In a review of its own files on March 15, 1978, the CIA noted that

Ucciana had contacted the Agency three times - in December 1960, July, 1962 and April 1966 - for assistance in plots against Castro. (Ucciana file. ~~File reviewed~~ ~~FILE~~ Classified ~~Dec 1960~~ file 201-312966 & Div. 1885-31 - 3/15/78 - 78 0421219). According to the CIA: "Officers listened to Ucciana, expressed no interest, offered no encouragement and never recontacted him on this matter. There has been no Agency relationship with Ucciana."

The Committee's review of the Agency's file basically confirmed the ^{stated} results of the meetings with Ucciana in 1960 and 1962.

However, a review of files dated July 7, 1962 revealed that contact with Ucciana had been made by an asset, SKWER-1 and that SKWER-1 had given Ucciana $500 for operational activity. (Classified file IN 24738, 7/2/62)

David Atlee Phillips testified before the Committee in Executive Session on April 25, 1978. He said he never used the name ~~of~~ Maurice Bishop. He said he did not know of anyone in the CIA who used the name ~~of~~ Maurice Bishop. He said he had seen Antonio Veciana only twice in his life, the second time ~~that very~~ ^{the} morning of his hearing before the Committee when Veciana, who had testified earlier, emerged from the hearing room while he, Phillips, was in the hallway. Phillips said the first time he met Veciana was at a meeting of the Association of Former Intelligence Officers in Reston. He said that Veciana was brought to that meeting by an investigator from Senator Schweiker's office, but said Phillips, Veciana was not introduced to him by name but only as "the driver." He said Veciana asked him some questions in Spanish but at the time, ~~because~~ he didn't know who Veciana was or why Senator Schweiker's office had sent him to the meeting.

Phillips also testified that he had never used the name ~~of~~ Frigault and had never used a Belgian passport.
