Released under the John F. Kennedy
Assassination Records Collection Act of
1992 (44 USC 2107 Note). Case#:NW
66000 Date: 11-04-2021

Date: September 16, 2021

From: National Archives and Records Administration

Subject: Missing JFK Assassination Records Collection Document 181-10002-10216

To: The File

This memorandum briefly summarizes the status of a missing document in the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection (JFK Collection) and documents the National Archives and Records Administration's (NARA) efforts to provide representative, but not identical, information, in lieu of the missing document, from records available at the Lyndon B. Johnson Presidential Library in Austin, Texas.

While preparing previously-restricted Kennedy Assassination Records Collection documents for release, the JFK processing team could not locate the document associated with Record Identification Form (RIF) 181-10002-10216. The unclassified, 15-page document belongs to the record series "NL Administrative Files [Access and Reference Case Files]" and pertains to President Lyndon Johnson's Daily Diary Entries, June 6, 1967. According to available information on the RIF, the Johnson Presidential Library sent the document to the Office of Presidential Libraries (NL), likely during 1977 or 1978.

An extensive search of records in the JFK Collection, the Office of Presidential Libraries, and the Johnson Presidential Library, did not locate any possible original administrative correspondence associated with the Record Identification Form. Knowing that the missing document contains 15 pages and pertains to the Johnson Daily Diary Entries for June 6, 1967, it is our best assumption that the document probably consists of brief, if any, administrative correspondence, and multiple pages from the Daily Diary Entries.

For informational purposes, we are including this memo and a copy of the Johnson Daily Diary Entries for June 6, 1967, with Record Identification Form 181-10002-10216. This open-in-full document is also available on the Johnson Presidential Library's website at <http://www.lbjlibrary.net/collections/daily-diary.html>.

					Between 8:20a-8:35a, Congressional Leadership began arriving at for breakfast
	8:54a	10:18a			The President, accompanied by the Vice President, and MW went to the second floor for CONGRESSIONAL LEADERSHIP (HOUSE AND SENATE) BREAKFAST
					Senator Mike Mansfield
					Senator Russell Long
					Senator Robert Byrd
					Speaker John McCormack
					Congressman Carl Albert
					Cong. Hale Boggs
					PMG Lawrence O'Brien
					Hon. Barefoot Sanders
					Hon. Mike Manatos
					Joseph Califano
					Mike Manatos memo of gist (sent to DT) indicates the following: The President began the discussion as we proceeded with breakfast by an in-depth report on developments on the Middle East confrontation. His report was greeted with enthusiasm by the Leadership. Uppermost in the President's mind and what seemed to concern the Leadership most was the progress of the Railroad legislation before the Senate and House Committees. The President urged the leaders to make certain we did not get involved in a railroad strike which all agreed would be disastrous. There were pledges of support from all in attendance, with assurances from Mansfield that the Senate would act on Wednesday. There followed a short review of other important legislation, but this seemed anti-climatic.

10:25a					To the dentist's office
10:45a					Walt Rostow called the President--he was referred to the dentist's office. Dr. Burkle reported to the operator that the President would be in the chair for at least another 15 minutes and asked if it was absolutely necessary to interrupt. Mr. Rostow said it was not necessary--and left word.
11:05a					To Oval Office
11:07a					The President buzzed Mary's to come in and pick up some things. When she went in he was standing behind his big desk w/ MW discussing today's schedule. He inquired as to who certain people on the schedule were. Last night the President indicated he wanted to see James Rowe. MW asked if he wanted to see him today. The President then asked MW to ask Mr. Rowe if he knew Henry W. Edgerton * because if Rowe didn't know him, there was no need for the President to see Rowe. The President then asked if the judges were ready and MW replied, "Yes," and the President said, "Are these the three from Virginia and one from North Carolina?" MW replied in the affirmative. The President then asked when the nominations would be ready to go up and MW told him this would be done whenever the President wanted it done.

*Judge Edgerton is Senior Circuit Judge, U.S. Court of Appeals, D.C. Circuit.
