To: The File

This memorandum briefly summarizes the status of missing original Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) case files or portions of case files in the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection (JFK Collection) and documents the National Archives and Records Administration's (NARA) efforts to reconstruct these records, where possible, from duplicate copies of documents located in other FBI files.

As the JFK Collection was first compiled and reviewed in the 1990s, the Assassination Records Review Board and the FBI designated some records as "not believed relevant" (NBR) or "not assassination related" (NAR). The FBI retained custody of the NBR/NAR records and postponed their transfer to NARA until a later date. Every document or group of documents ("serials"), however, received an indexed Record Identification Form (RIF) and FBI inventory sheet for insertion into the JFK Collection.

In September 2011, several years prior to the 2017 re-review and transfer of the NBR/NAR material to the National Archives, a flood severely damaged thousands of feet of records at the FBI's Alexandria Records Center in Alexandria, Virginia. In June 2012, NARA approved the FBI's request for emergency destruction of 10,000 cubic feet of records that posed significant airborne health hazards. Among the damaged records were FBI field office files that contained postponed JFK Collection material designated as "pertaining to a matter unrelated to the JFK Assassination Investigation" or "not assassination related."

This compilation represents NARA's efforts to reconstruct the original file or portions of the file, as completely as possible, with duplicate copies of documents located in the FBI field office and headquarters files within the JFK Collection. Each reconstructed file or compilation contains a Record Identification Form, an explanatory cover memo, existing administrative documents available within the JFK Collection, and copies of identified duplicate documents. The table below summarizes the status of FBI file TP 105-5390, Serials 1 through 36.

Referenced teletype alerted field to work of the Senate and House Select Committees and Bureau's handling of its requests. Also, it pointed out FBI has pledged full cooperation with Committees. San Francisco teletype 5/14/75 advised that on that day Lester B. Seidel, Investigator, Senate Select Committee, telephonically sought and was furnished identities of SACs in San Francisco in 1970. Seidel did not indicate specific nature of his inquiries. Considering the publicity being afforded the work of the Committee, it is not inconceivable some unauthorized persons may attempt to obtain information from the FBI particularly at field level, under guise of one of the Committees. It is therefore believed this teletype to all SACs is desirable as a cautionary measure.

Mr. Church's Cover-Up

By William Safire

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—On Oct. 10, 1963, the then-Attorney General of the United States put his personal signature on a document that launched and legitimized one of the most horrendous abuses of Federal police power in this century.

In Senator Frank Church's subcommittee hearing room this week, the authorized wiretapping and subsequent unauthorized bugging and attempted blackmailing of Martin Luther King Jr. is being gingerly examined, with the "investigation" conducted in such a way as not to unduly embarrass officials of the Kennedy or Johnson Administrations.

With great care, the committee has focused on the F.B.I. Yesterday, when the committee counsel first set forth the result of shuffling through press-clips, it seemed as if no Justice Department had existed in 1962; today, an F.B.I. witness pointed out that it was Robert Kennedy who authorized the wiretap of Dr. King, and that "the President of the United States and the Attorney General specifically discussed their concern of Communist influence with Dr. King."

But the Church committee showed no zest for getting further to the Kennedy root of this precedent to Watergate eavesdropping. If Senator Church were willing to let the chips fall where they may, he would call some knowledgeable witnesses into the glare of the camera lights and ask them some questions that have gone unasked for thirteen years.

For example, he could call Nicholas Katzenbach, Attorney General Kennedy's deputy and successor, and ask what he knows of the Kennedy decision to wiretap Dr. King. Who at Justice concurred in the recommendation? How does the F.B.I. know the President was consulted or informed?

After Mr. Katzenbach assumed office, and the wiretapping continued, he was told by angry newsmen that the F.B.I. was leaking scurrilous information about Dr. King. Why did he wait for four months, and for a thousand telephonic interceptions, to discontinue the officially approved tap?

Of course, this sort of testimony would erode Senator Church's political base. That is why we do not see former Assistant F.B.I. director Cartha (Deke) DeLoach, Lyndon Johnson's personal contact with the F.B.I. in the witness chair. What did President Johnson know about the character-assassination plot and when did he know it? What conversations took place between Mr. DeLoach and President Johnson on the tapping of Dr. King, or about the use of the F.B.I. in any other intrusions into the lives of political figures?

The committee is not asking embarrassing questions even when answers are readily available. A couple of weeks ago, at an open hearing, an F.B.I. man inadvertently started to blurt out an episode about newsmen who were wiretapping in 1962 with the apparent knowledge of Attorney General Kennedy. The too-willing witness was promptly scooped into silence, and told that such information would be developed only in executive session. Nobody raised an eyebrow.

That pattern of containment by the Church committee is vividly shown by the handling of the buggings at the 1964 Republican and Democratic conventions which were ordered by Lyndon Johnson. Such invasions of political headquarters were worse than the crime committed at Watergate, since they involved the use of the F.B.I., but the Church investigators seem to be determined not to probe too deeply.

If F.B.I. documents say that reports were made to specific Johnson aides, why are those men not given the same opportunity to publicly tell their story so avidly given the next President's men? If Lyndon Johnson committed this impeachable high crime of using the F.B.I. to spy on political opponents, who can be brought forward to tell us all about it?

But that would cause embarrassment to Democrats, and Senator Church wants to embarrass professional employees of investigatory agencies only. A new sense of Congressional decorum exists, far from the sense of outrage expressed in the Senate Watergate committee's hearing room. When it is revealed that the management of NBC News gave press credentials to L.B.J.'s spies at the 1964 convention, everybody blushes demurely—and nobody demands to know which network executive made what decision under what pressure.

I have been haranguing patient readers for years about the double standard applied to Democratic and Republican political crimes, and had hoped the day would come when the hardball precedents set by the Kennedy and Johnson men would be laid before the public in damning detail.

Obviously, Democrat Frank Church is not the man to do it. His jaw-shaking indignation is all too selective: the trail of high-level responsibility for the crimes committed against Dr. King and others is evidently going to be allowed to cool.

Pity. You'd think that after all the nation has been through in the past few years, our political leaders would have learned that the one thing that brings you down is the act of covering up.

12 Committee are Mr. James Adams, Assistant to the Director-13 Deputy Associate Director, Investigation, responsible for all 14 investigative operations; Mr. W. Raymond Wannall, Assistant 15 Director, Intelligence Division, responsible for internal 16 security and foreign counterintelligence investigations; Mr.
17 John A. Mintz, Assistant Director, Legal Counsel Division; 18 Joseph G. Deegan, Section Chief, extremist investigations; 19 Mr. Robert L. Schackelford, Section Chief, subversive
20 investigations; Mr. Homer A. Newman, Jr., Assistant to Section 21 Chief, supervises extremist informants; Mr. Edward P. Grigala, 22 Unit Chief, supervises subversive informants; Joseph G. Kelley, 23 Assistant Section Chief, Civil Rights Section, General Investi-
24 gative Division.

25 Gentlemen, will you all rise and be sworn.

410 First Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003

1 Do you solemnly swear the testimony you are about to give 2 before this Committee is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing 3 but the truth, so help you God?

4 Mr. Adams. I do.

5 Mr. Wannall. I do.

6 Mr. Mintz. I do.

7 Mr. Deegan. I do.

8 Mr. Schackelford. I do.

9 Mr. Newman. I do.

10 Mr. Grigalus. I do.

11 Mr. Kelley. I do.

12 Senator Tower. It is intended that Mr. Wannall will be 13 the principal witness, and we will call on others as questioning 14 might require, and I would direct each of you when you do 15 respond, to identify yourselves, please, for the record.

16 I think that we will spend just a few more minutes to allow 17 the members of the Committee to return from the floor.

18 (A brief recess was taken.)

19 Senator Tower. The Committee will come to order.

20 Mr. Wannall, according to data, informants provide '83 21 percent of your intelligence information.

22 Now, will you provide the Committee with some information 23 on the criteria for the selection of informants?

1 TESTIMONY OF W. RAYMOND WANNALL, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, 2 INTELLIGENCE DIVISION, FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION 3 ACCOMPANIED BY: JAMES B. ADAMS, ASSISTANT TO THE 4 DIRECTOR-DEPUTY ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR (INVESTIGATION); 5 JOHN A. MINTZ, ASSISTANT DIRECTOR, LEGAL COUNSEL
6 DIVISION; JOSEPH G. DEEGAN, SECTION CHIEF; ROBERT L.
7 SCHACKELFORD, SECTION CHIEF; HOMER A. NEWMAN, JR., 8 ASSISTANT TO SECTION CHIEF; EDWARD P. GRIGALUS, UNIT
9 CHIEF; AND JOSEPH G. KELLEY, ASSISTANT SECTION CHIEF, 10 CIVIL RIGHTS SECTION, GENERAL INVESTIGATIVE DIVISION
11 Mr. Wannall. Mr. Chairman, that is not FBI data that you

12 have quoted. That was prepared by the General Accounting 13 Office.

14 Senator Tower. That is GAO.

15 Mr. Wannall. Based on a sampling of about 93 cases.

16 Senator Tower. Would that appear to be a fairly accurate 17 figure.

18 Mr. Wannall. I have not seen any survey which the FBI 19 itself has conducted that would confirm that, but I think that 20 we do get the principal portion of our information from live 21 sources.

22 Senator Tower. It would be a relatively high percent 23 then?

24 Mr. Wannall. I would say yes. And your ques 25 criteria?

1 Senator Tower. What criteria do you use in the selection 2 of informants?

3 Mr. Wannall. Well, the criteria vary with the needs. In 4 our cases relating to extremist matters, surely in order to get 5 an informant who can meld into a group which is engaged in a 6 criminal type activity, you're going to have a different set 7 of criteria. If you're talking about our internal security 8 matters, I think we set rather high standards. We do require 9 that a preliminary inquiry be conducted which would consist 10 principally of checks of our headquarters indices, our field 11 office indices, checks with other informants who are operating 12 in the same area, and in various established sources such as 13 local police departments.

14 Following this, if it appears that the person is the type 15 who has credibility, can be depended upon to be reliable, we 16 would interview the individual in order to make a determination 17 as to whether or not he will be willing to assist the FBI 18 in discharging its responsibilities in that field.

19 Following that, assuming that the answer is positive, we 20 would conduct a rather in depth investigation for the purpose 21 of further attempting to establish credibility and reliability.

22 Senator Tower. How does the Bureau distinguish between 23 the use of informants for law enforcement as opposed to 24 intelligence collection?

25 Is the guidance different, or is it the same, or what?

WARD &amp; PAUL

1 Mr. Wannall. Well, Mr. Adams can probably best address
2 the use of informants on criminal matters since he is over 3 the operational division on that.

4 Mr. Adams. You do have somewhat of a difference in the fact 5 that a criminal informant in a law enforcement function, you 6 are trying to develop evidence which will be admissible in 7 court for prosecution, whereas with intelligence, the informant 8 alone, your purpose could either be prosecution or it could be 9 just for purposes of pure intelligence.

10 The difficulty in both is retaining the confidentiality 11 of the individual and protecting the individual, and trying to, 12 through use of the informant, obtain evidence which could be 13 used independently of the testimony of the informant so that 14 he can continue operating as a criminal informant.

15 Senator Tower. Are these informants ever authorized to 16 function as provocateurs?

17 Mr. Adams. No, sir, they're not. We have strict regula-18 tions against using informants as provocateurs. This gets 19 into that delicate area of entrapment which has been addressed 20 by the courts on many occasions and has been concluded by the 21 courts that providing an individual has a willingness to engage 22 in an activity, the government has the right to provide him the 23 opportunity. This does not mean, of course, that mistakes don't 24 occur in this area, but we take whatever steps we can to 25 avoid this. Even the law has recognized that informants can

1 engage in criminal activity, and the courts have held that, 2 especially the Supreme Court in the Newark County Case, that 3 the very difficulty of penetrating an ongoing operation, that 4 an informant himself can engage in criminal activity, but 5 because there is lacking this criminal intent to violate a 6 law, we stay away from that. Our regulations fall short of that.

7 If we have a situation where we felt that an informant 8 has to become involved in some activity in order to protect 9 or conceal his use as an informant, we go right to the United 10 States Attorney or to the Attorney General to try to make sure 11 we are not stepping out of bounds insofar as the use of our 12 informants.

13 Senator Tower. But you do use these informants and do 14 instruct them to spread dissension among certain groups that 15 they are informing on, do you not?

16 Mr. Adams. We did when we had the COINTELPRO programs, 17 which were discontinued in 1971, and I think the Klan is probably 18 one of the best examples of a situation where the law was 19 in effect at the time. We heard the term States Rights used 20 much more then than we hear it today. We saw in the Little 21 Rock situation the President of the United States, in sending 22 in the troops, pointing out the necessity to use local law 23 enforcement. We must have local law enforcement, to use the 24 troops only as a last resort.

25 And then you have a situation like this where you do try

smn 21

Phone (Area 202) 544-6000

410 First Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003

1 to preserve the respective roles in law enforcement. You have 2 historical problems with the Klan coming along. We had 3 situations where the FBI and the Federal Government was almost 4 powerless to act. We had local law enforcement officers in 5 some areas participating in Klan violence.

6 The instances mentioned by Mr. Rowe, every one of those,
7 he saw them from the lowest level of the informant. He didn't 8 see what action was taken with that information, as he pointed 9 out in his testimony. Our files show that this information was 10 reported to the police departments in every instance. We 11 also knew that in certain instances the information, upon being 12 received, was not being acted upon. We also disseminated 13 simultaneously through letterhead memoranda to the Department 14 of Justice the problem, and here, here we were, the FBI, in a 15 position where we had no authority in the absence of instruction 16 from the Department of Justice, to make an arrest.

17 Sections 241 and 242 don't cover it because you don't have 18 evidence of a conspiracy, and it ultimately resulted in 19 a situation where the Department called in United States
20 Marshals who do have authority similar to local law enforcement 21 officials.

22 So, historically, in those days, we were just as frus-23 trated as anyone else was, and when we got information from 24 someone like Mr. Rowe, good information, reliable information, 25 and it was passed on to those who had the responsibility to 1 do something about it, it was not always acted upon, as he 2 indicated.

3 Senator Tower. None of these cases, then, there was 4 adequate evidence of conspiracy to give you jurisdiction to 5 act?

6 Mr. Adams. The Departmental rules at that time, and still 7 require Departmental approval where you have a conspiracy.
8 Under 241, it takes two or more persons acting together. You 9 can have a mob scene, and you can have blacks and whites 10 belting each other, but unless you can show that those that 11 initiated the action acted in concert in a conspiracy, you have 12 no violation.

13 Congress recognized this, and it wasn't until 1968
14 that they came along and added Section 245 to the civil rights 15 statute, which added punitive measures against an individual 16 that didn't have to be a conspiracy. But this was a problem 17 that the whole country was grappling with: the President of 18 the United States, Attorney General. We were in a situation 19 where we had rank lawlessness taking place, as you know from 20 a memorandum we sent you that we sent to the Attorney General.
21 The accomplishments we were able to obtain in preventing 22 violence, and in neutralizing the Klan -- and that was one 23 of the reasons.

24 Senator Tower. What was the Bureau's purpose in con-25 tinuing or urging the continued surveillance of the Vietnam

1 Veterans Against the War?

2 Was there a legitimate law enforcement purpose, or was the 3 intent to halter political expression?

4 Mr. Adams. We had information on the Vietnam Veterans
5 Against the War that indicated that there were subversive
6 groups involved. They were going to North Vietnam and meeting 7 with the Communist forces. They were going to Paris, attending 8 meetings paid for and sponsored by the Communist Party, the 9 International Communist Party. We feel that we had a very valid 10 basis to direct our attention to the VVAW.

11 It started out, of course, with Gus Hall in 1967, who was 12 head of the Communist Party, USA, and the comments he made, 13 and what it finally boiled down to was a situation where it 14 split off into the Revolutionary Union, which was a Maoist 15 group, and the hard-line Communist group, and at that point 16 factionalism developed in many of the chapters, and they closed 17 those chapters because there was no longer any intent to follow 18 the national organization.

19 But we had a valid basis for investigating it, and we 20 investigated chapters to determine if there was affiliation 21 and subservience to the national office.

22 Senator Tower. Mr. Hart?

23 Senator Hart of Michigan. But in the process of chasing 24 after the Veterans Against the War, you got a lot of information 25 that clearly has no relationship to any Federal criminal statute.

Mr. Adams. I agree, Senator.

Senator Hart of Michigan. Why don't you try to shut that stuff off by simply telling the agent, or your informant?

Mr. Adams. Here is the problem that you have with that. When you're looking at an organization, do you report only the violent statements made by the group or do you also show that you may have one or two violent individuals, but you have some of these church groups that were mentioned, and others, that the whole intent of the group is not in violation of the statutes. You have to report the good, the favorable along with the unfavorable, and this is a problem. We wind up with information in our files. We are accused of being vacuum cleaners, and you are a vacuum cleaner. If you want to know the real purpose of an organization, do you only report the violent statements made and the fact that it is by a small minority, or do you also show the broad base of the organization and what it really is?

And within that is where we have to have the guidelines we have talked about before. We have to narrow down, because we recognize that we do wind up with too much information in our files.

Senator Hart of Michigan. But in that vacuuming process, you are feeding into Departmental files the names of people who are, who have been engaged in basic First Amendment

1 exercises, and this is what hangs some of us up.

2 Mr. Adams. It hangs me up. But in the same files I
3 imagine every one of you has been interviewed by the FBI, either 4 asking you about the qualifications of some other Senator
5 being considered for a Presidential appointment, being inter-6 viewed concerning some friend who is applying for a job.

7 Were you embarrassed to have that in the files of the 8 FBI?

9 Now, someone can say, as reported at our last session, that 10 this is an indication, the mere fact that we have a name in our 11 files has an onerous impression, a chilling effect. I agree.
12 It can have, if someone wants to distort what we have in our 13 files, but if they recognize that we interviewed you because 14 of considering a man for the Supreme Court of the United 15 States, and that isn't distorted or improperly used, I don't 16 see where any harm is served by having that in our files.

17 Senator Hart of Michigan. But if I am Reverend Smith 18 and the vacuum cleaner picked up the fact that I was helping 19 the veterans, Vietnam Veterans Against the War, and two years 20 later a name check is asked on Reverend Smith and all your 21 file shows is that he was associated two years ago with a group 22 that was sufficient enough, held sufficient doubtful patriotism 23 to justify turning loose a lot of your energy in pursuit on 24 them --

25 Mr. Adams. This is a problem.

1 Senator Hart of Michigan. This is what should require 2 us to rethink this whole business.

3 Mr. Adams. Absolutely.

4 And this is what I hope the guidelines committees as well 5 as the Congressional input are going to address themselves to.

6 Senator Hart of Michigan. We've talked about a wide range 7 of groups which the Bureau can and has had informant penetration
8 and report on. Your manual, the Bureau manual's definition 9 of when an extremist or security investigation may be under-10 taken refers to groups whose activity either involves violation 11 of certain specified laws, or which may result in the violation 12 of such law, and when such an investigation is opened, then 13 informants may be used.

14 Another guideline says that domestic intelligence 15 investigations now must be predicated on criminal violations.
16 The agent need only cite a statute suggesting an investigation 17 relevant to a potential violation. Even now, with an improved, 18 upgraded effort to avoid some of these problems, we are back 19 again in a world of possible violations or activities which 20 may result in illegal acts.

21 Now, any constitutionally protected exercise of the 22 right to demonstrate, to assemble, to protest, to petition, 23 conceivably may result in violence or disruption of a local 24 town meeting, when a controversial social issue might result 25 in disruption. It might be by hecklers rather than those holding

1 the meeting.

2 Does this mean that the Bureau should investigate all 3 groups organizing or participating in such a meeting because 4 they may result in violence, disruption?

5 Mr. Adams. No, sir.

6 Senator Hart of Michigan. Isn't that how you justify 7 spying on almost every aspect of the peace movement?

8 Mr. Adams. No, sir. When we monitor demonstrations, we 9 monitor demonstrations where we have an indication that the 10 demonstration itself is sponsored by a group that we have an 11 investigative interest in, a valid investigative interest in, 12 or where members of one of these groups are participating where 13 there is a potential that they might change the peaceful 14 nature of the demonstration.

15 But this is our closest question of trying to draw 16 guidelines to avoid getting into an area of infringing on the 17 First Amendment rights of people, yet at the same time being 18 aware of groups such as we have had in greater numbers in the 19 past than we do at the present time. But we have had periods 20 where the demonstrations have been rather severe, and the 21 courts have said that the FBI has a right, and indeed a duty, 22 to keep itself informed with respect to the possible commission 23 of crime. It is not obliged to wear blinders until it may be 24 too late for prevention.

25 And that's a good statement if applied in a clearcut case. Our problem is where we have a demonstration and we have to make a judgment call as to whether it is one that clearly fits the criteria of enabling us to monitor the activities, and that's where I think most of our disagreements fall.

1 Senator Hart of Michigan. Let's assume that the rule 2 for opening an investigation on a group is narrowly drawn. The 3 Bureau manual states that informants investigating a subversive 4 organization should not only report on what that group is 5 doing but should look at and report on activities in which 6 the group is participating.

7 There is a Section 87B3 dealing with reporting on 8 connections with other groups. That section says that the 9 field office shall "determine and report on any significant 10 connection or cooperation with non-subversive groups." Any 11 significant connection or cooperation with non-subversive 12 groups.

13 Now let's look at this in practice. In the spring of 14 1969 there was a rather heated national debate over the 15 installation of the anti-ballistic missile system. Some of us
16 remember that. An FBI informant and two FBI confidential 17 sources reported on the plan's participants and activities 18 of the Washington Area Citizens Coalition Against the ABM, 19 particularly in open public debate in a high school auditorium, 20 which included speakers from the Defense Department for the 21 ABM and a scientist and defense analyst against the ABM.

22 The informants reported on the planning for the meeting, 23 the distribution of materials to churches and schools, 24 participation by local clergy, plans to seek resolution on the 25 ABM from nearby town councils. There was also information on

1 plans for a subsequent town meeting in Washington with the 2 names of local political leaders who would attend.

3 Now the information, the informant information came as 4 part of an investigation of an allegedly subversive group 5 participating in that coalition. Yet the information dealt 6 with all aspects and all participants. The reports on the 7 plans for the meeting and on the meeting itself were disseminated 8 to the State Department, to military intelligence, and to the 9 White House.

10 How do we get into all of that?

11 Mr. Adams. Well --

12 Senator Hart of Michigan. Or if you were to rerun it, 13 would you do it again?

14 Mr. Adams. Well, not in 1975, compared to what 1969 15 was. The problem we had at the time was where we had an 16 informant who had reported that this group, this meeting was 17 going to take place and it was going to be the Daily World, 18 which was the east coast communist newspaper that made comments 19 about it. They formed an organizational meeting. We took 20 a quick look at it. The case apparently was opened in May 28, 21 1969 and closed June 5 saying there was no problem with this 22 organization.

23 Now the problem we get into is if we take a quick look 24 and get out, fine. We've had cases, though, where we have 25 stayed in too long. When you're dealing with security like this

1 Soviet espionage where they can put one person in this country 2 and they supported him with total resources of the Soviet 3 Union, false identification, all the money he needs, communi-4 cations networks, satellite assistance, and everything, and 5 you're working with a paucity of information.

6 The same problem exists to a certain extent in domestic 7 security. You don't have a lot of black and white situations.
8 So someone reports something to you which you feel, you take 9 a quick look at and there's nothing to it, and I think that's 10 what they did.

11 Senator Hart of Michigan. You said that was '69. Let 12 me bring you up to date, closer to current, a current place 13 on the calendar.

14 This one is the fall of last year, 1975. President 15 Ford announced his new program with respect to amnesty, as 16 he described it, for draft resisters. Following that there 17 were several national conferences involving all the groups 18 and individuals interested in unconditional amnesty.

19 Now parenthetically, while unconditional amnesty is 20 not against -- while unconditional amnesty is not yet the law, 21 we agreed that advocating it is not against the law either.

22 Mr. Adams. That's right.

23 Senator Hart of Michigan. Some of the sponsors were 24 umbrella organizations involving about 50 diverse groups around 25 the country. FBI informants provided advance information on

1 plans for the meeting and apparently attended and reported on 2 the conference. The Bureau's own reports described the 3 participants as having represented diverse perspectives on 4 the issue of amnesty, including civil liberties and human 5 rights groups, G.I. rights spokesmen, parents of men killed
6 in Vietnam, wives of ex-patriates in Canada, experts on draft 7 counselling, religious groups interested in peace issues, 8 delegates from student organizations, and aides of House and 9 Senate members, drafting legislation on amnesty.

10 The informant apparently was attending in his role as 11 a member of a group under investigation as allegedly subversive 12 and it described the topics of the workshop.

13 Ironically, the Bureau office report before them noted 14 that in view of the location of the conference at a theological 15 seminary, the FBI would use restraint and limit its coverage 16 to informant reports.

17 Now this isn't five or ten years ago. This is last 18 fall. And this is a conference of people who have the point 19 of view that I share, that the sooner we have unconditional 20 amnesty, the better for the soul of the country.

21 Now what reason is it for a vacuum cleaner approach on 22 a thing like that? Don't these instances illustrate how broad 23 informant intelligence really is, that would cause these groups 24 in that setting having contact with other groups, all and 25 everybody is drawn into the vacuum and many names go into the 1 Bureau files.

2 Is this what we want?

3 Mr. Adams. I'll let Mr. Wannall address himself to this.
4 He is particular knowledgeable as to this operation.

5 Mr. Wannall. Senator Hart, that was a case that was 6 opened on November 14 and closed November 20, and the information 7 which caused us to be interested in it were really two particular 8 items. One was that a member of the steering committee there, 9 was a three man steering committee, and one of those members 10 of the national conference was in fact a national officer 11 of the VVAW in whom we had suggested before we did have a 12 legitimate investigative interest.

13 Senator Hart of Michigan. Well, I would almost say so what 14 at that point.

15 Mr. Wannall. The second report we had was that the 16 VVAW would actively participate in an attempt to pack the 17 conference to take it over. And the third report we had --

18 Senator Hart of Michigan. And incidentally, all of the 19 information that your Buffalo informant had given you with 20 respect to the goals and aims of the VVAW gave you a list of 21 goals which were completely within Constitutionally protected 22 objectives. There wasn't a single item out of that VVAW that 23 jeopardizes the security of this country at all.

24 Mr. Wannall. Well, of course, we did not rely entirely 25 on the Buffalo informant, but even there we did receive

1 from that informant information which I considered to be 2 significant.

3 The Buffalo chapter of the VVAW was the regional office 4 covering New York and northern New Jersey. It was one of the 5 five most active VVAW chapters in the country and at a 6 national conference, or at the regional conference, this 7 informant reported information back to us that an attendee 8 at the conference announced that he had run guns into Cuba 9 prior to the Castro take-over. He himself said that he during 10 the Cuban crisis had been under 24 hour surveillance. There 11 was also discussion at the conference of subjugating the 12 VVAW to the revolutionary union. There were some individuals 13 in the chapter or the regional conference who were not in 14 agreement with us, but Mr. Adams has addressed himself to the 15 interest of the revolutionary union.

16 So all of the information that we had on the VVAW did 17 not come from that source but even that particular source did 18 give us information which we considered to be of some 19 significance in our appraisal of the need for continuing the 20 investigation of that particular chapter of the VVAW.

21 Senator Hart of Michigan. But does it give you the 22 right or does it create the need to go to a conference, even 23 if it is a conference that might be taken over by the VVAW 24 when the subject matter is how and by what means shall we 25 seek to achieve unconditional amnesty? What threat?

1 Mr. Wannall. Our interest, of course, was the VVAW 2 influence on a particular meeting, if you ever happened to be 3 holding a meeting, or whatever subject it was.

4 Senator Hart of Michigan. What if it was a meeting to 5 seek to make more effective the food stamp system in this 6 country?

7 Mr. Wannall. Well, of course there had been some 8 organizations.

9 Senator Hart of Michigan. Would the same logic follow?

10 Mr. Wannall. I think that if we found that if the 11 Communist Party USA was going to take over the meeting and 12 use it as a front for its own purposes, there would be a logic 13 in doing that. You have a whole scope here and it's a matter 14 of where you do and where you don't, and hopefully, as we've 15 said before, we will have some guidance, not only from this 16 committee but from the guidelines that are being developed.
17 But within the rationale of what we're doing today, I was 18 explaining to you our interest not in going to this thing and 19 not gathering everything there was about it.

20 In fact, only one individual attended and reported to us, 21 and that was the person who had, who was not developed for 22 this reason; an informant who had been reporting on other 23 matters for some period of time.

24 And as soon as we got the report of the outcome of the 25 meeting and the fact that in the period of some days we

1 discontinued any further interest.

2 Senator Hart of Michigan. Well, my time has expired 3 but even this brief exchange, I think, indicates that if we 4 really want to control the dangers to our society of using 5 informants to gather domestic political intelligence, we have 6 to restrict sharply domestic intelligence investigations. And 7 that gets us into what I would like to raise with you when 8 my turn comes around again, and that's the use of warrants, 9 obliging the Bureau to obtain a warrant before a full-fledged 10 informant can be directed by the Bureau against a group or 11 individuals.

12 I know you have objections to that and I would like to 13 review that with you.

14 Senator Mondale, pursue that question.

15 Senator Hart of Michigan. I am talking now about an 16 obligation to obtain a warrant before you turn loose a full-17 fledged informant. I'm not talking about tipsters that run 18 into you or you run into, or who walk in as information sources 19 The Bureau has raised some objections in this memorandum to the 20 Committee. The Bureau argues that such a warrant requirement 21 might be unconstitutional because it would violate the First 22 Amendment rights of FBI informants to communicate with their 23 government.

24 Now that's a concern for First Amendment rights that 25 ought to hearten all the civil libertarians.

1 But why would that vary, why would a warrant requirement
2 raise a serious constitutional question?

3 Mr. Adams. Well, for one thing it's the practicability 4 of it or the impactability of getting a warrant which 5 ordinarily involves probable cause to show that a crime has 6 been or is about to be committed.

7 In the intelligence field we are not dealing necessarily 8 with an imminent criminal action. We're dealing with activities 9 such as with the Socialist Workers Party, which we have 10 discussed before, where they say publicly we're not to engage 11 in any violent activity today, but we guarantee you we still 12 subscribe to the tenets of communism and that when the time 13 is ripe, we're going to rise up and help overthrow the United 14 States.

15 Well, now, you can't show probable cause if they're about 16 to do it because they're telling you they're not going to do it 17 and you know they're not going to do it at this particular 18 moment.

19 It's just the mixture somewhat of trying to mix in a 20 criminal procedure with an intelligence gathering function, and 21 we can't find any practical way of doing it. We have a particular 22 organization. We may have an informant that not only belongs 23 to the Communist Party, but belongs to several other organizations 24 and as part of his function he may be sent out by the Communist 25 Party to try to infiltrate one of these clean organizations.

1 We don't have probable cause for him to target against 2 that organization, but yet we should be able to receive informa-3 tion from him that he as a Communist Party member, even 4 though in an informant status, is going to that organization
 5 and don't worry about it. We're making no headway on it.
 6 It's just from our standpoint the possibility of informants, 7 the Supreme Court has held that informants per se do not 8 violate the First, Fourth, or Fifth Amendments. They have 9 recognized the necessity that the government has to have 10 individuals who will assist them in carrying out their 11 governmental duties.

12 Senator Hart of Michigan. I'm not sure I've heard anything 13 yet in response to the constitutional question, the very 14 practical question that you addressed.

15 Quickly, you are right that the court has said that the 16 use of the informant per se is not a violation of constitutional 17 rights of the subject under investigation. But Congress 18 can prescribe some safeguards, some rules and some standards, 19 just as we have with respect to your use of electronic 20 surveillance, and could do it with respect to informants.

21 That's quite different from saying that the warrant 22 procedure itself would be unconstitutional.

23 But with respect to the fact that you couldn't show 24 probable cause, and therefore, you couldn't get a warrant, 25 therefore you oppose the proposal to require you to get a warrant. It seems to beg the question.

Assuming that you say that since we use informants and investigate groups which may only engage in lawful activities but which might engage in activities that can result in violence or illegal acts, and you can't use the warrant, but Congress could say that the use of informants is subject to such abuse and poses such a threat to legitimate activity, including the willingness of people to assemble and discuss the anti-ballistic missile system, and we don't want you to use them unless you have indication of criminal activity or unless you present your request to a magistrate in the same fashion as you are required to do with respect to, in most cases, to wiretap.

This is an option available to Congress.

Senator Tower. Senator Schweiker.

Senator Schweiker. Thank you very much.

Mr. Wannall, what's the difference between a potential security informant and a security informant?

Mr. Wannall. I mentioned earlier, Senator Schweiker, that in developing an informant we do a preliminary check on him before talking with him and then we do a further in-depth background check.

A potential security informant is someone who is under consideration before he is approved by headquarters for use as an informant. He is someone who is under current consideration.

1 On some occasions that person will have been developed to a 2 point where he is in fact furnishing information and we are 3 engaged in checking upon his reliability.

4 In some instances he may be paid for information furnished, 5 but it has not gotten to the point yet where we have satisfied 6 ourselves that he meets all of our criteria. When he does, 7 the field must submit its recommendations to headquarters, and 8 headquarters will pass upon whether that individual is an 9 approved FBI informant.

10 Senator Schweiker. So it's really the first step of 11 being an informant, I guess.

12 Mr. Wannall. It is a preliminary step, one of the 13 preliminary steps.

14 Senator Schweiker. In the Rowe case, in the Rowe 15 testimony that we just heard, what was the rationale again 16 for not intervening when violence was known?

17 I know we asked you several times but I'm still having 18 trouble understanding what the rationale, Mr. Wannall, was 19 in not intervening in the Rowe situation when violence was 20 known.

21 Mr. Wannall. Senator Schweiker, Mr. Adams did address 22 himself to that. If you have no objection, I'll ask him to 23 answer that.

24 Senator Schweiker. All right.

25 Mr. Adams. The problem we had at the time, and it's the

1 problem today, we are an investigative agency. We do not 2 have police powers like the United States marshalls do.
3 About 1795, I guess, or some period like that, marshalls have 4 had the authority that almost borders on what a sheriff has.
5 We are the investigative agency of the Department of Justice 6 and during these times the Department of Justice had us maintain 7 the role of an investigative agency. We were to report on 8 activities to furnish the information to the local police, 9 who had an obligation to act. We furnished it to the Department 10 of Justice.

11 In those areas where the local police did not act, it 12 resulted finally in the Attorney General sending 500 United 13 States marshalls down to guarantee the safety of people who 14 were trying to march in protest of their civil rights.

15 This was an extraordinary measure because it came at a 16 time of civil rights versus federal rights, and yet there was 17 a breakdown in law enforcement in certain areas of the country.

18 This doesn't mean to indict all law enforcement agencies 19 in itself at the time either because many of them did act 20 upon the information that was furnished to them. But we 21 have no authority to make an arrest on the spot because we 22 would not have had evidence that there was a conspiracy 23 available. We can do absolutely nothing in that regard.

24 In Little Rock, the decision was made, for instance, that 25 if any arrests need to be made, the Army should make them and

1 next to the Army, the United States marshalls should make them, 2 not the FBI, even though we developed the violations.

3 And over the years, as you know, at the time there were many 4 questions raised. Why doesn't the FBI stop this? Why don't 5 you do something about it?

6 Well, we took the other route and effectively destroyed
7 the Klan as far as committing acts of violence, and of course 8 we exceeded statutory guidelines in that area.

9 Senator Schweiker. What would be wrong, just following 10 up your point there, Mr. Adams, with setting up a program 11 since it's obvious to me that a lot of informers are going to 12 have pre-knowledge of violence of using U.S. marshalls on some 13 kind of a long-range basis to prevent violence?

14 Mr. Adams. We do. We have them in Boston in connection 15 with the busing incident. We are investigating the violations 16 under the Civil Rights Act. But the marshalls are in Boston, 17 they are in Louisville, I believe at the same time, and this 18 is the approach, that the Federal government finally recognized, 19 was the solution to the problem where you had to have added 20 Federal import.

21 Senator Schweiker. But instead of waiting until it 22 gets to a Boston state, which is obviously a pretty advanced 23 confrontation, shouldn't we have somewhere a coordinated program 24 that when you go up the ladder of command in the FBI, that 25 on an immediate and fairly contemporary basis, that kind of 1 help can be sought instantly as opposed to waiting until it

2 gets to a Boston state?

3 I realize it's a departure from the past. I'm not 4 saying it isn't. But it seems to me we need a better remedy 5 than we have.

6 Mr. Adams. Well, fortunately, we're at a time where 7 conditions have subsided in the country, even from the '60s 8 and the '70s and periods -- or '50s and '60s. We report to the 9 Department of Justice on potential troublespots around the 10 country as we learn of them so that the Department will be 11 aware of them. The planning for Boston, for instance, took 12 place a year in advance with state officials, city officials, 13 the Department of Justice and the FBI sitting down together
14 saying, how are we going to protect the situation in Boston?

15 I think we've learned a lot from the days back in the 16 early '60s. But the government had no mechanics which protected 17 people at that time.

18 Senator Schweiker. I'd like to go, if I may, to the 19 Robert Hardy case. I know he is not a witness but he 20 was a witness before the House. But since this affects my 21 state, I'd like to ask Mr. Wannall. Mr. Hardy, of course, was 22 the FBI informer who ultimately led and planned and organized 23 a raid on the Camden draft board. And according to Mr. Hardy's 24 testimony before our Committee, he said that in advance of the 25 raid someone in the Department had even acknowledged the fact

1 that they had all the information they needed to clamp down 2 on the conspiracy and could arrest people at that point in time, 3 and yet no arrests were made.

4 Why, Mr. Wannall, was this true?

5 Mr. Wannall. Well, I can answer that based only on the 6 material that I have reviewed, Senator Schweiker. It was not 7 a case handled in my division but I think I can answer your 8 question.

9 There was, in fact, a representative of the Department
10 of Justice on the spot counselling and advising continuously 11 as that case progressed as to what point the arrest should be 12 made and we were being guided by those to our mentors, the 13 ones who are responsible for making decisions of that sort.

14 So I think that Mr. Hardy's statement to the effect that 15 there was someone in the Department there is perfectly true.

16 Senator Schweiker. That responsibility rests with who 17 under your procedures?

18 Mr. Wannall. We investigate decisions on making arrests, 19 when they should be made, and decisions with regard to 20 prosecutions are made either by the United States attorneys 21 or by Federals in the Department.

22 Mr. Adams. At this time that particular case did have 23 a departmental attorney on the scene because there are questions 24 of conspiracy. Conspiracy is a tough violation to prove and 25 sometimes a question of do you have the added value of catching

1 someone in the commission of the crime as further proof, 2 rather than relying on one informant and some circumstantial
3 evidence to prove the violation.

4 Senator Schweiker. Well, in this case, though, they 5 even had a dry run. They could have arrested them on the 6 dry run.

7 That's getting pretty close to conspiracy, it seems to 8 me. They had a dry run and they could have arrested them on 9 the dry run.

10 I'd like to know why they didn't arrest them on the dry 11 run. Who was this Department of Justice official who made 12 that decision?

13 Mr. Adams. Guy Goodwin was the Department official.

14 Senator Schweiker. Next I'd like to ask back in 1965, 15 during the height of the effort to destroy the Klan, as you 16 put it a few moments ago, I believe the FBI has released 17 figures that we had something like 2,000 informers of some 18 kind or another infiltrating the Klan out of roughly 10,000 19 estimated membership.

20 I believe these are either FBI figures or estimates.
21 That would mean that one out of every five members of the Klan 22 at that point was an informant paid by the government.

23 And I believe the figure goes on to indicate that 70
24 percent of the new members of the Klan that year were FBI 25 informants.

22
24

Isn't this an awfully overwhelming quantity of people to put in an effort such as that? I'm not criticizing that you shouldn't have informants in the Klan and know what's going on for violence, but it seems to me that this is the tail wagging the dog.

For example, today we supposedly have only 1594 total informants for both domestic informants and potential informants and that here we had 2,000 just in the Klan alone.

Mr. Adams. Well, this number 2,000 did include all racial matters, informants at that particular time, and I think the figures we tried to reconstruct as to the actual number of Klan informants in relation to Klan members was around 6 percent, I think, after we had read some of the testimony.

Now the problem we had on the Klan is the Klan had a group called the Action Group. This was the group that you remember from Mr. Rowe's testimony, that he was left after the meeting. He attended the open meetings and heard all of the hurrahs and this type of thing from information, but he never knew what was going on because each one had an action group that went out and considered themselves in the missionary field.

Theirs was the violence.

In order to penetrate those, it takes, you have to direct as many informants as you possibly can against it. Bear in mind that I think the newspapers, the President and Congress and

1 everyone is concerned about the murder of the civil rights 2 workers, the Linió Kent case, the Viola Liuzzo case, the 3 bombings of the church in Birmingham. We were faced with one 4 tremendous problem at that time.

5 Senator Schweiker. I acknowledge that.

6 Mr. Adams. Our only approach was through informants 7 and through the use of informants we solved these cases, the 8 ones that were solved. Some of the bombing cases we have 9 never solved. They are extremely difficult.

10 These informants, as we told the Attorney General, and 11 as we told the President, that we had moved informants like 12 Mr. Rowe up to the top leadership. He was the bodyguard to the 13 head man. He was in a position where he could forewarn us 14 of violence, could help us on cases that had transpired, and 15 yet we knew and conceived that this could continue forever 16 unless we can create enough disruption that these members will 17 realize that if I go out and murder three civil rights workers, 18 even though the sheriff and other law enforcement officers are 19 in on it, if that were the case and with some of them it was 20 the case, that I would be caught. And that's what we did and 21 that's why violence stopped, was because the Klan was insecure 22 and just like you say, 20 percent, they thought 50 percent of 23 their members ultimately were Klan members and they didn't 24 dare engage in these acts of violence because they knew they 25 couldn't control the conspiracy any longer.

1 Senator Schweiker. My time is expired. I just have 2 one quick question.

3 Is it correct that in 1971 we're using around 6500
4 informers for black ghetto situations?

5 Mr. Adams. I'm not sure if that's the year. We did 6 have one year where we had a number like that which probably 7 had been around 6000, and that was the time when the cities 8 were being burned, Detroit, Washington, areas like this. We 9 were given a mandate to know what the situation is, where is 10 violence going to break out, what next?

11 They weren't informants like an individual penetrating 12 an organization. They were listening posts in the community 13 that would help tell us that we have a group here that's getting 14 ready to start another fire-fight or something.

15 Senator Tower. At this point, there are three more 16 Senators remaining for questioning. If we can try to get 17 everything in in the first round, we will not have a second 18 round and I think we can finish around 1:00, and we can go 19 on and terminate the proceedings.

20 However, If anyone feels that they have another question 21 that they want to return to, we can come back here by 2:00.

22 Senator Mondale?

23 Senator Mondale. Mr. Adams, it seems to me that the 24 record is now fairly clear that when the FBI operates in the 25 field of crime investigating, it may be the best professional

1 organization of its kind in the world. And when the FBI acts 2 in the field of political ideas, it has bungled its job, it 3 has interfered with the civil liberties, and finally, in the 4 last month or two, through its public disclosures, heaped 5 shame upon itself and really led toward an undermining of 6 the crucial public confidence in an essential law enforcement 7 agency of this country.

8 In a real sense, history has repeated itself because it 9 was precisely that problem that led to the creation of the FBI 10 in 1924.

11 In World War I, the Bureau of Investigation strayed from 12 its law enforcement functions and became an arbiter and 13 protector of political ideas. And through the interference 14 of civil liberties and Palmer Raids and the rest, the public 15 became so offended that later through Mr. Justice Stone and 16 Mr. Hoover, the FBI was created. And the first statement 17 by Mr. Stone was that never again will this Justice Department 18 get involved in political ideas.

19 And yet here we are again looking at a record where with 20 Martin Luther King, with anti-war resisters, with -- we even 21 had testimony this morning of meetings with the Council of 22 Churches. Secretly we are investigating this vague, ill-defined, 23 impossible to define idea of investigating dangerous ideas.

24 It seems to be the basis of the strategy that people 25 can't protect themselves, that you somehow need to use the

1 tools of law enforcement to protect people from subversive
2 or dangerous ideas, which I find strange and quite profoundly 3 at odds with the philosophy of American government.

4 I started in politics years ago and the first thing we 5 had to do was to get the communists out of our parts and out 6 of the union. We did a very fine job. As far as I know, and 7 I'm beginning to wonder, but as far as I know, we had no help 8 from the FBI or the CIA. We just rammed them out of the meetings 9 on the grounds that they weren't Democrats and they weren't 10 good union leaders when we didn't want anything to do with them.
11 And yet, we see time and time again that we're going to 12 protect the blacks from Martin Luther King because he's 13 dangerous, that we've going to protect veterans from whatever 14 it is, and we're going to protect the Council of Churches 15 from the veterans, and so on, and it just gets so gummy and 16 confused and ill-defined and dangerous, that don't you agree 17 with me that we have to control this, to restrain it, so that 18 precisely what is expected of the FBI is known by you, by the 19 public, and that you can justify your actions when we ask 20 you?

21 Mr. Adams. I agree with that, Senator, and I would like 22 to point out that when the Attorney General made his statement 23 Mr. Hoover subscribes to it, we followed that policy for about 24 ten years until the President of the United States said that 25 we should investigate the Nazi Party.

1 I for one feel that we should investigate the Nazi Party.
2 I feel that our investigation of the Nazi Party resulted in 3 the fact that in World War II, as contrasted with World War I, 4 there wasn't one single incident of foreign directed sabotage
5 which took place in the United States.

6 Senator Mondale. And under the criminal law you could 7 have investigated these issues of sabotage.

8 Isn't sabotage a crime?

9 Mr. Adams. Sabotage is a crime.

10 Senator Mondale. Could you have investigated that?

11 Mr. Adams. After it happened.

12 Senator Mondale. You see, every time we get involved 13 in political ideas, you defend yourself on the basis of 14 crimes that could have been committed. It's very interesting.

15 In my opinion, you have to stand here if you're going to 16 continue what you're now doing and as I understand it, you 17 still insist that you did the right thing with the Vietnam 18 Veterans Against the War, and investigating the Council of 19 Churches, and this can still go on. This can still go on under 20 your interpretation of your present powers, what you try to 21 justify on the grounds of your law enforcement activities 22 in terms of criminal matters.

23 Mr. Adams. The law does not say we have to wait until 24 we have been murdered before we can --

25 Senator Mondale. Absolutely, but that's the field of 1 law again. You're trying to defend apples with oranges. That's 2 the law. You can do that.

3 Mr. Adams. That's right, but how do you find out which 4 of the 20,000 Bund members might have been a saboteur. You 5 don't have probable cause to investigate anyone, but you can 6 direct an intelligence operation against the German-American 7 Bund, the same thing we did after Congress said --

8 Senator Mondale. Couldn't you get a warrant for that?
9 Why did you object to going to court for authority for that?

10 Mr. Adams. Because we don't have probable cause to 11 go against an individual and the law doesn't provide for 12 probable cause to investigate an organization.

13 There were activities which did take place, like one time
14 they outlined the Communist Party --

15 Senator Mondale. What I don't understand is why it 16 wouldn't be better for the FBI for us to define authority 17 that you could use in the kind of Bonn situation where under 18 court authority you can investigate where there is probable 19 cause or reasonable cause to suspect sabotage and the rest.

20 Wouldn't that make a lot more sense than just making these 21 decisions on your own?

22 Mr. Adams. We have expressed complete concurrence in 23 that. We feel that we're going to go beat to death in the 24 next 100 years, you're damned if you do, and damned if you 25 don't if we don't have a delineation of our responsibility

1 in this area. But I won't agree with you, Senator, that we 2 have bungled the intelligence operations in the United States.
3 I agree with you that we have made some mistakes. Mr. Kelley 4 has set a pattern of being as forthright as any Director of the 5 FBI in acknowledging mistakes that had been made, but I think 6 that as you said, and I believe Senator Tower said, and 7 Senator Church, that we have to watch these hearings because 8 of the necessity that we must concentrate on these areas of 9 abuse. We must not lose sight of the 10 overall law enforcement and intelligence community, and I 11 still feel that this is the freest country in the world.
12 I've travelled much, as I'm sure you have, and I know we have 13 made some mistakes, but I feel that the people in the United 14 States are less chilled by the mistakes we have made than they 15 are by the fact that there are 20,000 murders a year in the 16 United States and they can't walk out of their houses at night 17 and feel safe.

18 Senator Mondale. That's correct, and isn't that an 19 argument then, Mr. Adams, for strengthening our powers to go 20 after those who commit crimes rather than strengthening or 21 continuing a policy which we now see undermines the public 22 confidence you need to do your job.

23 Mr. Adams. Absolutely. The mistakes we have made are 24 what have brought on this embarrassment to us.

25 I'm not blaming the Committee. I'm saying we made some

Phone (Area 202) 544-6000

1 mistakes and in doing so this is what has hurt the FBI. But 2 at the same time I don't feel that a balanced picture comes 3 out, as you have said yourselves, because of the necessity 4 of zeroing in on abuses.

5 I think that we have done one tremendous job. I think 6 the accomplishments in the Klan was the finest hour of the 7 FBI and yet, I'm sure in dealing with the Klan that we made 8 some mistakes. But I just don't agree with bungling.

1 Senator Mondale. I don't want to argue over terms, but 2 I think I sense an agreement that the FBI has gotten into trouble 3 over it in the political idea trouble, and that that's where we 4 need to have new legal standards.

5 Mr. Adams. Yes, I agree with that.

6 Senator Tower. Senator Huddleston.

7 Senator Huddleston. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

8 Mr. Adams, these two instances we have studied at some 9 length seems to have been an inclination on the part of 10 the Bureau to establish a notion about an individual or a group 11 which seems to be very hard to ever change or dislodge. In 12 the case of Dr. King, where the supposition was that he was 13 being influenced by Communist individuals, extensive investi-14 gation was made, surveillance, reports came back indicating that 15 this in fact was untrue, and directions continued to go out 16 to intensify the investigation. There never seemed to be a 17 willingness on the part of the Bureau to accept its own facts.

18 Ms. Cook testified this morning that something similar 19 to that happened with the Vietnam Veterans Against the War, that 20 every piece of information that she supplied to the Bureau 21 seemed to indicate that the Bureau was not correct in its 22 assumption that this organization planned to commit violence, 23 or that it was being manipulated, and yet you seemed to insist 24 that this investigation go on, and this information was used 25 against the individuals.

1 Now, are there instances where the Bureau has admitted that 2 its first assumptions were wrong and they have changed their 3 course?

4 Mr. Adams. We have admitted that. We have also shown 5 from one of the cases that Senator Hart brought up, that after 6 five days we closed the case. We were told something by an 7 individual that there was a concern of an adverse influence 8 in it, and we looked into it. On the Martin Luther King 9 situation there was no testimony to the effect that we just 10 dragged on and on, or admitted that we dragged on and on and 11 on, ad infinitum. The wiretaps on Martin Luther King were 12 all approved by the Attorney General. Microphones on Martin 13 Luther King were approved by another Attorney General. This 14 wasn't the FBI, and the reason they were approved was that 15 there was a basis to continue the investigation up to a point.

16 What I testified to was that we were improper in discrediting 17 Dr. King, but it's just like --

18 Senator Huddleston. The Committee has before it memoranda 19 written by high officials of the Bureau indicating that the 20 information they were receiving from the field, from these 21 surveillance methods, did not confirm what their supposition 22 was.

23 Mr. Adams. That memorandum was not on Dr. King. That 24 was on another individual that I think somehow got mixed up 25 in the discussion, one where the issue was can we make people

1 prove they aren't a Communist before we will agree not to 2 investigate them.

3 But the young lady appearing this morning making the 4 comment that she never knew of anything she told us that 5 she considers herself a true member of the VVAW-WSO inasmuch 6 as she feels in general agreement of the principles of it, and 7 agreed to cooperate with the FBI in providing information regard-8 ing the organization to aid in preventing violent individuals 9 from associating themselves with the VVAW-WSO. She is most 10 concerned about efforts by the Revolutionary Union to take over 11 the VVAW-WSO, and she is working actively to prevent this..

12 I think that we have a basis for investigating the VVAW-13 WSO in certain areas today. In other areas we have stopped 14 the investigation. They don't agree with these principles 15 laid down by the --

16 Senator Huddleston. That report was the basis of your 17 continuing to pay informants and continuing to utilize that 18 information against members who certainly had not been involved 19 in violence, and apparently to get them fired from their job 20 or whatever?

21 Mr. Adams. It all gets back to the fact that even in the 22 criminal law field, you have to detect crime, and you have to 23 prevent crime, and you can't wait until something happens. The 24 Attorney General has clearly spoken in that area, and even our 25 statutory jurisdiction provides that we don't --

Phone (Area 202) 544-6000

1 Senator Huddleston. Well, of course we've had considerable 2 evidence this morning where no attempt was made to prevent 3 crime, when you had information that it was going to occur.
4 But I'm sure there are instances where you have.

5 Mr. Adams. We disseminated every single item which he 6 reported to us.

7 Senator Huddleston. To a police department which you 8 knew was an accomplice to the crime.

9 Mr. Adams. Not necessarily.

10 Senator Huddleston. Your informant had told you that, 11 hadn't he?

12 Mr. Adams. Well, the informant is on one level. We have 13 other informants, and we have other information.

14 Senator Huddleston. Yes, but you were aware that he 15 had worked with certain members of the Birmingham police in 16 order to --

17 Mr. Adams. Yes. He furnished many other instances also.

18 Senator Huddleston. So you weren't really doing a whole 19 lot to prevent that incident by telling the people who were 20 already part of it.

21 Mr. Adams. We were doing everything we could lawfully 22 do at the time, and finally the situation was corrected, so that 23 when the Department, agreeing that we had no further juris-
24 diction, could sent the United States Marshal down to perform 25 certain law enforcement functions.

410 First Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003

1 Senator Huddleston. Now, the Committee has received 2 documents which indicated that in one situation the FBI assisted 3 an informant who had been established in a white hate group
4 to establish a rival white hate group, and that the Bureau paid 5 his expenses in setting up this rival organization.

6 Now, does this not put the Bureau in a position of being 7 responsible for what actions the rival white hate group might 8 have undertaken?

9 Mr. Adams. I'd like to see if one of the other gentlemen 10 knows that specific case, because I don't think we set up a 11 specific group.

12 This is Joe Deegan.

13 Mr. Deegan. Senator, it's my understanding that the 14 informant we're talking about decided to break off from the 15 group he was with. He was with the Macon Klan group of 16 the United Klans of America, and he decided to break off. This 17 was in compliance with our regulations. His breaking off, 18 we did not pay him to set up the organization. He did it 19 on his own. We paid him for the information he furnished 20 us concerning the operation. We did not sponsor the organiza-21 tion.

22 Senator Huddleston. Concerning the new organization that 23 he set up, he continued to advise you of the activities of that 24 organization?

25 Mr. Deegan. He continued to advise us of that organization

1 and other organizations. He would advise us of planned 2 activities.

3 Senator Huddleston. The new organization that he formed, 4 did it operate in a very similar manner to the previous one?

5 Mr. Deegan. No, it did not, and it did not last that 6 long.

7 Senator Huddleston. There's also evidence of an FBI 8 informant in the Black Panther Party who had a position of 9 responsibility within the Party with the knowledge of his 10 FBI contact of supplying members with weapons and instructing 11 them in how to use those weapons. Presumably this was in the 12 knowledge of the Bureau, and he later became -- came in contact 13 with the group that was contracting for murder, and he partici-14 pated in this group with the knowledge of the FBI agent, and 15 this group did in fact stalk a victim who was later killed with 16 the weapon supplied by this individual, presumably all in the 17 knowledge of the FBI.

18 How does this square with your enforcement and crime 19 prevention responsibilities.

20 Mr. Deegan. Senator, I'm not familiar with that particular 21 case. It does not square with our policy in all respects, and 22 I would have to look at that particular case you're talking 23 about to give you an answer.

24 Senator Huddleston. I don't have the documentation on that 25 particular case, but it brings up the point as to what kind of

1 control you exercised over this kind of informant in this kind 2 of an organization and to what extent an effort is made to 3 prevent these informants from engaging in the kind of thing 4 that you are supposedly trying to prevent.

5 Mr. Adams. A good example of this was Mr. Rowe, who became 6 active in an action group, and we told him to get out or 7 we would no longer use him as an informant, in spite of the 8 information he had furnished in the past.

9 We have had cases, Senator, where we have had --

10 Senator Huddleston. But you also told him to participate 11 in violent activities.

12 Mr. Adams. We did not tell him to participate in violent 13 activities.

14 Senator Huddleston. That's what he said.

15 Mr. Adams. I know that's what he said. But that's what 16 lawsuits are all about, is that there are two sides to the 17 issue, and our agents handling this have advised us, and I 18 believe have advised your staff, that at no time did they 19 advise him to engage in violence.

20 Senator Huddleston. Just to do what was necessary to 21 get the information, I believe maybe might have been his 22 instructions.

23 Mr. Adams. I don't think they made any such statement 24 to him along that line, and we have informants, we have 25 informants who have gotten involved in the violation of the law,

smn 8

Phone (Area 202) 544-6000

1 and we have immediately converted their status from an informant
2 to the subject, and have prosecuted I would say, offhand, I 3 can think of around 20 informants that we have prosecuted for 4 violating the laws, once it came to our attention, and even 5 to show you our policy of disseminating information on violence 6 in this case, during the review of the matter, the agents told 7 me that they found one case where their agent had been working 8 24 hours a day, and he was a little late in disseminating the 9 information to the police department. No violence occurred, 10 but it showed up in a file review, and he was censured for 11 his delay in properly notifying local authorities.

12 So we not only have a policy, I feel that we do follow 13 reasonable safeguards in order to carry it out, including periodic 14 review of all informant files.

15 Senator Huddleston. Well, Mr. Rowe's statement is 16 substantiated to some extent with the acknowledgement by the 17 agent in charge that if you're going to be a Klansman and you 18 happen to be with someone and they decide to do something, that 19 he couldn't be an angel. These were the words of the agent, 20 and be a good informant. He wouldn't take the lead, but the 21 implication is that he would have to go along and would have 22 to be involved if he was going to maintain his credibility.

23 Mr. Adams. There's no question but that an informant at 24 times will have to be present during demonstrations, riots, 25 fistfights that take place, but I believe his statement was

3 beat with chains, and I didn't hear whether he said he beat 4 someone with a chain or not, but I rather doubt that he did 5 because it's one thing being present, and it's another thing 6 taking an active part in criminal actions.

7 Senator Huddleston. He was close enough to get his 8 throat cut.

9 How does the gathering of information --

10 Senator Tower. Senator Mathias is here, and I think that 11 we probably should recess a few minutes.

12 Could we have Senator Mathias' questions and then should 13 we convene this afternoon?

14 Senator Huddleston. I'm finished. I just had one more 15 question.

16 Senator Tower. Go ahead.

17 Senator Huddleston. I wanted to ask how the selection of 18 information about an individual's personal life, social, sex 19 life and becoming involved in that sex life or social life 20 is a requirement for law enforcement or crime prevention.

21 Mr. Adams. Our agent handlers have advised us on Mr.
22 Rowe, that they gave him no such instruction, they had no 23 such knowledge concerning it, and I can't see where it would 24 be of any value whatsoever.

25 Senator Huddleston. You aren't aware of any case where 1 these instructions were given to an agent or an informant?

2 Mr. Adams. To get involved in sexual activity? No, sir.

3 Senator Huddleston. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

4 Senator Tower. Senator Mathias.

5 Senator Mathias. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

6 I would like to come back very briefly to the Fourth 7 Amendment considerations in connection with the use of informants 8 and in posing these questions we're not thinking of the one 9 time volunteer who walks in to an FBI office and says I have 10 a story I want to tell you and that's the only time that you 11 may see him. I'm thinking of the kind of situations in which 12 there is a more extended relationship which could be of varying 13 degrees. It might be in one case that the same individual 14 will have some usefulness in a number of situations. But when 15 the FBI orders a regular agent to engage in a search, the first 16 test is a judicial warrant, and what I would like to explore 17 with you is the difference between a one time search which 18 requires a warrant, and which you get when you make that 19 search, and a continuous search which uses an informant, or 20 the case of a continuous search which uses a regular undercover 21 agent, someone who is totally under your control, and is in a 22 slightly different category than an informant.

23 Mr. Adams. Well, we get there into the fact that the 24 Supreme Court has still held that the use of informants does 25 not invade any of these constitutionally protected areas, and

1 if a person wants to tell an informant something that isn't 2 protected by the Supreme Court.

3 An actual search for legal evidence, that is a protected 4 item, but information and the use of informants have been 5 consistently held as not posing any constitutional problems.

6 Senator Mathias. I would agree, if you're talking about 7 the fellow who walks in off the street, as I said earlier, 8 but is it true that under existing procedures informants are 9 given background checks?

10 Mr. Adams. Yes, sir.

11 Senator Mathias. And they are subject to a testing period.

12 Mr. Adams. That's right, to verify and make sure they 13 are providing to us reliable information.

14 Senator Mathias. And during the period that the relation-15 ship continues, they are rather closely controlled by the 16 handling agents.

17 Mr. Adams. That's true.

18 Senator Mathias. So in effect they can come in a very 19 practical way agents themselves to the FBI.

20 Mr. Adams. They can do nothing --

21 Senator Mathias. Certainly agents in the common law use 22 of the word.

23 Mr. Adams. That's right, they can do nothing, and we 24 instruct our agents that an informant can do nothing that the 25 agent himself cannot do, and if the agent can work himself into

smn 12

Phone (Area 202) 544-6000

1 an organization in an undercover capacity, he can sit there and 2 glean all the information that he wants, and that is not in the 3 Constitution as a protected area. But we do have this problem.

4 Senator Mathias. But if a regular agent who is a member
5 of the FBI attempted to enter these premises, he would require 6 a warrant?

7 Mr. Adams. No, sir, if a regular -- it depends on the 8 purpose for which he is entering. If a regular agent by 9 concealing his identity, by -- was admitted as a member of the 10 Communist Party, he can attend Communist Party meetings, and he 11 can enter the premises, he can enter the building, and there's 12 no constitutionally invaded area there.

13 Senator Mathias. And so you feel that anyone who has 14 a less formal relationship with the Bureau than a regular 15 agent, who can undertake a continuous surveillance operation 16 as an undercover agent or as an informant. --

17 Mr. Adams. As long as he commits no illegal acts.

18 Senator Mathias. Let me ask you why you feel that it is 19 impractical to require a warrant since, as I understand it, 20 headquarters must approve the use of an informant. Is that 21 degree of formal action required?

Mr. Adams. The main difficulty is the particularity which has to be shown in obtaining a search warrant. You have to go after particular evidence. You have to specify what you're going after, and an informant operates in an area that you just cannot specify. He doesn't know what's going to be discussed at that meeting. It may be a plot to blow up the Capitol again or it may be a plot to blow up the State Department building.

Senator Mathias. If it were a criminal investigation, you would have little difficulty with probable cause, wouldn't you?

Mr. Adams. We would have difficulty in a warrant to use someone as an informant in that area because the same difficulty of particularity exists. We can't specify.

Senator Mathias. I understand the problem because it's very similar to one that we discussed earlier in connection say wiretaps on a national security problem.

Mr. Adams. That's it, and there we face the problem of where the Soviet, an individual identified as a Soviet spy in a friendly country and they tell us he's been a Soviet spy there and now he's coming to the United States, and if we can't show under a probable cause warrant, if we couldn't show that he was actually engaging in espionage in the United States, we couldn't get a wiretap under the probable cause requirements which have been discussed. If the good fairy didn't drop the

410 First Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003

1 evidence in our hands that this individual is here conducting 2 espionage, we again would fall short of this, and that's 3 why we're still groping with it.

4 Senator Mathias. When you say fall short, you really,
5 you would be falling short of the requirements of the Fourth 6 Amendment.

7 Mr. Adams. That's right, except for the fact that the 8 President, under this Constitutional powers, to protect this 9 nation and make sure that it survives first, first of all 10 national survival, and these are the areas that not only the 11 President but the Attorney General are concerned in and we're 12 all hoping that somehow we can reach a legislative middle 13 ground in here.

14 Senator Mathias. Which we discussed in the other national 15 security area as to curtailling a warrant to that particular 16 need.

17 Mr. Adams. And if you could get away from probable 18 cause and get some degree of reasonable cause and get some 19 method of sealing indefinitely your interest, say, in an 20 ongoing espionage case and can work out those difficulties, 21 we may get their yet.

22 Senator Mathias. And you don't despair of finding that 23 middle ground?

24 Mr. Adams. I don't because I think that today there's 25 more of an open mind between Congress and the Executive Branch

1 and the FBI and everyone concerning the need to get these 2 areas resolved.

3 Senator Mathias. And you believe that the Department, 4 if we could come together, would support, would agree to that 5 kind of a warrant requirement if we could agree on the language?

6 Mr. Adams. If we can work out problems and the Attorney 7 General is personally interested in that also.

8 Senator Mathias. Do you think that this agreement might 9 extend to some of those other areas that we talked about?

10 Mr. Adams. I think that that would be a much greater 11 difficulty in an area of domestic intelligence informant who 12 reports on many different operations and different types of 13 activities that might come up rather than say in a Soviet 14 espionage or a foreign espionage case where you do have a little 15 more degree of specificity to deal with.

16 Senator Mathias. I suggest that we arrange to get 17 together and try out some drafts with each other, but in the 18 meantime, of course, there's another alternative and that 19 would be the use of wiretap procedure by which the Attorney 20 General must approve a wiretap before it is placed, and the 21 same general process could be used for informants, since 22 you come to headquarters any way.

23 Mr. Adams. That could be an alternative. I think it 24 would be a very burdensome alternative and I think at some 25 point after we attack the major abuses, or what are considered

1 major abuses of Congress and get over this hurdle, I think 2 we're still going to have to recognize that heads of agencies 3 have to accept the responsibility for managing that agency 4 and we can't just keep pushing every operational problem up 5 to the top because there just aren't enough hours in the day.

6 Senator Mathias. But the reason that parallel suggests 7 itself is of course the fact that the wiretap deals generally 8 with one level of information in one sense of gathering 9 information. You hear what you hear from the tap.

10 Mr. Adams. But you're dealing in a much smaller number 11 also.

12 Senator Mathias. Smaller number, but that's all the 13 more reason. When an informant goes in, he has all of his 14 senses. He's gathering all of the information a human being 15 can acquire from a situation and has access to more information 16 than the average wiretap.

17 And it would seem to me that for that reason a parallel 18 process might be useful and in order.

19 Mr. Adams. Mr. Mintz pointed out one other main 20 distinction. to me which I had overlooked from our prior 21 discussions, which is the fact that with an informant he is 22 more in the position of being a central monitor in that one 23 of the two parties to the conversation agrees, such as like 24 central monitoring of telephones and microphones and 25 anything else versus the wiretap itself where the individual

1 whose telephone is being tapped is not aware and there is,
2 and neither of the two parties talking had agreed that their 3 conversation could be monitored.

4 Senator Mathias. I find that one difficult to accept.
5 If I'm the third party overhearing a conversation that is taking 6 place in a room where I am, and my true character isn't perceived 7 by the two people who are talking, in effect they haven't 8 consented to my overhearing my conversation. Then they consent 9 if they believe that I am their friend or their, a partisan 10 of theirs.

11 But if they knew in fact that I was an informant for 12 someone else, they wouldn't be consenting.

13 Mr. Adams. Well, that's like I believe Senator Hart 14 raised earlier, that the courts thus far have made this 15 distinction with no difficulty, but that doesn't mean that 16 there may not be some legislative compromise which might be 17 addressed.

18 Senator Mathias. Well, I particularly appreciate your 19 attitude in being willing to work on these problems because 20 I think that's the most important thing that can evolve from 21 these hearings, so that we can actually look at the Fourth 22 Amendment as the standard that we have to achieve. But the 23 way we get there is obviously going to be a lot easier if we 24 can work toward them together.

25 I just have one final question, Mr. Chairman, and that

1 deals with whether we shouldn't impose a standard of probable 2 cause that a crime has been committed as a means of controlling 3 the use of informants and the kind of information that they 4 collect.

5 Do you feel that this would be too restrictive?

6 Mr. Adams. Yes, sir, I do.

8 When I look at informants and I see that each year 9 informants provide us, locate 5000 dangerous fugitives, they 10 provide subjects in 2000 more cases, they recover $86 million 11 in stolen property and contraband, and that's irrespective 12 of what we give the local law enforcement and other Federal 13 agencies, which is almost a comparable figure, we have almost 14 reached a point in the criminal law where we don't have much 15 left. And in the intelligence field we still, I think when 16 we carve all of the problems away, we still have to make sure 17 that we have the means to gather information which will permit 18 us to be aware of the identity of individuals and organizations 19 that are acting to overthrow the government of the United 20 States. And I think we still have some areas to look hard 21 at as we have discussed, but I think informants are here to 22 stay. They are absolutely essential to law enforcement.
23 Everyone uses informants. The press has informants, Congress 24 has informants, you have individuals in your community that 25 you rely on, not for ulterior purposes, but to let you know what's the feel of the people, am I serving them properly, am I carrying out this?

It's here to say. It's been here throughout history and there will always be informants. And the thing we want to avoid is abuses like provocateurs, criminal activities, and to ensure that we have safeguards that will prevent that. But we do need informants.

Senator Tower. Senator Hart, do you have any further questions?

Senator Hart of Michigan. Yes. I ask unanimous request perhaps with a view to giving balance to the record, the groups that we have discussed this morning into which the Bureau has put informants, in popular language, our liberal groups -- I would ask unanimous consent that be printed in the record, the summary of the opening of the headquarters file by the Bureau of Dr. Carl McIntyre when he announced that he was organizing a group to counter the American Civil Liberties Union and other "liberal and communist groups," is not a left only pre-occupation.

Senator Tower. Without objection, so ordered.

QUESTION:

....You do use informants and do instruct them to spread dissention among certain groups that they are informing on, do you not?

We did when we had the COINTEL programs which were discontinued in 1971, and I think the Klan is probably one of the best examples of a situation where the law was ineffective at the time. We heard the term, State's Rights used much more than we hear today. We saw with the Little Rock situation the President of the United States sending in the troops pointing out the necessity to use local law enforcement. We must have local law enforcement use the troops only as a last resort. When you have a situation like this where you do try to preserve the respective roles in law enforcement, you have historical problems.

With the Klan coming along, we had situations where the FBI and the Federal Government was almost powerless to act. We had local law enforcement officers in some areas participating in Klan violence. The incidents mentioned by Mr. Rowe--everyone of those he saw them from the lowest level--the informant. He didn't see what action was taken with that information as he pointed out during his testimony. Our files show that this information was reported to the police departments in every instance.

We also know that in certain instances the information upon being received was not being acted upon. We also disseminated simultaneously through letterhead memorandum to the Department of Justice the problem. And here we were--the FBI--in a position where we had no authority in the absence of an instruction from the Department of Justice to make an arrest. Section 241 and 242 don't cover it because you don't have evidence of a conspiracy. It ultimately resulted in a situation where the Department called in U. S. Marshals who do have authority similar to local law enforcement officials.

So historically, in those days, we were just as frustrated as anyone else was, that when we got information from someone like Mr. Rowe--good information, reliable information--and it was passed on to those who had the responsibility to do something about it, it was not always acted upon as he indicated.

QUESTION: In none of these cases, then, there was adequate evidence of conspiracy to give you jurisdiction to act.

MR. ADAMS: The Departmental rules at that time, and still do, require Departmental approval where you have a conspiracy. Under 241, it takes two or more persons acting together. You can have a mob scene and you can have blacks and whites belting each other, but unless you can show that those that initiated the action acted in concert, in a conspiracy, you have no violation.

Congress recognized this and it wasn't until 1968 that they came along and added Section 245 to the Civil Rights Statute which added punitive measures against an
