A. Subject resides at 30 Doncella Street, Punta Las Marias, Atlantic View, Puerto Rico. He was born 12/1/26 at Albuquerque New Mexico, is a US citizen, and is of the white race. There is no information to indicate subject is in poor health. He is the Secretary-Treasurer of Teamsters Union Local 901, San Juan, Puerto Rico.

C. In July, 1960, the SLTDE was attempting to institute a boycott against the DR, but this never materialized in view of the opposition by Teamsters. The opposition to the picketing of Dominican Ships included the arrival of RAFAEL ABREU, the ship owner and a reported Intelligence Agent of TRUJILLO. ABREU personally paid workers to unload the vessel. With ABREU was CHAVEZ who attempted to persuade them to discontinue their activity. CELESTE ANTONIA MATOS GONZALEZ, former courier for the SIM, has stated that in July, 1960, she was ordered by the Secretary of the SIM Functionary, ARTURO ESPAILLAT, to travel from the DR to SJ to deliver a letter to subject. After going to San Juan, she contacted CHAVEZ at his office and made arrangements to deliver the letter. CHAVEZ sent a reply which MATOS carried to the Secretary of ESPAILLAT. Several hours later she was instructed to return to San Juan and verbally tell CHAVEZ to go to the DR. She recalled that CHAVEZ departed for the DR that date.
