SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

[Subject, a former prisoner of war of the Chinese Communists, allegedly cooperated with Chinese by making voice recordings, preparing articles and letters, attending voluntary study classes, and participating in other similar activities. Subject was reported by informants to have been very friendly with camp leaders, was given special consideration by his captors, appeared to be sincere in his acceptance of Communism, and attempted to influence fellow prisoners of war.] Subject discharged from U. S. Army on 11/18/53, and is currently residing at 6615 Latta, Dallas, Texas. No information developed, Dallas or Houston, Texas, or Pittsburgh, Pa., reflecting former Communist activities of PEASNER. Uncle of PEASNER named PETER MUSSELMAN, of Aliquippa, Pa., once served time in Blaw-Knox Penitentiary for seditious activities.
