and pointed out that a criminal informant may furnish information which results in a recovery amounting to several million dollars which would, because of the time and money saved in FBI efforts, entitle him to a rather substantial payment. They asked how much an agent can pay to an informant without getting approval. It was explained to them none without any approval and depending upon the amount it would need SAC approval or approval from FBIHQ.

L. C. GROOVER TO MR. WALSH MEMO
RE: HOUSTUDY

It was explained briefly the SAC authority to approve informant payments.

A brief and general discussion took place of the expenditure of Bureau funds in which it was explained to them that approximately 79 percent of Bureau expenditures are for salary and personnel benefits and that these plus rent, communications and utilities bring the total to almost 90 percent. They were told that all other expenditures must be borne from within the remaining ten percent of this which included such things as automobiles, equipment, supplies, travel and any other necessary expenditures to support our investigative personnel.

They wanted to know whether our budget and accounting records showed what money was spent for COINTELPRO. They were advised that funds were not budgeted for, spent for or accounted for under any program known as COINTELPRO.

Finally, they asked if we had not conducted several project evaluations. They were told that the Office of Planning and Evaluation has done a number of indepth studies of Bureau operations which were apparently the evaluations to which they referred.

The foregoing is submitted for information and record purposes.

In a memorandum dated 7-11-75, captioned as above, it was recommended and approved that the briefing for the House Select Committee staff await House action on the House Select Committee.

On July 28, 1975, Richard Stuart Vermeire, Select Committee Staff, advised Special Agent Dennis Miller to disregard the request for the briefing because of the press of time. Vermeire said the staff was starting afresh and the request for the briefing was made by former Chairman Nedzi.

Michael E. Shaheen, Special Counsel for Intelligence Coordination, United States Department of Justice, was advised of above by Special Agent Paul V. Daly on July 28, 1975.

8. All data (including but not limited to manuals and memoranda) pertaining to procedures for the recruitment and maintenance of informants.

Material responsive to Items F1 and F2 above is contained in Sections 107, 108 and 130 of this Bureau's Manual of Instructions which Sections, in accordance to request contained in Item F8, are being made available for review by appropriate HSC personnel in Room 4171, J. Edgar Hoover Building. In addition, in response to Items F2 and F8, there are also being made available for review to HSC personnel three Bureau memoranda relating to informants and income tax payments based on monies received by informants as a result of their informant status.

Item F5 requests access to the number of informants with breakout of multiple payments to a single informant. Information relating to number of informants operated by this Bureau, as of approximately June 30, 1975, will be made available for review by appropriate HSC personnel in Room 4171 in J. Edgar Hoover Building.

For your guidance, statistics relating to multiple payments made to a single informant are not readily available, and can only be accumulated through a time-consuming manual tabulation of payments made to each and every informant. Referenced Bureau communication of August 7, 1975, however, provided your Committee with the total dollar payment made by this Bureau to informants in each of fiscal years 1966 through 1974 and for the first 11 months of fiscal year 1975.

Item F6 requests access to information pertaining to whether post payment internal reviews are made concerning payments to informants. (If so, include internal audit findings.)

U. S. HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (HSC)

RE: REQUEST FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING THE FBI BUDGET AS IT
RELATES TO GATHERING, USE AND DISSEMINATION OF INTELLIGENCE

Post payment internal reviews are incorporated by the FBI into the accounting procedures followed for the handling of payments made to informants. FBI Headquarters in Washington exercises central control over these payments which results in every payment being reported to and monitored by FBI Headquarters. In addition, approvals are required by field office supervisory personnel and these expenditures are audited by the Inspection Division during their annual inspection of each field office.

The audit findings resulting from the audit work of this Bureau's Inspection Division disclose that these expenditures are fully documented, accurately recorded, justifiable payments that are achieving the purpose for which intended and the internal control over these payments is considered outstanding.

Item F7 requests access to all data pertaining to the cost effectiveness of the informant program.

There is no overall memorandum of instruction or other document dealing with cost effectiveness as it relates to informants. This factor is considered by the Special Agent handling the informant, his supervisor, and the Special Agent in Charge. Payments to informants for services are made commensurate with the value of information furnished and for actual expenses incurred in connection with obtaining the information for the FBI. Recommendations concerning payments to informants on a regular basis receive careful consideration at Headquarters level. After analysis and comparison with payments currently being made to other informants operated under similar circumstances and providing similar-type information, authority is extended at Headquarters to pay informants for services and expenses within prescribed limits. When payments are authorized by Headquarters, it is the personal responsibility of each Special Agent in Charge to definitely assure that full value is being received. His review is on an individual basis wherein he evaluates the information received and the amount being recommended by the handling Agent for payment for this specific information. Additionally, instructions provide that each Special Agent in Charge is to insure that all pending informant files are reviewed personally by appropriate Supervisory personnel on a regular periodic basis not to exceed a period of 60 days. This review includes, but is not limited to, assurance that full value has been received for all payments made to informants.

The entire informant program is subject to annual review by our Inspection Staff which physically examines informant files to assure that they are being handled properly and that payments are being made commensurate with the value of information received.

Item II requests access to all data pertaining to confidential funds and payment procedures relating thereto. Material responsive to this request is available for review by appropriate HSC personnel in Room 4171, J. Edgar Hoover Building.

Item I requests access to all data pertaining to reward monies and payment procedures relating thereto.

For your information although this Bureau has in its appropriations language, phraseology permitting the expenditure of funds for rewards, no public rewards have been offered by the FBI in any Bureau case since 1937, and this Bureau does not request funds for this purpose. It should be noted that the Attorney General has the statutory authority to pay rewards up to $25,000 for information or capture of any person wanted for violation of criminal laws. In this regard, on the specific instruction of Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy, a reward poster was issued by the Department of Justice August 4, 1961, in the amount of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of anyone violating Federal statute in connection with hijacking of an aircraft. This was a Departmental offer and was not considered an FBI matter.

U. S. HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON INTELLIGENCE ACTIVITIES (HSC)

RE: REQUEST FOR INFORMATION CONCERNING THE FBI BUDGET AS IT

Item J requests access to all payments and breakdown thereof made to persons outside the FBI with respect to intelligence and counterintelligence activities.

This is to inform that above-requested information is not readily available from payment records maintained by this Bureau. Payments of this type made by Bureau field divisions would be included in the monthly report submitted by each field division, entitled "Confidential Funds and Informant Report" under the category of Miscellaneous Expenditures. Similar payments could also have been made by FBI Headquarters. In order to accurately respond to this request, all miscellaneous expenditures made by field divisions, as well as by FBI Headquarters covering a designated period, would have to be manually searched and compared with background material relating to the authority for such payments. To be responsive to request contained in Item I would involve an extensive commitment of Bureau manpower and resources adversely affecting ongoing and current operations.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Type or print clearly in ink.
- Indicate classification of the abstract top and bottom.
- Date the abstract and put on any internal control numbers required.
- "FROM" entry should clearly identify the organization providing the information.
- If additions (as when a copy of document sent to SSC is later sent to HSC) or changes to a previously submitted form are necessary, submit a copy of the original abstract, with the change indicated.

SPECIFIC ITEM NO. 8. SUMMARY - enter brief narrative statement describing substance of information and showing relationship to Intelligence Community matters if appropriate. Any feedback or evidence of investigatory interests should be noted. Commitments made to supply additional information should be noted. Additionally, certain administrative information may be entered here, e.g., restrictions on review of a document, if document was paraphrased, whether interviewee is current or former employee, etc. If actual document or transcript is provided, that fact should be noted and no summary is required. Additional pages may be attached if necessary.

A. DEFINITION

An individual who furnishes valuable information within our criminal investigative jurisdiction or concerning other criminal matters of interest to the Bureau

B. ILLUSTRATION

This type informant includes members of the underworld, those who closely associate with criminals or have intimate knowledge of criminal activities. Typical examples of such persons are madams, prostitutes, pimps, fences, con men, hijackers, robbers, burglars, hoodlums, gangsters, and those individuals who associate with or have knowledge of such persons.

C. OBSERVATION

The listing of an individual as an approved Bureau informant is dependent upon whether he or she can regularly furnish valuable criminal information. In most instances an individual will be approved who has:

1. Furnished worth-while information in two or more Bureau cases
2. Furnished worth-while information in one Bureau case and better than average information[relating to criminal intelligence investigations]
3. Furnished worth-while information in at least one Bureau case and in one other state or local case which is acted upon by the responsible authorities so as to obtain corroboration of the informant's report
4. Furnished worth-while information in at least one Bureau case and in one other Federal case which is acted upon by the interested Federal agency, so as to obtain corroboration of the informant's report

D. DEVELOPMENT OF CRIMINAL INFORMANTS

1. One of the most important responsibilities of an Agent is the identification of prospective criminal informants and the development of prospective informants to the point where they will regularly contribute information to the Bureau.
2. Criminal informants are used to:
 - a. Solve cases
 - b. Locate fugitives and witnesses
 - c. Report cases we would not otherwise receive
 - d. Report plans to commit offenses
 - e. Advise of general criminal activities
3. Informants are developed from those who volunteer to be of assistance; from subjects in cases investigated; from persons interviewed during investigations; and from selected prospects who are clearly in a position to obtain worth-while information. Their development frequently requires patient, protracted effort to find a basis for persuading them to cooperate in furnishing information.
4. Care must be exercised in attempting to persuade individuals to act as informants to avoid any allegations of undue influence. An individual who is in custody and who offers to furnish information generally does so in the hope that he will receive some consideration in return. Bureau Agents cannot promise any immunity or any reduction in sentence to a criminal who furnishes information and they must not put themselves in a position where they might subsequently be accused of having done so.
5. Once an individual has started to cooperate and furnishes information of value, his continued cooperation can frequently be assured through payments for services rendered and information furnished. There should be no reluctance in recommending substantial payments to informants who supply substantial assistance, if such payments are necessary to obtain the assistance.
6. Another important factor in the initial problem of getting a potential informant started is the appreciation for fair and impartial treatment sometimes generated during the handling of a case. Agents must be alert to recognize such feelings on the part of subjects and to capitalize on them. Should a subject indicate in any manner that he is appreciative, and should he be qualified to act as a real informant by virtue of his background and associates, then affirmative action should be taken to re-contact him at frequent intervals fully to explore his potentialities.

This document is prepared in response to your request and is not for dissemination outside your Committee. Its use is limited to official proceedings by your Committee and the document and its contents are not to be disclosed to unauthorized personnel without the express consent of the FBI.

7. In the initial stages of developing an informant, background data concerning him should be compiled, as outlined in section E below. Once all of this information has been gathered together the technique to be used in persuading the prospect to act as an informant will depend upon the peculiar circumstances involved in the individual case and upon the resourcefulness of the Agent endeavoring to develop the prospect.
8. Each field office must have criminal informants who do furnish information concerning all types of offenses within the Bureau's investigative jurisdiction. In addition, informants must be available to furnish information concerning general criminal activities. Each field office's informant coverage must be regularly planned and adjusted to the changing volume of offenses occurring in classifications, such as:
 - a. Theft from interstate shipment
 - b. Interstate transportation of stolen motor vehicles
 - c. White Slave Traffic Act
 - d. Interstate transportation of stolen property
 - e. Bank robbery
 - f. Interstate transportation of obscene matter
 - g. Interstate transportation of lottery tickets
 - h. Gambling
 - i. Gang activities
 - j. Politics in crime
9. The following list suggests other sources from which names of potential informants may be secured.
 - a. Reports on general criminal activities
 - b. Major criminal cases
 - c. Applications for restoration of civil rights (closed cases)
 - d. Modus operandi file of local police departments
 - e. Victims in White Slave Traffic Act cases
 - f. Professional bondsmen
 - g. Bartenders in low-class neighborhoods
 - h. Salesmen catering to prostitutes
 - i. Hotel employes in low-class neighborhoods
 - j. Complainants who contact Bureau offices under certain circumstances
 - k. Operators of roadside taverns
 - l. Madams
 - m. Informants
 - n. Retired police officers, but care should be exercised in seeking their assistance

10. After an informant has been developed, and unless some reason to the contrary exists, his fingerprints are to be obtained if they are not on file in the Identification Division. If the informant refuses, the issue is not to be forced. The informant's fingerprints, obtained solely for this purpose, are to be removed from the criminal files when the use of the informant is discontinued. A flash notice is to be placed by the field in the files of the Identification Division by submission of form FD-165, using informant's true name for each informant who has fingerprints on file. In order to eliminate the possibility of jeopardizing the security of Bureau informants, the word "Informant" should not be indicated in blank ballot box on FD-165. It should be noted the informant file number serves as an indication to the Identification Division of the type of flash notice desired.
(Do not use form FD-9 to request an identification record on informant; FD-165 is to be used for this purpose.) The informant's FBI Identification Record number should be included in the Secure Teletype designating a symbol number informant. Informant's fingerprints, when obtained, should be forwarded as enclosure to FD-165 using applicant-type fingerprint card, FD-258. This card should be properly executed showing subject's complete description, including date and place of birth. Appropriate field office should be shown as contributor, field case file number in number space, and "inquiry" in space for "company and address" on face of card. The flash should be removed when the informant is discontinued by submission of FD-165.
11. When subjects in Bureau cases are sentenced to the penitentiary, consideration should be given to the possibility that these subjects may be used as criminal informants upon their discharge. If there are any possibilities of eventually developing one or more subjects as potential informants upon their release, forward a letter to the Bureau requesting that a stop notice be placed with the Bureau of Prisons so that the appropriate office will be advised of the subject's release. The procedures to be followed in requesting that such a stop notice be placed are set out in Section 8, part II, Manual of Rules and Regulations, under the heading "Stop notice." Upon notification of subject's release, steps can then be taken to attempt to develop him as a criminal informant.
12. [Requests of informant to help defend others
 - a. If requested to assist in preparation of defense in criminal-type cases or handle assignment where such information is readily available, informant should tactfully decline.
 - b. Such requests should be reported immediately to contacting Agent and made a matter of record.
 - c. If informant cannot avoid becoming involved, instruct him not to report any information pertaining to defense plans or strategy.
 - d. Promptly report any such incident to Bureau.
 - e. If an informant is present in conversation between an attorney and individual under criminal indictment, he should immediately leave. If he is unable to do so and inadvertently learns of defense plans or strategy, he is not to report the substance of any such conversation to the FBI. Additionally, the informant is not to engage in or report the substance of a conversation with a criminal defendant dealing with the offense for which the defendant is under indictment.
 - f. Each handling Agent must orally advise the informant of the above, reduce it to writing and record it in the informant's file.]

[13.] Parolees

As a condition of parole, which would include a conditional release, an inmate is required by U. S. Board of Parole to agree in writing that he will not act as an "informer" or special agent for any law enforcement agency. This condition applies to all releasees under the jurisdiction of the U. S. Board of Parole. While this procedure would not preclude accepting information from these persons, payments for information should not be made without prior Bureau approval. Once the period of parole has expired, these individuals may be considered for development.

E. PROCEDURE IN LISTING POTENTIAL CRIMINAL INFORMANTS AND CRIMINAL INFORMANTS

1. Before opening a 137 file on an individual to be considered for development as a potential criminal informant, the following elements must be present:
 - a. The individual under consideration must have been contacted at least once to evaluate his potential.
 - b. The individual must have an arrest record or criminal associates or be engaged in employment or activities (past or present) which make criminal information logically available to him.
2. When a prospective informant is identified:
 - a. Consolidate field office references in a file.
 - b. Obtain all readily available background data. FD-356 must be used in any routine check pertaining to informants making sure all references, such as symbol number, which would tend to identify individual as an informant are deleted.
 - c. Obtain current FBI identification record by FD-165 which will also be used to place a flash notice against his fingerprints if available.
 - d. Request summary of additional information in Bureau files but not available in field office. Specifically state reason for belief Bureau files contain additional information.
3. When a potential informant has furnished worthwhile information in accordance with the provisions of section C above, a symbol number should be assigned. Direct a secure teletype of not more than two full pages in linear paragraph form to the Bureau containing:
 - a. Informant's name and all aliases
 - b. Deleted
 - c. Deleted
 - d. Residence address
 - e. Description
 - f. Deleted
 - g. Deleted
 - h. Employment
 - i. Past activities
 - j. FBI Identification Record number with date obtained
 - k. Criminal associates
 - l. Brief resume of information furnished in the past, including:
 - (1) Title and character of each case (Field office file number should be shown on field office copy.)
 - (2) Date information furnished
 - (3) Estimate of the value of information
 - m. A statement as to whether informant has shown any indication of emotional instability, unreliability, or of furnishing false information

If the Bureau has previously furnished a summary of data in Bureau files, set forth the date and caption of the Bureau letter furnishing such information.
4. The Bureau will advise the field office if the informant is not approved. In the absence of such advice, the individual recommended for listing as a criminal informant is to be considered an approved informant.
5. Once an informant has been listed and approved by the Bureau, such informant will continue to be listed for a reasonable period. This continued listing will depend upon:

- a. Complete justification in subsequent[annual] letters of his ability to furnish information of a particular type should offenses of that type occur
 - b. Evidence that the informant is being regularly contacted
6. After the Bureau is advised of the symbol number for an informant, do not set forth the name of the informant in the heading but merely the symbol number. In all communications after the initial secure teletype, the Bureau and field office file numbers for the informant must be set forth. In communications between offices, the same procedure is to be followed.

F. MAINTAINING FILES ON CRIMINAL INFORMANTS

1. Individual files are to be maintained on all active and potential informants and are to be carried as pending active. Assignment and tickler cards are to be prepared, but do not show true name of informant or potential informant. The name of the informant is not to appear on the assignment and tickler cards. The files are to be included in the tabulations and calculations of delinquencies in the monthly administrative report. The handling of the subject of each of these files is to be assigned to an Agent who will be personally responsible for regular contacts.
2. If information which could be testimony is received from a symbol informant or a PCI, it should be put in FD-302 in exactly the same manner as information received from any other witness, and his name and address (without symbol number or PCI designation) should be set out. The original FD-302 is to be filed in the informant's file; a copy with the identity of the informant properly concealed shall be placed in the pertinent case file. The 137 file number should not be placed on the original or any of the copies of the FD-302. FD-209 shall be used as a cover sheet for the original FD-302 and copy and shall be stapled to the FD-302. The original FD-209 shall be serialized in the informant file and the copy of the FD-209 serialized in the case file. Neither the original FD-302 nor any copies of the FD-302 shall be serialized. The following should be stamped or typed on the FD-209 and copy: "Information herein obtained confidentially; informant's name is not to be disclosed in report or otherwise unless it has been decided definitely that he is to be a witness in a trial or hearing." Until it has been decided that the informant is to be a witness, information furnished by him should be sent to the Bureau and to other offices in the cover pages of a report. If furnished to the USA, it shall be forwarded by letter. If the information received cannot be testimony, it is to be put in memorandum form; where none of the information concerns FBI jurisdiction, it may be put in one memorandum. Do not predicate an investigative report, in any case in which prosecution can be expected, on information attributed to an informant whose identity should not be revealed. So that it will be clearly recognized as the initial report in an investigation, language similar to the following should be used in the first report: "This investigation has been instituted for the purpose of determining if...", followed by a statement of the objectives of the investigation, such as "a quantity of antibiotics had been stolen from the medical laboratory at Fort George G. Meade, Maryland."
3. Reports or memoranda concerning contacts with the informant shall not be placed in the informant's file unless and until assignments are made to run down any significant information. All substantial allegations received from informants must be followed to a definite conclusion.
4. Reports or memoranda showing the development of an informant or contacts with an informant should be posted on the assignment cards in the same manner as postings are made in any other type of case.
5. FD-209 may be used in recording contacts with approved and potential criminal informants. It may be used to extent deemed justified by SAC. Form may be filled out in longhand for brief reports and reports of negative contacts; lengthy reports should be typed and a second sheet used if necessary. Forms or memoranda prepared should show purpose of contact and cases discussed identified by file number; however, title must be shown on form or memorandum if positive information furnished. Contacts with informants are to be recorded in this fashion even if no

- information is developed. During each contact, informant's activities since previous contact should be carefully reviewed and contacting Agent should make certain informant has furnished in writing or verbally all information and data which he has obtained since last contact.
6. Requests that an Agent contact a criminal informant may be made in any manner deemed practicable by the SAC. Memoranda prepared for the requesting Agent showing negative contacts with criminal informants are not to be filed. Such memoranda of a purely negative nature are to be routed to the requesting Agent so that he may record in the case file the contact with the informant, following which the memorandum showing negative contact is to be destroyed. Memoranda showing positive contacts with informants are to be filed. The files of the informants must always show that contact was made with the informant regardless of whether the contact was of positive or negative nature.
 7. If desired, subfiles may be opened in conjunction with the informants' files to permit filing information received from informants and avoid cluttering the file, when the flow of information is sufficiently voluminous.
 8. All pending and closed symbol number informant files are to be maintained under lock and key under the personal supervision of the SAC, ASAC, field supervisor, or responsible employee designated by the SAC. These files are to be available to all Agents and must be reviewed before each contact with the informant by anyone other than the Agent to whom he is assigned.
 9. Form FD-237 (printed on pink paper) has been approved for use in criminal informant and potential criminal informant files. It is to be used in the nature of a table of contents or as an index to show where in the file particular data can be found. This form is to be kept as the top document in the pertinent informant file and is not to be serialized.

G. CRIMINAL INFORMANT INDEX

1. A criminal informant index (on form FD-348) shall be maintained in each field office containing a list of informants by names and a separate list by symbol numbers. The names of potential criminal informants who have been personally and favorably contacted in an attempt to develop them as such shall be included in the indices.
2. Name cards
 - a. Criminal informant and potential criminal informant name cards shall contain:
 - (1) Full name
 - (2) Residence address and telephone number
 - (3) Employment address, position, and telephone number
 - (4) Office file number
 - (5) Symbol number
 - (6) Type of information
 - (7) Remarks
 - b. Deleted
 - c. Name cards shall be subdivided by state, towns or counties, type of information furnished when desirable, and then alphabetically.

3. Symbol cards
 - a. Criminal informant symbol cards shall contain:
 - (1) Symbol number
 - (2) Full name (geographical subdivision, if any)
 - b. The symbol index cards shall be arranged alphabetically by symbol and then numerically.
 - c. Symbols consisting of fictitious names shall be filed alphabetically behind the numerical symbol index section. This portion of the index shall be maintained in a specially designated drawer or index box in the same location as the name cards.
 - d. Agents should not have to handle the symbol cards when searching through name cards looking for informants who can furnish a particular type of information.
4. When a criminal informant is discontinued, the symbol card shall be destroyed. The name card which contains the descriptive data outlined above shall be stamped "discontinued" or "canceled" and transferred to the symbol index. When a potential criminal informant fails to develop within a reasonable time, all cards relating to that potential informant shall be destroyed except the name card, which shall be placed in the source of information index, if appropriate, or shall be destroyed.
5. Numbers assigned to your informants are to be taken from the series of numbers used for your security, [extremist,] criminal, and top echelon informants.
6. Once a number is assigned, it must not be subsequently reassigned to any other informant, source, or confidential technique, regardless of type or designation. If an informant is once discontinued and later reactivated, the original number should be used again for him.
7. The criminal informant index shall be maintained in the office and under the supervision of the SAC, ASAC, or the criminal supervisor, in the discretion of the SAC.
8. Index names of criminal informants in the general field office index in the same manner as any other name. If the informant is one with whom contact is restricted, the index card in the general field office index should not contain the informant's field office file number but merely the words "See SAC."
9. The Bureau must be advised whenever a criminal informant is added or discontinued.
10. The prefix of a symbol number is made up of the appropriate field office teletype abbreviation followed by the appropriate assigned number.
11. The suffix of the symbol number will consist of the letter "C" to designate criminal informant; the letters "PCI" to designate a potential criminal informant who has been assigned a symbol number; the legend "C-TE" to designate a top echelon criminal informant; and the letters "PC" to designate a potential top echelon criminal informant.
12. Although an individual, confidential technique, or source may subsequently furnish information requiring a change in designation (e.g., from criminal to [extremist] or to top echelon, etc.), the number previously assigned will remain the same; however, the suffix is to be changed to the appropriate letter or letters indicating this change (NY 000-C to NY[000-E] or to NY 000-C-TE).
13. If there is a change in the current employment or activity which enables informant to obtain information, the change should be submitted by secure teletype.

H. PROGRESS LETTERS

1. Monthly

A letter (original only, no abstract) must be mailed to the Bureau by the fastest special delivery mail service available by the third business day following the end of the month for which prepared.

a. Set up as follows:

Use form FD-374 as the first page of the letter. There are 13 items to be completed on this form, all of which must be answered either through the insertion of the appropriate figure, or by the use of the word "none" if no accomplishments were recorded.

b. Administrative accomplishments

Under item 2 list the symbol numbers of informants added and under item 3 list the symbol numbers of informants deleted. Do not list or count any informants added or deleted after the 25th of the month for which prepared. These informants should be listed and counted in the next monthly progress letter submitted.

c. Statistical accomplishments

Every statistical accomplishment which can be credited to criminal informants or potential criminal informants must be reported in the first monthly progress letter submitted after the accomplishment took place. Set out as follows:

Opposite items 6-10 list the total number of subjects in each category who were arrested or located as a result of information furnished by criminal informants, or potential criminal informants, during the month. Item 7 is included in the total of item 6. Item 8 is not included in the totals of either items 6 or 7.

Opposite items 11-13 list the total dollar value of stolen property recovered or property confiscated as a result of information furnished by criminal informants, or potential criminal informants, during the month.

The statistics reported in items 9, 10, 12, and 13 are the accomplishments of other law enforcement agencies as a result of our referral to them of information furnished by an informant, or potential informant.

d. Documentation of statistics

Attach to form FD-374 (use as many pages as necessary) a schedule, headed by the name of the submitting office and the date, to show the sources of the statistics compiled on the form. This schedule will have three categories; namely, "Bureau Matters," "Local Matters," and "Other Federal Matters." Under each category will be listed in three columns the criminal informant symbol number or potential criminal informant symbol number, the title and character of the case, and the nature of the statistic being credited to the informant (such as "subject arrested" or "fugitive apprehended" or "subject located" or "$700 stolen watches recovered"). If, as in the case of local, state, or other Federal violations, there is no case title, this information may be omitted; however, the description of the statistic should include enough information to identify the type of violation (such as "John Green arrested for local burglary" or "$475 stolen hams recovered from local burglary"). If two or more statistics result from one informant on one case, list the statistics separately opposite the informant (such as "subject arrested on narcotics charge. $700 narcotics recovered").

e. [Deleted]

2. [Annual]

An annual letter should be submitted concerning criminal informant coverage in each field office's territory. [This letter should be submitted six months after the completion of the annual inspection of your office.]

a. Except for those informants who have been the subject of a payment request letter or a letter designating the criminal informant within the past 90 days, an individual communication for each informant shall be submitted in duplicate on letterhead stationery, be dated, and show the place where made. These communications must contain:

- (1) Symbol number
- (2) Bufile number for informant
- (3) Deleted
- (4) Statement showing reason why 30-day contact not made if missed [since the completion of your office's annual inspection.]
- (5) Outcome of cases not completed when [report of annual inspection of field office was submitted.]
- (6) Succinct summary (identified by case title, character, and date) of information furnished or assistance rendered since last [inspection of your office] and an estimate of its value.
- (7) Deleted
- (8) Deleted

Note: The above data are not required for regularly paid informants; communications pertaining to them should simply indicate they are being paid.

b. All communications shall be submitted to the Bureau by cover letter which should show the symbol numbers of informants in the territory covered by headquarters city and by each resident agency.

Schedule captioned "Potential Criminal Informants" shall list in alphabetical order each potential criminal informant who has been under development one year or longer and shall include for each one listed the date placed under development, brief statement outlining the basis for development, brief statement outlining efforts to develop potential criminal informant and information furnished to date (include case title, character, and date information furnished), and specific comments as to reasons for further efforts to develop.

- [c. [These annual reports should be furnished the Bureau six months [after the completion of the last annual inspection of your office.]

I. BUREAU POLICY

1. All investigative activity must be made a matter of record in the field office files with all sources of information being completely identified. Sources include all confidential informants - criminal, extremist, or security. Agents must not have and use informants known only to the individual Agents personally.
2. Criminal informants must be advised that they are not Bureau employees. It must be recognized that many such informants are also criminals and considerable care must be exercised in dealing with them so they will not become aware of and have the opportunity to obstruct the Bureau's work.
3. Arrangements must be worked out so that at least two Agents are in a position to contact each criminal informant. For a short time after an informant is first developed, it may sometimes be necessary to have one Agent make all contacts. However, a program must be established and actually started within six months after the informant is developed to establish a working arrangement so that a second Agent can contact such an informant. If any situation arises in which this cannot be done, the Bureau must be informed.
4. Consideration should be given to the assignment of specific projects to good informants, particularly those who have had little current opportunity to furnish information because of a temporary lull in criminal activity in the area in which the informant is utilized.
5. All informants and potential informants should be contacted as often as necessary, but at least one personal contact should be made every thirty days, unless there is some substantial reason for not doing so.
6. Information from informants of interest to another Government agency must be furnished to that agency. When information is passed on to local or other investigative agencies, or acted upon by the Bureau, the identity of the informant must be fully protected.
7. When it appears that a criminal informant or potential criminal informant shows indications of emotional instability, unreliability, or has furnished false information, advise the Bureau immediately and furnish information as to any instance in which such informant has appeared as a witness in behalf of the Government in a Bureau case and any instances in which he has furnished information which was disseminated to any other agency.
8. Constant care must be exercised to avoid any disclosure to anyone which might permit identification of a criminal informant or even cast suspicion on a criminal informant. The danger to be recognized and guarded against is that routine, everyday contacts with criminal informants will result in a relaxing of our vigilance to protect informants. It must always be remembered that one slip or one misstatement may cause a criminal informant to be killed.

9. Where prosecution is contemplated in a matter in which information has been received from an informant and the USA can give no assurance of his ability to protect the informant's identity, no further action is to be taken until the Bureau can be advised and the case can be discussed with the Department.
10. Informants should furnish information to the Bureau exclusively. If under unusual circumstances they find it necessary to furnish information to representatives of some other agency or organization, be certain that they will first advise the Bureau of their intention to do so.
11. Informants should confine themselves to matters within the Bureau's primary investigative jurisdiction so far as it is possible to do so and should not become involved in procuring evidence regarding violations not within the Bureau's primary investigative jurisdiction. Debrief all informants and sources on at least a monthly basis regarding their knowledge of narcotics activities.
12. Criminal informants should be cultivated on Government reservations when the investigative problems warrant this action but do not develop informants among active duty military personnel.
13. The office supervising an informant must furnish to any other office using him a summary of information as to the informant, such as descriptive data, mode of travel, criminal background, an up-to-date identification record, and any other information pertinent to the assignment.
- [14. All pending informant files are to be reviewed personally by appropriate supervisory personnel on a regular periodic basis not to exceed 60 days. This review must include the informant's file and its sub-files.]

J. PAID CRIMINAL INFORMANTS

1. Investigative employees must not approach, directly or indirectly, representatives of companies, private industries, or insurance companies and request assistance regarding payments of money, gifts, or products of such companies to informants. Gifts should not be given to criminal informants.
2. SAC may approve advances to an individual for expenses in obtaining information, for the performance of services, or for information on a c.o.d. basis, up to $400. Several payments or advances may be made under this general authority until the sum of such payments or advances aggregates $400. Thereafter, Bureau authority must be obtained before further payments or advances may be made. The first communication to the Bureau requesting payments to PCI under SAC authority must contain description and FBI Identification Record number (if available) of the individual. If it is necessary to request a new $400 SAC authorization at the same time as the secure teletype designating the informant as an approved symbol number informant is being submitted, include all data in one secure teletype.

When requesting authority to expend an additional sum aggregating $400 on authority of SAC, submit original and one copy of letter. If authority granted, correspondence will be prepared and transmitted to the field. Letter must include statement and information required by paragraphs 3 and 4 (latter covering preceding authorization) of this section. If request not approved, correspondence will be prepared and transmitted to field.

3. Any communication to the Bureau recommending payment authorization to a criminal informant or potential criminal informant should include a statement as to whether there has been any indication on the part of the informant of emotional instability, unreliability, or of furnishing false information.
4. When requesting authority for additional payments or advances, advice should be furnished concerning:
 - a. The symbol number of the CI or PCI
 - b. The amount of each payment or advance made
 - c. The title and character of the case or cases involved
 - d. Details of information furnished or to be obtained
 - e. The value of the information or services
5. When it is recommended that regular payments be made to an informant, the recommendation should propose a maximum amount to be paid to the informant per day, week, or month. If the amount to be paid is on a per diem basis, or on a "whenever used" basis, the maximum to be disbursed to the informant per month should be set.
6. Recommendation for continued payments to an informant who has been paid on a regular basis should set forth:
 - a. Deleted
 - b. Specific details of information received since submission of last progress letter. Set forth in a succinct manner.
 - c. Title and character of case in which pertinent
 - d. Evaluation of the worth of the information and amount paid in each instance

Letters recommending renewal of authority to continue regular payments must be submitted promptly and at least two weeks prior to the expiration of the currently authorized period.

7. Submit an original and one copy of the letter requesting continued payments to criminal informants. If payments as requested are approved or denied, the field will be advised by separate communication. In addition, the initial payment authorization for an informant will be in the form of regular correspondence. Payment letters must be explicit. The first paragraph of your letter should read as nearly as possible as follows:

"I recommend that authority be granted to continue (increase, decrease) payments to the above informant up to $____ (amount) per ____ (month, week) for a period of ____ months on a c.o.d. basis or for expenses to be incurred or services rendered in seeking information at our specific request. This authorization is to be effective ____ (date) and letters of progress will be submitted (date set forth in original authorization letter showing letters to be submitted monthly, weekly, etc.) and my letter of (two weeks before expiration of authorization) will contain my recommendation concerning further payments."

8. Blue slips (FD-37) reclaiming payments to regularly paid informants need only refer to the letter authorizing such payments. Blue slips reclaiming payments to individuals under the general authority set forth in item two of this subsection must clearly and accurately explain the circumstances and outline the information obtained so that the Bureau will be able intelligently to pass upon such blue slips.

9. If at any time regular payments are being made to an informant, it appears that the information being received or services being performed are not commensurate with the amount being disbursed, the payments should be adjusted or discontinued immediately. It must be recognized that a good informant can often obtain pertinent information in a matter of hours or days which would require much more time, if it could be obtained at all, by an Agent conducting investigation. Payments should be gauged by the following:
 - a. How much is it necessary to pay the informant to obtain the needed information?
 - b. How much would have to be paid to another informant to obtain the same information?
 - c. How much salary would be paid to an Agent during the time it would take him to obtain the same information?
10. Paid informants should not be paid for information they furnish to any other individual or agency.
11. Informants must also be instructed to report payments they receive as a part of their income when making income tax returns. See section[107L] for additional instructions on income tax returns applicable to informants.
12. Receipts
 - a. Receipts for payments to informants and sources should be obtained in every instance where possible to do so. If a receipt cannot be obtained for a particular payment, complete circumstances should be set forth on the blue slip at the time reimbursement is claimed. Receipts should be self-sufficient so that, if it is necessary to introduce receipts in evidence during course of a trial, receipts will not relate to other documents or files.
 - b. These receipts should clearly show:
 - (1) Date of payment
 - (2) Period for which made (when informant paid on a period basis)
 - (3) Total of payment broken down into separate amounts for services or expenses where these items are pertinent
 - (4) Name of Agent making payment
 - (5) Signature of person receiving the money
 - c. Receipts are not to be witnessed by another Agent.
 - d. If necessary to make corrections on the receipts, such corrections must be initialed by the informant and not by the Agent.
 - e. When transmitting receipts and itemized statements of expenses to the Bureau, they should be stapled directly to the blue slip, leaving a margin of at least one inch to one and one-half inches at the top to avoid contact with the Acco fastener punch. The staples should be placed in such a manner that the date or other data appearing on the receipt will not be mutilated and all information on the receipt can be easily read without detaching it from the blue slip. Care must be taken to insure that receipts are of such a nature that they clearly record the payment of money and do not refer to any other documentary material contained in Bureau files.
13. Stipulation re payments made to witnesses
See section[107L] for instructions regarding preparation of tabulations of payments made to prospective witnesses.

K. DEPARTMENT POLICY AND OPINION

The Department has issued instructions to tell all USAs that informants of the Bureau shall not be interviewed or subpoenaed without prior consent of the Department. Any deviation from this policy should be immediately brought to the Bureau's attention.

On 7-10-52 the Department furnished an opinion regarding the question whether an informant could be prosecuted for technically violating the law while attempting to obtain evidence regarding a Federal violation. The Department stated "...If the intent throughout was to assist the government agents in the enforcement of the law, and not to violate or to 'cover-up' for a violation of the law, it is not believed a case for prosecution could be made against such an informer...."

"The procedures to be followed by informers working under the supervision of your agents in the aid of enforcing the statutes coming within your jurisdiction largely rests upon your sound discretion....It is not believed that an informer would be otherwise immune from prosecution for actions which would subject a Federal enforcement officer to prosecution."

L. TOP ECHELON CRIMINAL INFORMANT PROGRAM

1. The top echelon criminal informant program is aimed specifically at developing informants who can provide a continuous flow of quality criminal intelligence information regarding the leaders of organized criminal activity throughout the nation. It is directed at developing informants in the following categories:
 - a. Informants who are members of La Cosa Nostra (LCN)
 - b. Informants who can furnish significant information regarding other organized criminal groups
 - c. Informants at the top level of organized gambling activity who can provide information that will enable the Bureau to effectively enforce the anti-gambling statutes
 - d. Informants who can produce accurate and authentic data regarding the extent of graft and corruption in each sector of the nation
 - e. Informants who can furnish information which will enable the Bureau to prosecute the hoodlum hierarchy
2. The development of informants who can provide information of this caliber is mandatory to insure the Bureau meets its commitments.
3. This program calls for the selection of targets for development. The selection should be based upon a combination of a particular hoodlum's qualifications by virtue of his position in the organized hoodlum element and upon circumstances indicating his possible susceptibility to development. To insure maximum security for an individual under development, he should be assigned a symbol number immediately upon being designated for attention. The symbol number for these individuals should be followed by the suffix PC to insure that they will be distinguished from regular criminal informant. The Bureau should be promptly advised whenever an individual is added or deleted from your program.
4. When requesting authority to add a target, include sufficient data in a [UACB] communication to indicate [that] the individual is a logical choice for inclusion in your program. [For purposes of security, this initial communication should always be transmitted by secure teletype and should] include such data regarding the proposed target as a complete description, [a summary of his] arrest record, and information indicating that [he has] access to significant information [concerning] top level racket figures. Insure that the program is not diluted by requesting authority to add targets who [should] more appropriately be considered PCIs.
5. A penetrative investigation of each individual selected as a target should be conducted prior to any approach of the individual. After completion of the penetrative investigation, request the Bureau to approve the interview of the target. The letter requesting such authority should set forth the approach to be utilized in the interview. A full exploitation must be made of any circumstances which place a target in a - position whereby he will assist the Bureau. In making a determination as to an appropriate approach, all possibilities should be thoroughly explored.

6. The requirement of obtaining Bureau authority to conduct interviews is restricted to informant development interviews and does not preclude interviews conducted in connection with other investigations.
 7. Advise the Bureau at a minimum of every 90 days of progress in attempting to develop each target designated for attention. Include positive information in summary form and also set forth your contemplated plan to effect the cooperation of the target. In subsequent communications point out the result of action taken and in the event your contemplated plan was not productive or feasible, advise of your alternate plan. Also include the specific number of times the top echelon source was contacted by the alternate Agent as well as the Agent to whom the case is assigned and set forth data regarding corroboration of the source's information.
 8. A letter should be directed to the Bureau when an individual under development furnishes sufficient information to qualify him as a top echelon informant. This letter should follow the same format used to designate regular criminal informants, and the suffix of the symbol number should be changed to C-TE in accordance with subsection G, item 12, of this section.
 9. Every effort must be made to insure the potential of each top echelon informant is fully utilized to the Bureau's advantage. Be particularly alert to the possibility of utilizing information from member-informants in LCN to further penetrate LCN.
 10. Justification letters are to be submitted regarding top echelon informants, except those on a regularly paid status, on a triannual basis. Offices Albany through Newark should forward these letters by February 1, June 1, and October 1. Offices New York through Washington Field should submit these letters March 1, July 1, and November 1. Prepare these letters in the same manner as annual letters for regular criminal informants.
 11. Following the initial teletype communication, care should be exercised to make certain that subsequent communications to either the Bureau or other field offices containing information which may jeopardize the informant's identity are sent by secure teletype.
 12. As in the payment of criminal informants, SAC may approve advances to top echelon informants or targets under development for expenses in obtaining information, for the performance of services, or for information on a C.O.D. basis up to $400 initially. Several payments or advances may be made under this same authority until the sum of such payments or advances aggregates $400. [All future requests for renewal of SAC authority to pay top echelon informants and targets within the Top Echelon Criminal Informant Program should be submitted to the Bureau on a "UACB within seven calendar days" basis. All additional authorizations should be requested in increments of $600.]
 13. For other regulations concerning the handling of top echelon criminal informants and targets, be guided by instructions set out above for regular criminal informants.

M. PARTICIPATION OF AGENTS

On March 31 of each year furnish the Bureau a list of Agents in the office who have been assigned to criminal investigative matters 50 percent or more of the time during the previous year (excepting Agents assigned primarily to accounting investigations) and have not developed an informant or have not effectively operated an informant, during the same period, which they previously developed. The SAC is to provide an analysis of each listed Agent's performance and furnish as an attachment to the list explanations secured from all listed Agents, along with recommendations for administrative action.

MEMORANDUM FOR

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Sir:

In connection with expenditures of a confidential nature for which reimbursement is claimed by blue slip, you are advised that such expenditures must be limited strictly to investigative cases of major importance wherein monies may be paid to confidential informants or for confidential purposes, reimbursement for which could not be claimed by regular personal service voucher without jeopardizing the successful completion of the investigation.

You are, therefore, advised that it will not be necessary to continue the retention of copies of confidential blue slips in the various field division files. The present field blue slip files should be forwarded to the Washington headquarters of the Bureau under personal and confidential cover.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

SAC

Dear Sir:

It has been noted in connection with confidential disbursements being made by special agents for which reimbursement is claimed by blue slip that in many instances the receipt is executed in the name of an agent or person other than the agent claiming reimbursement.

It is desired that whenever possible the receipt be made in the name of the agent who pays the bill and who will claim reimbursement. It is understood that in all instances this will not be practical, for instance, if Agent Smith makes arrangements for the rental of an apartment for surveillance purposes and he is later transferred from this assignment the bill ordinarily will be continued in his name and paid by another agent. In instances such as this the agent who pays the bill should certify on the receipt that he personally paid same and that he is claiming reimbursement therefor. If the receipt is made out in the name of an alias being used by the agent this fact should be explained in the blue slip.

In those instances where payment is made to an informant for services rendered over a definite period the date of the beginning and ending of the period should be indicated on the blue slip.

This matter should be brought to the attention of all special agents under your supervision and the blue slips submitted should be carefully checked by you to see that they conform with the above instructions. Close attention to this matter will obviate the necessity for returning expense accounts for correction.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

The Bureau has noted an increasing trend on the part of Special Agents in Charge of approving confidential expenditures which may at some time be subject to question. The Bureau refers particularly to those expenditures made by Special Agent personnel in the field service for entertainment of confidential informants.

It has been necessary for the Bureau in the past to refuse to reimburse certain Agents for expenditures made when it appeared that the expenditures made were out of line in so far as necessity for the securing of the information was concerned. The Bureau has further noted a tendency growing up in the field for Special Agents in Charge to approve confidential expenditures for 10¢ and 15¢ and other very minor amounts which probably should be subject to further scrutiny by the Special Agent in Charge.

The Bureau must not at any time routinely consider confidential expenditures but must insist that each Special Agent in Charge personally review and approve such expenditures as are made by employees under his jurisdiction. It is understood that with the type of internal security work presently being performed by a great many Special Agents, certain necessary expenditures must be made in connection with physical surveillances and like matters; however, it should be understood that a Special Agent, in so far as food and entertainment are concerned, is under certain expense at the present time, even though he is not assigned to confidential surveillances and when any charge is made for reimbursement for expenditures made by him in connection with the successful handling of a surveillance matter, only that portion of the charge which would be over and above his regular living expenses should be submitted.

 AND STAMPS

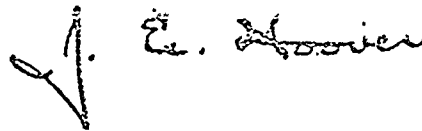

For your information, the Bureau must certify to all confidential expenditures as follows:

"The confidential information item as above was paid in the interest of the Government service and that no other amount has been paid before for the same purpose, the amount representing expenditures incurred in making secret investigations of alleged plots and conspiracies against the United States Government, and that the detailed information has been submitted and is now and will be held in the confidential files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and will be open to inspection for any purpose by the representative of the Comptroller General at any time he may desire."

The Bureau will continue its present policy of returning to any Agent without reimbursement any confidential expenditure which does not appear to be fully and thoroughly justified. The Bureau must, of course, insist on each Special Agent in Charge making it his personal responsibility, without delegation to other subordinate employees the review of confidential expenditures, to definitely ascertain that the expenditure has been proper and that the expenditure of the funds in question has been of material benefit and advantage to the Government.

The Bureau is particularly desirous at the present time of again bringing to your attention the absolute necessity for the continued careful handling of expenditures from the confidential fund and the submission of monthly reports in connection therewith.

You are aware, of course, that under existing Bureau regulations it is absolutely essential that an appropriate statement be submitted at the end of each month reflecting the condition of the confidential fund in each field office, including therein its status with respect to the cash balance on hand, plus disbursements which have been made during the current accounting period.

Many of the field offices have in the past failed to submit such monthly statements promptly, as a consequence of which it is becoming increasingly difficult to properly audit the Bureau's records in connection therewith or to otherwise maintain an accurate record upon the basis of which the accountability of each Special Agent in Charge may be definitely determined.

In this connection, a review of blue slip items received at the Bureau over a period of time reflects an increasing number of payments in the nature of so-called "advances" to confidential informants. The same is true of "deposits" with electric light companies and other utilities, which deposits usually range in amounts from $10 to $20. At the time the monthly statement is submitted by the field office involved, such statements invariably fail to indicate that the expenditures in question were "advances" or "deposits," the amounts of which are to be subsequently refunded and returned. In other instances they are improperly recorded in such a manner as to preclude an accurate accounting on the part of the Bureau in respect thereto.

For your guidance in the preparation of future monthly reports concerning confidential fund expenditures, there is being enclosed herewith a sample form which outlines briefly and succinctly the manner in which disbursements, advances, refunds, or purchases are to be listed. All subsequent monthly statements prepared by your office should be submitted strictly in accordance therewith.

It is further noted that in a great number of cases Special Agents have not been submitting receipts to justify the expenditures for which reimbursement is being claimed through blue slips. For instance, subscriptions to various newspapers and periodicals subscribed to by the year have been observed with no receipts therefor having been secured. It is believed that such items, wherever practicable, should be paid for by the issuance of a money order and the money order receipt attached.

In addition, the failure to obtain receipts has been particularly prevalent in respect to payments made for services rendered by confidential informants, for expenses incident to the rental of rooms, and the obtaining of keys, locks, et cetera, and other items of a related nature where a receipt could reasonably be secured.

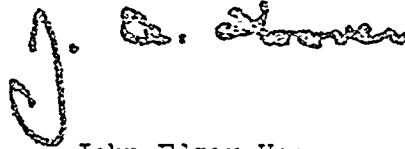

Although the Bureau is necessarily aware of the fact that receipts cannot be secured in each and every instance, due to exigencies peculiar to certain types of investigative activities, nevertheless, it must insist that such receipts be obtained for confidential expenditures wherever it is possible and otherwise practicable to do so. Hereafter, confidential items will be suspended from the accounts in question unless the expenditures involved are properly supported by the necessary receipts.

Likewise, the Bureau has noted with considerable concern increased purchases in the form of furniture, bedding, clothing, and related items utilized in the conduct of various plants and other confidential investigative activities. This is of particular significance in that such items are being paid for through the submission of blue slips, and the non-expendable items are not being taken up properly on the field office inventories. Accordingly, it is desired that you forward to the Bureau in the near future a detailed report indicating the type and quantity of such equipment purchased and presently in use in order that same may be properly inventoried on the Bureau's records. Such an inventory should, of course, be maintained simultaneously by each of the respective field offices having control, custody, or possession of such equipment. With reference to future purchases of this kind, the field offices will be held strictly accountable for the submission to the Bureau of appropriate non-expendable receiving slips. Such slips should indicate that the item was purchased through the submission of blue slips. The Bureau will maintain a check on blue slips submitted and suspensions from the vouchers will be made in those instances where field offices fail to submit non-expendable receiving slips.

Accordingly, it is desired that the non-expenditure receiving slips covering purchases of furniture, bedding, and other equipment by blue slips, be attached to the voucher when it is submitted for payment.

It is desired that you give the matters outlined herein your immediate personal attention and supervision: It is expected that in the future there will be strict compliance with the foregoing instructions in order that the correction of these delinquencies may be logically concluded with a minimum of delay.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

RE: CONFIDENTIAL FUND

The Bureau at this time wishes to again invite your attention to the absolute necessity of maintaining in proper accounting order the confidential fund records of your Division. The Special Agent in Charge should continue to carefully supervise the handling of this fund and the records pertaining thereto so that an audit can be readily made and receipts and disbursements accounted for. Each Special Agent in Charge should abide by the following procedure:

1. Maintain the checkbook on a current, accurate basis, so that it will always reflect the current balance in the fund.
2. The bank statements and cancelled checks should be retained and appropriately filed in a confidential administrative file (66 classification).
3. Copies of blue slips shall not be maintained in the field. The monthly report, properly prepared, will serve as an adequate record of the transactions in the fund.
4. The monthly bank statement should be reconciled with the account record in the checkbook.

5. Receipts and disbursements pertaining to the fund are to be cleared through the fund bank account.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover
Director

(F) CONFIDENTIAL EXPENDITURES -- With reference to confidential expenditures, as you have been advised in the past, it is absolutely essential that such expenditures be held to an absolute minimum. The Bureau will not approve any confidential expenditure made by any Special Agent of the Bureau unless such an expenditure was made for the purpose of securing information relating to matters under the investigative jurisdiction of the Bureau, it not being possible to secure such information in any other manner.

In making such expenditures, all Special Agents must bear in mind that repayment can be made only in the event the certification can be made that the payment for such confidential information was made in the interest of the Government Service, and that the amount paid represented expenditures incurred in making confidential investigations of alleged plots or conspiracies against the United States Government or for the purpose of securing confidential information pertaining to violations of the Federal Statutes which could not otherwise have been secured. The information contained on the confidential item submitted by the Agent in question should be such that it will be readily ascertainable at the Bureau that such expenditure was essential and necessary.

			AND SUPERVISORS

RE: AUTHORIZING EXPENDITURES
FROM CONFIDENTIAL FUND

It has been noted that various officials and supervisors are granting authority to the field offices to make expenditures from the field office confidential fund. When Bureau authority has been granted for an expenditure of this nature, the field office is required to give such authorization on the confidential item submitted to reclaim the expenditure.

Numerous vouchers are being received by the Bureau wherein a reclaim is made for authorized expenditures. In checking the voucher against the file maintained in the Administrative Division, it is noted that in many instances there will be no record of the expenditure having been authorized.

In the future when authorization is granted for expenditures of this nature, the Administrative Division must be advised. If the field office is granted authority by letter, a copy of the letter must be made for the Chief Clerk's Office, Room 5517. If authority is granted telephonically, it will be necessary that the official or supervisor granting the authority notify the Administrative Division by memorandum, giving the name of the person to whom payment is authorized and the field office involved.

The above instructions are to be placed into effect immediately in order to preclude the delay which is now being experienced in determining whether the expenditures claimed by the various offices were properly authorized.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

(A) INFORMANTS - CONFIDENTIAL FUND -- A monthly statement is presently prepared by you for the Bureau reflecting a summary of the receipts and disbursements from the confidential fund in your office.

It is desired that in the future the following information concerning live informants be added at the end of the monthly Statement of Receipts and Disbursements from the confidential fund in your office: (1) Total payments to criminal informants during month; (2) Total payments to national defense informants during month; (3) Total payments to atomic energy informants during month; (4) Total payments to all types of informants during month.

In the event you do not have a confidential fund in your office the requested information should be furnished to the Bureau by separate communication, captioned as above, no later than the 20th of the following month.

NO NUMBER
SAC LETTERRE: ACTIVITIES OF THE
CONFIDENTIAL FUND

The Bureau is desirous at the present time of bringing to your attention the absolute necessity for the careful handling of expenditures from the Confidential Fund and the submission of monthly reports in connection therewith.

You are aware that under existing Bureau regulations it is absolutely essential that an appropriate statement be submitted at the end of each month reflecting the condition of the Confidential Fund in each field office, including therein its status with respect to the cash balance on hand, plus disbursements which have been made during the current accounting period.

Many of the field offices have in the past failed to submit such monthly statements promptly, as a consequence of which it is becoming increasingly difficult to properly audit the Bureau's records in connection therewith. As set out in SAC Letter No. 23, dated April 4, 1950, all Confidential Fund reports should be received at the Bureau no later than the 20th of the following month.

For your guidance in the preparation of future monthly reports concerning Confidential Fund expenditures, there is enclosed a sample form which outlines briefly the proper method of preparing the report. In addition, there is enclosed a sample form which outlines the method which should be used to summarize the payments to informants and confidential sources. In this regard your attention is directed to Section (A), SAC Letter No. 23, dated April 4, 1950, which is revised in that the Atomic Energy informants should be deleted from the report. The summary should now reflect payments to Criminal and National Defense Confidential Sources.

No Number - 1951

It has been noted that in a great number of instances Special Agents have not been submitting receipts to justify the expenditures for which reimbursements are being claimed through blue slips. The Bureau is aware of the fact that receipts cannot be secured in each and every instance, due to exigencies peculiar to certain types of activities, nevertheless, receipts should be obtained wherever possible.

In connection with the preparation of the blue slips it has been noted that some are being prepared too much in detail. In those instances where the payment is made to an authorized regular paid informant, the following information is sufficient to support the claim:

1. Amount of payment
2. Name and symbol number of informant
3. Case
4. Date of authorization letter or teletype
5. Period of payment

A sample form reflecting the proper method for preparing a blue slip is attached.

The Bureau has also noted in many instances that Agents, when reclaiming suspended blue slips, are reflecting in the voucher that the item was suspended from a previous voucher. It is pointed out that no reference should be made to the previous voucher nor should the Agent state that the item was suspended unless he forwards the original Statement of Difference with the voucher.

Your attention is directed to the fact that the Bureau has only a limited amount of funds available to operate the Confidential Funds of the field divisions, therefore, you should make every effort to operate on your present fund. It is pointed out that a more frequent submission of Confidential Fund vouchers will help to maintain a higher balance in the fund.

In the future when an office desires to establish a Confidential Fund, it will be necessary that the office furnish the Bureau full and complete justification.

It is desired that you give the matters outlined herein your immediate personal attention and supervision.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Director

RE: CONFIDENTIAL EXPENDITURES

In reviewing the confidential blue slip vouchers that are being forwarded to the Bureau for reimbursement, it is noted that considerable increases in such expenditures are being made in the divisional service at the present time. It is entirely understandable why such increases are reflected in the vouchers in question since every possible effort is being made by the field to increase its informant coverage.

The Bureau wishes to point out to you, however, that it is your personal responsibility to see that such expenditures are totally justified in every instance where made. You should insure yourself that the Bureau is receiving full value for the funds expended by it. It is felt that, if this matter is given your continuous careful and personal attention, no expenditures will be made which can in any way be criticized by any persons at any future date.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Director

(C) CONFIDENTIAL FUND VOUCHERS -- It has been noted in a number of instances that the receipts which support the Blue Slips submitted by the Special Agent in Charge reflect the name of a Special Agent as the person making the payment.

Effective immediately, you are instructed that in any instance where the receipt reflects payment made by a Special Agent, the Special Agent should also execute a receipt reflecting that he received the money from the Special Agent in Charge for the purpose of payment to the informant and both receipts should be attached to the Blue Slip.

This in no way alters previous instructions to the effect that payments made by the Special Agent from his personal funds must be vouchered by him as a confidential item on his regular expense voucher.

RE: CONFIDENTIAL FUND
ACCOUNTING PROCEDURES -
FBI FORM BOOK

After reviewing the reports of the accounting procedures presently being followed by the various field divisions which were forwarded to the Bureau in response to SAC Letter 54-8, Paragraph D, and from a review of the suggestions submitted along with these reports, it has been determined that a uniform procedure for handling the operations of the Confidential Funds maintained by the various field divisions should be established.

Effective July 1, 1954, the following accounting procedures shall be placed into effect for each office maintaining a Confidential Fund:

1. A ledger page similar to Exhibit Number One shall be used to reflect any transactions that would affect the amount of the fund authorized for the field division. Transactions that would affect this fund are:

a. Temporary or permanent increases in the fund.

b. Refunds of all or part of payments made to an informant for which the office has been reimbursed by the Bureau.

c. Refunds to the Bureau of temporary increases and refunds received from the informants in cases similar to "b" above.

This ledger page should also reflect a running balance of the total amount to be accounted for by the field division. This is the amount that should be reflected on the monthly report of expenditures from the Confidential Fund as the total amount to be accounted for.

2. A cash receipts and disbursements page shall be utilized to reflect all cash transactions which affect the total fund. This ledger shall be in accordance with the attached sample (Exhibit Number Two), which reflects examples of various transactions which will affect the Fund. This ledger should be retained indefinitely and should be used as the basis for the preparation of the monthly report. All columns should be ruled off at the end of the calendar month and the cash balance brought forward. Column Number One should reflect all cash receipts and disbursements. The debit side of Column Number Two (2a) should reflect all expenditures from the Fund except any refunds made to the Bureau. All payments made to criminal informants and sources should be reflected in the column captioned "Criminal;" all payments to security informants or sources should be reflected in the column captioned "Security;" and all payments of the miscellaneous nature not covered by either of the afore-mentioned categories, such as payments to telephone companies, taverns, restaurants, post office box rental, etc., should be reflected in the column captioned "Miscellaneous." The credit side of Column Number Two (2b) should reflect all refunds from payments previously made regardless of whether the previous payment was of a criminal, security or miscellaneous nature. Column Number Three should reflect all transactions with the Bureau; checks in payment of vouchers and temporary or permanent increases should be reflected in the "Receipts" column; whereas any refund from an informant, source or of a miscellaneous nature which must be returned to the Bureau because the payment has already been vouchered, should be reflected in the "Refunds" column. Likewise, any temporary increase returned to the Bureau should be recorded here. (Note entries, Exhibit Number Two.)

In view of the foregoing, you will note that for every entry in the Cash Disbursements column, there should be a corresponding entry in one of the debit columns, i.e., in either the Criminal, Security or Miscellaneous columns, or in the Refunds to Bureau column. Likewise, for every entry in the Cash Receipts column, there should be a corresponding entry in one of the credit columns, i.e., in either the Refunds of Payments column or in the Receipts from Bureau column.

— It is to be further noted that the totals of Column Number 2a will be of assistance in the preparation of the "Summary of Payments to Informants" in connection with the monthly report. The amount of cash on hand can always be determined by subtracting the total of the credit side of Column One from the total of the debit side of this column.

3. An individual ledger page should be set up for each paid informant and for each paid confidential sources. This section of the ledger should be divided into three parts; namely, Criminal, Security and Miscellaneous.

The Criminal section of the ledger should contain a separate page for each paid criminal informant and each paid criminal confidential source. The Security section should reflect

6/9/54
NO NUMBER
SAC LETTER 54-G

a separate page for each paid security informant and each paid confidential source. Under the Miscellaneous section, pages should be set up for rental of space for plants or surveillances, regular monthly telephone bills that are paid from the Confidential Fund and any other such payments that would be made on a regular basis. Occasional payments, such as payments to taverns, restaurants, rental of safe deposit boxes, etc., may be included on a single page as the expenditures come up. A sample of an informant page is attached (Exhibit Number Three). It is to be noted that this page reflects the following information:

- a. the date of authorization
- b. the authorization
- c. period covered by payment
- d. date of payment.
- e. amount of payment

In connection with the date of authorization, you are instructed that this date should be the date of the Bureau's letter to the field division in cases where authorization is made by Bureau letter and the date of the incoming letter when authorization is made by stamping "approved" on a tickler copy of a letter received from the field division requesting authority.

Before making any disbursements from the Confidential Fund to an informant, the authorization should be checked to be sure that there is not a duplicate payment being made and that the period covered by the payment is in agreement with the existing authorization. These authorizations should be posted in the ledger at the time they are received from the Bureau. In connection with SAC authorized payments, a notation to the effect that payment is being made under authority of the SAC will be sufficient.

After July 1, 1954, the present serial in the informant's file (FD-228) reflecting payments made to the informant up to that date should be maintained in the exhibit envelope. On July 1, 1954, form FD-228 should be removed from your form book and your supply destroyed.

4. After a careful review of the many suggestions received in response to SAC Letter Number 54-8, a form (FD-235) for requesting funds from the Confidential Fund has been designed, a copy of which is attached. You may print a supply of this form for use in your office. FD-235 is to replace any similar form that may have been approved for your office. A copy of FD-235 is to be placed in the FBI Form Book. This form should be prepared in duplicate by the Agent requesting the funds, and after approval by the Agent Supervisor, the form should be forwarded to the SAC for his approval before any disbursement is made from the Confidential Fund. After approval of the form by the SAC and after the employee handling the disbursements from the fund has carefully verified that the payment is in accordance with existing authority, one copy of the form should be forwarded to the informant's file and the second copy retained in an accounts receivable file which should be divided into two sections; namely, an unvouchered file and a vouchered file. These forms can be used by the employee responsible for disbursements from the fund as the basis for preparing blue slips for submission to the Bureau. Of course, these blue slips should not be prepared until such time as the receipt from the informant is obtained from the Agent making the payment, and in those cases where necessary, that FD-221 has been executed by the Agent making the payment. At the time the voucher is prepared, those forms pertaining to the voucher that is being submitted should be attached to the tickler copy of that voucher after it has been prepared and retained in the accounts receivable file until reimbursement is made by the Bureau. At the time reimbursement is received, the voucher should be removed together with the attachments and a notation made on the voucher of the date reimbursement was received from the Bureau. The Request for Funds forms attached to the voucher may then be destroyed. In the event an item has been suspended from the voucher and returned to the field office, it would be necessary to remove the Request for Funds form from the voucher on which the blue slip was requested and returned to the unvouchered file until such time as it is resubmitted or it is determined it will not be resubmitted.

5. Monthly Report. As you are aware, the monthly report of expenditures from the Confidential Fund is presently prepared and submitted to the Bureau by the twentieth of the month following the period during which the expenditures were made. These reports should continue to be submitted at this time; however, changes in the present form for this report have been suggested and after a review of the various suggestions received, it is felt that the reports should be prepared in accordance with the attached example (Exhibit Number Five). The monthly report submitted to the Bureau should be prepared under the direct supervision of the Special Agent in Charge, Assistant Special Agent in Charge or a regularly designated Field Supervisor. The fund should be audited once each six months, on June 30 and December 31. This audit shall be personally performed by a Special Agent Accountant. The report of this audit shall be forwarded to the Bureau by the twentieth day of July and the twentieth day of January. In those instances where the Confidential Fund is audited by an Inspector from the Training and Inspection Division during a regular inspection, the next regular six months' audit shall be omitted by the Special Agent Accountant of the Field Division.

With regard to the summary of expenditures section of the Confidential Report, it is desired to illustrate the following points:

a. All transactions during the calendar month should be shown.

b. All items should be listed in order by date and by check number.

c. The explanation should reflect the name and symbol number of the informant as well as the period covered by the payment and in case of miscellaneous expenditures, a brief statement to describe the expenditure.

d. Any transaction that affects the total amount of the fund to be accounted for must be fully explained in a cover memorandum. An example of such a transaction would be a refund received from an informant for payment which had already been reimbursed by the Bureau. Any such refund, if not already forwarded to the Bureau, should be transmitted with the report.

In connection with the summary of payments to informants, you are advised that all miscellaneous payments must be listed separately from payments made to informants or sources of information. This breakdown should include such payments as post office box rental, telephone service, rental of space for plants, bank charges, restaurants or taverns on surveillances, meals for prisoners, etc. In other words, all payments not made to informants or to sources for information furnished for services rendered or expenses incurred by them should be included under miscellaneous expenditures.

6. Preparation of Blue Slips. As was pointed out heretofore, the blue slip should be prepared from the Request for Funds form with the exception that the date of actual payment to the informant should be shown on the blue slip. This date should be obtained either from the Agent making the payment or the receipt obtained from the informant. A blue slip should be prepared at such time as all receipts necessary to support the item have been received from the Agent making the payment.

All blue slips should be as brief as possible, but should contain sufficient information to allow the Bureau to make a proper review of the expenditures. Samples are attached reflecting payments made to informants under Bureau authority

(Exhibit Number Six), SAC authority (Exhibit Number Seven), and miscellaneous expenditures (Exhibit Number Eight). These samples are general but should be used as a guide for preparing all blue slips. In addition to the attached samples, it is desired that the following be kept in mind in connection with the preparation of blue slips:

a. One blue slip should be used for each payment. It is not desired to have numerous payments listed on a single blue slip in view of the possibility of error which would result in the necessity of suspending the entire blue slip; whereas if only one payment were listed on the blue slip, it would be possible to return only the one item and the remaining items could be processed for payment.

b. The authority must be clearly reflected on the blue slip. When authority is based on the letter from the Bureau, actual date of the Bureau letter shall be used as the date of the authorization. Then the field office, by letter, requests authorization and receives notice that authorization has been granted in the form of a copy of the field office letter returned by the Bureau with the Bureau approval stamped thereon, the date of the authorization in this instance shall be the actual date of the field office letter to the Bureau requesting the authorization.

c. The actual period of time covered by the payment to the informant must be reflected in the body of the blue slip. For example, see "Period" reflected in body of Exhibit Number Six. It is also essential that the period covered be carefully compared with the Bureau authorization to prevent exceeding the Bureau authorization, both by time and amount. Receipts should be obtained whenever possible. In instances where they are not obtained either because of the refusal of the informant to execute one or when it is not advisable to obtain one, the appropriate notation should be reflected on the blue slip.

d. FD-221 which is a receipt signed by the Agent reflecting receipt of money from the SAC is only to be used when the receipt signed by the informant reflects that payment was made by the Agent.

6/9/54

NO NUMBER

SAC LETTER NO. 54-G

e. In all instances where the receipt signed by the informant reflects payment was made to him by the Special Agent in Charge, reimbursement must be claimed on a voucher of the Special Agent in Charge. If the receipt reflects payment was made to the informant by the Assistant Special Agent in Charge, then reimbursement must be claimed on a voucher of the Assistant Special Agent in Charge. In instances where the receipt reflects that payment was made to the informant by someone other than the Special Agent in Charge or Assistant Special Agent in Charge or where there is no payor designated, the blue slip may be submitted for payment on the voucher of either the Special Agent in Charge or the Assistant Special Agent in Charge. When the receipt reflects that payment was made by a person other than the one claiming reimbursement, Form FD-221 must be executed and attached to the blue slip. It is advisable to have the informant's receipts executed in the name of the employee actually making payment or in blank in order that the Special Agent in Charge or the Assistant Special Agent in Charge may claim reimbursement.

f. The Blue slip should not reflect the number of the check issued and no reference should be made on the blue slip to the informant's field file number.

g. All blue slips submitted on the monthly expense vouchers of Special Agents must bear the approval of the Special Agent in Charge; however, the Special Agent in Charge may delegate authority to the Assistant Special Agent in Charge or an approved field office supervisor to sign his name as approving official followed by the initials of the Assistant Special Agent in Charge or the supervisor.

h. Receipts obtained by personnel which reflect payments to informants and sources should reflect the ACTUAL DATE payment is made to the informant or source. The receipt should in no instance reflect any other date. The Receipt should also show the EXACT AMOUNT paid to the informant or source, and every Special Agent submitting receipts should thoroughly understand this procedure.

1. All vouchers containing blue slips must be forwarded to the Bureau addressed to Assistant Director, Administrative Division, Attention: Voucher Unit. They must be sent via registered mail, return receipt requested and cannot be intermingled with other mail. Confidential Fund monthly reports should also be submitted in this manner to the Bureau.

7. Miscellaneous. It is desired to bring the following miscellaneous items to your attention:

a. When submitting blue slips covering payments to informants from another field division, the informant should be identified on the blue slip by indicating his name, symbol number and field division.

b. The words Confidential Fund should never be mentioned on a blue slip. When claiming for bank charges, the blue slip should reflect payment to an official of the bank by name for services rendered.

c. Payments under the authorization of the SAC are limited to $200.00 to criminal informants and sources; and to $100.00 to security informants and sources. This maximum is considered as all payments made to an individual regardless of the length of time between payments. Once an informant has been paid under Bureau authority, payments cannot be made under the authority of the SAC even in instances where the informant has been discontinued as a regularly paid informant.

d. The ledger page that is used in Exhibits One, Two and Three is size 9 1/4 X 11 7/8 inches; and for Exhibits Number One and Three, four-column paper is used, and eight-column paper for Exhibit Number Two. The type of binder that should be used for this paper is described as follows: Trussell Sectional Post Binder; Stock #E4007; sheet size, 9 1/4 X 11 7/8 inches; post diameter, 5/16 inches; center to center, 7 1/8 inches. This ledger paper and binder should be purchased locally from the Imprest Fund, and in those instances where the offices do not have an Imprest Fund, by emergency purchase.

e. The retention period for the attached exhibits shall be as follows: Exhibit Number One to be retained as long as the office maintains a Confidential Fund and five years thereafter; Exhibit Number Two to be retained for a period of five years; Exhibit Number Three to be retained as long as the informant is active and to be destroyed five years after the date informant is discontinued; Exhibit Number Four to be maintained in the informant's file and the copy to be destroyed upon receipt of reimbursement from the Bureau; the original of Exhibit Number Five is to be maintained at the Bureau indefinitely and the copy to be retained in the Field Office for a period of three years; no copies of Exhibits Number Six, Seven and Eight are to be retained in the Field Office, the original to be retained at the Bureau for a period of five years and microfilmed, after which originals will be destroyed and the microfilm retained indefinitely.

In the event an informant is transferred from one Field Office to another, the ledger page should be transmitted to the new Field Office.

The foregoing instructions have been set forth for the handling of the Confidential Fund in your office. These instructions have been prepared for all field divisions and no deviations will be permitted without prior Bureau authority. This letter should be carefully reviewed by those responsible for handling the operations of the fund in your office.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Director

MEMORANDUM FOR ALL BUREAU OFFICIALS AND SUPERVISORS

(A) CONFIDENTIAL EXPENDITURES -- I want to draw to your attention the absolute importance of making certain that any confidential expenditure authorized by the Bureau complies with existing Manual provisions and that the Bureau receives appropriate value for every dollar expended. Although it is the personal responsibility of each Special Agent in Charge to make certain that full value is received in the field, it is equally the responsibility of Seat of Government employees to be judicious in authorizing expenditures to be made and to practice proper economy.

For your information, Inspectors will, in each field office inspection, review in the neighborhood of one hundred blue slips to determine the propriety of each expenditure and will trace through the files information received and results obtained, following the expenditure and, if necessary, follow it through with appropriate employee interviews with the understanding that in the event an expenditure is encountered which is not proper the employees involved will reimburse the Government.

Very truly yours,

RE: CONFIDENTIAL FUND -
ACCOUNTING PROCEDURES

Reference is made to No Number SAC Letter 54-G which set out accounting procedures to be followed in the operation of the Confidential Fund.

The Bureau is now in receipt of a suggestion which it is felt will eliminate some duplication of work in connection with the establishment of these accounting procedures. The suggestion was based upon the necessity of an employee's determining whether payments to informants on SAC authority are in excess of the $200.00 amount for criminal informants and the $100.00 amount for security informants. It was suggested that the informants' files be checked and the amount paid prior to July 1, 1954, be entered on the informants' individual ledger pages. This would apply only to payments made under SAC authority.

It is felt that this suggestion will save considerable time and work in the field, and you are accordingly instructed to put it in effect with the establishment of the new accounting procedure.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Director

SAC Let - 54-I

(I) FBI FORM BOOK - CONFIDENTIAL EXPENDITURES -- FD-235 forms should be deleted from your Form Book and FD-221 should be replaced with the revised FD-221 form. Also, FD-221a should be included.

FD-221 has been revised to be used together with FD-221a which was prepared to replace Form FD-235. These forms may be inserted together in a typewriter, eliminating the necessity of preparing two separate forms. There has been no change made with regard to the use of FD-221. The lower half of FD-221a is similar to FD-235 and may be completed with ink. The date of actual payment to informants on both FD-221 and 221a may be inserted in ink. FD-221 will accompany the blue slip. FD-221a will be retained until the information on the lower half of the form is completed. The form will then be placed in the appropriate file; in case of payments to informants, the informant file, and in case of miscellaneous payments, the case file.

In addition to the above, it is desired to bring the following items to your attention:

1. There has been a noticeable lack of receipts to support blue slips. Receipts should be obtained in every possible instance.

2. Failure to properly explain lack of receipts has been noticed in numerous instances. If the informant refuses to execute the receipt, a statement to that effect should be included on the blue slip. Where it is not deemed advisable to obtain receipts for security reasons, this should be fully explained on the blue slip. This does not apply to blue slips reclaiming bank charges.

3. All blue slips must show to whom the payment was actually made and the city where the payment was actually made.

4. The receipt signed by the informant should reflect the name of the person actually making payment. Any departure from this should be fully explained on the blue slip.

5. In the future where a symbol number has been assigned to the informant, only the symbol number should be reflected on the FD-221 and FD-221a forms; however, the name of the informant shall be reflected on the blue slip.

The new forms will be printed and placed in stock at the Bureau. As soon as they are available, a supply will be sent to each Field Division.

(B) INSPECTIONS - DELINQUENCIES FOUND DURING -- In line with the Bureau's desire to assist you in improving operations of your office, there are being listed below for your guidance certain delinquencies noted frequently during recent inspections. Should you find similar delinquencies in your office, you should take prompt action to correct them.

15. Checks against Confidential Fund being drawn to "Cash" rather than to individual agents.
16. Agents obtaining and submitting receipts in blank for payments made from Confidential Fund.
17. Inclusion in blue slips date check is issued to agent instead of date payment is made to informant.
18. Incomplete explanation in blue slips of expenditures from the Confidential Fund.

TRANSMISSION OF TO BUREAU

No Number SAC Letter 54-G dated 6/9/54 instructed that all vouchers containing blue slips must be sent to the Bureau addressed to "Assistant Director, Administrative Division, Attention Voucher Unit," and must be registered with return receipt requested. Such vouchers were not to be mingled with other mail being transmitted to the Bureau. It is desired that "Federal Bureau of Investigation" be added to the address on the inner envelope containing the blue slips, in order that the address may be complete in the event this envelope should become separated from the outer envelope in which it is being transmitted to the Bureau. You are again reminded that confidential blue slips are not to be transmitted to the Bureau in an envelope containing any other mail. There must be no exceptions.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover

Director

RE: FIELD CONFIDENTIAL FUND RECORDS

Effective January 1, 1958, cancelled checks, bank statements, check stubs, and bank passbooks pertaining to field division confidential funds shall be retained for a period of one year and destroyed on a monthly basis after they have become one year old.

Very truly yours,

BLUE SLIPS

In the preparation of future blue slips, the following instructions should be adhered to:

The blue slips should show the correct name of the individual being paid. Any difference between this and the name used by the informant in signing a receipt for payment must be explained on the blue slip. When a name other than the individual's full correct name is used in initial development as an informant, his full correct name should be used on the blue slip as soon as it is known, together with references to the previous names used in contacts and payments by your office.

The above procedure is necessary to enable the Bureau to properly control payments and to make sure that all payments to one individual are consolidated. It has been noted in some instances that blue slips are submitted showing the full name and on subsequent payments they are submitted showing the individual's middle name as a last name. This is especially true in connection with Spanish names. This practice leads to the possibility of carrying a separate account of payments under each name.

Make sure that the necessary employees of your office are aware of this and the need for consistency.

In addition, where an informant or individual known to have been formerly contacted by another division is paid by your division, the blue slip claiming reimbursement should refer to the fact that he is formerly from the other division. This is necessary to insure that the Bureau's accounts of payments are properly credited for payments made.

The Bureau has noted that in many instances the field is not following instructions concerning the forwarding of vouchers containing confidential items (blue slips) to the Bureau. The Manual of Rules and Regulations, Part II,

8/12/58

SAC LETTER NO. 58-47

Section 7, Subsection A, Item 2d, (2), provides that all vouchers containing confidential blue slips must be sent by Registered Mail, Return Receipt Requested, the inner envelope addressed to the Assistant Director, Administrative Division, Federal Bureau of Investigation, Attention Voucher Unit. Monthly reports of confidential expenditures must be handled in the same manner. The envelope should not be marked Personal and Confidential. You should bring this matter to the attention of all employees responsible for handling the mailing of these items.

MONTHLY REPORTS OF CONFIDENTIAL EXPENDITURES

In examining the above-captioned reports, the Bureau has noted that the field is not being consistent in the way the expenditures are summarized on the last page. Some reports include payments made to PCIs or PSIs with those to "Sources." Payments to PCIs or PSIs should be included with "Informants" and not with "Sources." Only those payments made to Confidential Sources, Panel Sources, and Sources of Information should be included under "Sources" in the summary. Make sure that the persons responsible for the preparation and review of the report are aware of the above.

(A) VOUCHERS - FORMS - REVISED FORM FD-37 - FBI FORM BOOK -- Form FD-37, which is used to claim reimbursement for expenses of a confidential nature, has been revised to conform to the Bureau's present needs. Three copies of the revised form are enclosed, and one copy should be placed in your FBI Form Book. The revised form should be ordered immediately from the Bureau, and your old stock destroyed upon receipt of the new supply.

The revised Form FD-37 is basically the same. However, with respect to the reference to FD-221, you are advised that in those instances when you personally make payments, or when an employee uses his personal funds to make payments, the reference to Form FD-221 should be marked out. Other items on the revised form are self-explanatory, and complete information for each must be furnished in accordance with current regulations.

(D) UTILIZATION OF FORM FD-221a - INFORMANT MATTERS -- Analysis has been made of forms used in connection with informants (racial, criminal, security) and it has been decided that in order to give tighter security to these forms, form FD-221a be changed as follows.

In the future in filling out the above form you will utilize the informant's symbol designation rather than his true name. No change is being made in present procedures for handling Forms FD-37, FD-221 and informant receipts. The matter concerning security for all informant forms is being given continuing analysis for the purpose of instituting methods which will afford these matters top security.

AUTHORITY TO APPROVE LIMITED EXPENDITURES
FOR INVESTIGATIVE OPERATIONS

In those instances where it is essential to the successful conduct of an important investigation, SACs are authorized to expend up to $500 from the confidential fund without prior Bureau Headquarters approval. These expenditures must be highly selective and essential to the investigative operation. Instances in which such expenditures may be appropriate include but are not necessarily limited to the following situations:

- (a) Rental of surveillance plants and support equipment on a temporary basis.
- (b) Necessary expenditures by Agents working in an undercover or covert capacity.
- (c) Rental of special automotive equipment for surveillance purposes. (Only when available Bureau equipment is not satisfactory and the case is of major importance.)
- (d) Other items necessary to the conduct of an investigation not available through normal supply or acquisition channels.

A full accounting must be maintained for such expenditures and at the time that reimbursement is requested from Bureau Headquarters for confidential funds expended, appropriate FD-37 (blue slip) must be executed for each such expenditure.

For Authority to Approve Limited Expenditures
for Investigative Operations

The purpose of the above-cited changes is not to lessen accountability for appropriate action in each of these areas, but to shift the decision process to the SAC who should be in the most advantageous position to make an adequate judgment based upon the facts at hand. The Headquarters and Inspection staff will retain the responsibility for reviewing and auditing the practices in these areas.

Manual changes follow.

NOTE: The above suggestion was contained in a memorandum of Assistant Director Cleveland to Mr. Felt captioned "Organized Crime Program" dated 6/16/72, and was approved by Mr. Gray in his memorandum dated 8/8/72. Manual changes being prepared.

PRIORITY TO APPROPRIATE BUDGET EXPENDITURES FOR INVESTIGATIVE OPERATIONS

As a result of an employee suggestion and after a review of expenditures made under captioned authority granted by Bureau 8/14/72, the Bureau feels that a uniform accounting procedure for such expenditures is needed.

In view of this, a uniform accounting procedure for 8/14/72 expenditures is to be initiated in all field divisions and at FBIHQ effective 1/1/74.

If during the conduct of an important investigation, initiated on or after 1/1/74, it is deemed necessary to incur an essential expenditure without prior Bureau authority and of the type authorized by Bureau 8/14/72, it will be necessary that a separate ledger page be prepared for each field division. This ledger page will be filed with the investigation file. It is the procedure for a critical matter investigation. Each ledger page must set forth the complete case title and field investigation file number assigned to the investigation. Also, the ledger page must include columns captioned as shown on the attached. (See Attachment 1).
