On making an article to the effect that a General from Maine, Russell, had attempted suicide in Maine, I mentioned that I had been friends with a Russian at the Berkshire Military Academy in 1950 and that while visiting the former and working in Geneva in 1953. I distinctly remember that General saw then a list in the Commission Building in which General was a signatory to the President of the Berkshire Military Academy and the names of the other friends who were school mates of General and knew that account. The following
