Report of info re: Sierra 30 April 1963
Source: Radio technician (F) formerly associated with Cuban Ministry of Communications Appraisal: 3

March 29, 1963. Sierra claimed he represented group of Americans in Chicago with financial interests in L.A. interested in combining their effort with those of Cuban exiles to overthrow Castro regime with or without U.S. government approval. Sierra contacted Eusebio Lujal Barniol of CTC and Gen. Campos Marqueti of Arianza para la Liberfad de Cuba

At meeting on March 30 Campo indicated the Lawyers Corp.
and the American Bankers would put up about 55 million dollars. Sierra said American financial interests would participate on condition that there was a true unity of the majority of Cuban groups in exile. For military planning he claimed he had assistance of two general (one who had participated in Normady invasion, the other in a "disembarkation" in Korea). Also 4 admirals and 4 rear admirals all who had served with U.S. forces, willing to arrange for arms and establishment of training bases in a L.A. country.
March 30 - Sierra said he had meeting with owner of King Ranch, who had a personal message for Sierra, from a L.A. president indicating this country would permit establishment of base.

April 2 - Sierra to travel to P.R. through N.Y.

7 May 1963 Re: Sierra
Source: Cuban lawyer; rightist Cuban exile and rightist Latin American exile

May 6, 1963 MPR received invitation from Paulino A. Sierra to discuss military unification. (Sierra reportedly had been employed by Carlos Saladrigas, minister under Batista who had unsavory reputation)

May 2, 1963 meeting - Sierra presented a Mr. Trull (or Turull) as guest speaker, also representing Chicago group willing to lend assistance to extent of $30 million dollars, with necessary obligation that Cubans form unity group representing a majority of the exiles.

One of the promoters for meeting was George Francia, a Haitian national, previously involved in gambling interests in Havana. Francis said Turull represented such companies as Standard Oil, Sears and Roebuck, Union Carbide. Reportedly Guatemalan government favorably disposed to lend a hand in fight against Castro.

William H. Trull told agents (unidentified which) he became identified as friend of Cubans as result of having performed as entertainer for Cuban groups in Chicago, contacted by Sierra in March 63. (Remainder unavailable)

105-121010-3
5/25/63 Teletype to Director from SAC, Chicago re: Sierra

Trull advised he is formerly an entertainer.
Sierra wired tickets to Trull from Miami. Trull flew May 1, registered at Ponce de Leon Hotel and was asked by Sierra to speak to Prio and (FNA) Mujal, former Cuban labor leader and say he represented wealthy American interests who had business propositions for Cuban people if they could unify with Prio as President and Sierra as Secretary. Trull did as requested. Also reiterated same to group at hotel. Sierra told Trull he knew Trull could not influence financial backing but that he did not need same since he had commitment from syndicate of hoodlums with interest in gambling casinos in Cuba and operate them. Loan of $14 million to be paid by Sierra's group to Cleveland group.

Memo 105-121010-3 to AG from director. Sierra claimed Trull made original approach to Sierra. Trull allegedly told Sierra that people Trull represented would be interested in loaning up to $30 million on bus, proposition. Sierra then made arrangement for Trull to go to Miami.

CIA CSDB - 3/655,116
19 June 1963 re: Carlos Prio

Prio spoke with Sierra at request of Santiago Babun

Prio met with Secretary General of DRC, Luis Fernandez-Rocha Rodriguez, seeking support for Eloy Gutierrez Menoyo, whom he has been helping since Gutierrez arrived in the U.S.

Prio intends to form a junta which would include: Manuel Antonio de Varona of CRC; "Pepin" Bosch Bishop Eduardo Boza Masvidal, who represents the industrias and whom Prio named a treasurer; Guillermo Alonso Pujol and Jose Manuel Cortina to direct relations with governments of free world;

Carlos Marquez Sterling — to represent followers of Batista Manuel Artime Buesa and Jose Fernandez-Rocha to represent combat youths; Enrique Jose Ruiz - Williams, to serve as liaison with representatives of the U.S. government.

LHM, Santiago Alvarez Rodriguez
Anti-Fidel Castro activities IS-Cuba, Miami
June 3, 1963

Alvarez, formerly MD, and Senator in Cuba, associated with Comandos L, knew Sierra in Cuba, as Secretary to Alvarez in political work. Sierra worked for Cuban rayon manufacturing company and expert in manufacture of synthetic fibers. Called by Sierra - introduced by American at airport (presumably Trull) who explained business deal. Alvarez thought plan a waste of time, American man contradictory, vague about plan. Sierra honest and sincere but gullible.

Memo to Director from SAC, Chicago  6/26/63 re Sierra

In view situation appears to be "con job" by Sierra and Trull to unify Cuban exiles and in view doesn't appear there is any hoodlum influence in situation, no further investigation to be conducted by Chicago office

Resided in Miami in 1960

Elected to American Bar Association on 2/7/63.
Admitted to Illinois Bar 1962, sponsored by William Browder, Union Tank Car Co. Sierra said Trull called him who said he saw him in March 10th issue of CHICAGO TRIBUNE. When Sierra asked about identify of individual represented by Trull, Trull talked vaguely about owner of King Ranch in Cuba, General Wood Jarvis - Millionaire in Texas.
Now is concerned Trull involved with "impure" financial sources. About which Sierra is concerned.

Trull story different: called by Sierra - met with him several times in April. Began to talk about Cuban situation. Did not claim personal acquaintance but mentioned he knew Chicago stock broker, Buddy Arvez; Gen. Wood of Sears, Roebuck and Co., and Cleber of King Ranch whom he thought lost money after overthow of Batista.

Sierra sent for Trull to Miami and asked Trull to speak to Prio and    and group of Cubans.

Trull said Sierra told him he didn't need financial influence of Trull inasmuch as a representative of Las Vegas gambling interests contacted Sierra offering backing of $14 million for 50% interest in gambling in Cuba if Sierra able to organize successful ouster of Castro. Trull said he asked Sierra whether that was the Cleveland group which controlled gambling casinos in Las Vegas and that he may have mentioned name Bo Dalitz, but he doesn't recall Sierra's response.
