Harry Hall, 55, AKA Harry Helfgot and Harry Haler.

L.A. Consultant for Hoover Gorin, a small Las Vegas PR outfit which won a $1.3 million-a-year contract to improve image of Teamster's Union.
Hall made frequent trips to S. Diego, until he was taken to serve sentence for using stolen securities in a bank fraud.

Acquitted earlier in Chicago on charges of transporting stolen Treasury notes valued at $175,000 after he claimed to be an informant for IRS.

Hall had actually tried to sell part of the $6 million in securities stolen from the United Bank of Calif. in Laguna Niguel during a 1972 burglary. Other recent visitors with Organized Crime ties include N.Y. Mafia boss Joseph (Joe Bananas) Bonanno and Salvatore (Bill) Bonanno, his son.

Dalton (formerly D'Alton) Smith and William Schley AKA Lloyd William Sakley indicted on charges involving fraudulent loans from United Calif. Bank. Both men also under investigation in Louisiana, according to Aaron Kohn.

Kohn said Smith was indicted by E. Baton Rouge
Grand jury in 1967 on charges of attempting to bribe an aide to then Gov. John J. McKeithen in a $2 million scheme to free Teamster boss Hoffa from federal custody.
Scheme, reportedly engineered by Carlos Marcello,

Sam DiPiazza - reportedly involved in both interstate and intro-state illegal gambling activities. Allegedly gives a cut of his operation to Carlos Marcello thru meetings of DiPiazza's wife and "Sammy" Marcello, Carlos' brothers. DiPiazza's operation one of largest illegal "lay-off" book makings operations in the U.S. It is a toss-up, as to who is bigger--his or Gil Beckley's of Miami.

Close liaison between DiPiazza and Beckley and another person known as Eugene Nolan of New Orleans. Reported that New Orleans Athletic Club is DiPiazza's main base of operations as recently as September '67 and is believed to be a bigger operator from that location than Sammy Marcello, also reportedly headquartered there.

Two persons, Joseph Barogona and "Buck" Diaz are representatives of DiPiazza in his book making enterprise, acting as agents.

Mr. Barogona claims his livelihood as that of a salesman for The Continental Produce Co., #95 French Market Place. Both Bargona and Diaz are reportedly "booking" from the pay telephones at the Fontainebleau Motor Hotel as recently as Tues., Oct. 31, 1967. Barogona positions himself in the kitchen of the Fontainebleau during the morning hours, representing himself as a produce salesman.

Sammy Marcello, in addition to being a "messenger" between the DiPiazas and his brother, Carlos, Sammy Marcello has the primary base of operations in Jefferson Park at the Mi-Roller Stag Bar. Sammy Marcello is also alleged to be personally operating out of New Orleans Athletic Club as recently as one week ago.

Nolan believed to be operating with father-in-law Jake Atz - illegal booking operations.

Carlos Marcello - frequently visits the horse farm in Covington, La.
