area may attempt to enforce payment of the alleged debt of HAROLD SMITH if the local organization fails to make the collection.

A copy is being furnished the Miami Office for information in view of subject's reported intended travel to that area.

A copy of this report is being furnished to INS, San Francisco, because that agency is investigating an individual whom subject assisted in entering the U.S., GUISEPPE MARINO.

Information furnished by SF T-30, SALVATORE JOHN CONSTANZA, aka, SF 2550-PC, was paraphrased in this report to protect the identity of the informant. The information reported is contained in FD-302s on file in the San Francisco Office, but the FD-302s were not included in this report because to do so would disclose the informant.

It is noted that SF T-30 in his FD-302 declared that he was motivated to furnish information because of a need of financial assistance and because he had been instructed by JOSEPH CERRITO, head of the organization at San Jose, Calif., to kill HAROLD SMITH, SR., part owner of Harold's Club, Reno, Nev. The activities of the subject reported in the details of this report in reference to the collection of a large sum of money from a Reno casino operator refer to this attempt to collect the sum of $100,000 from HAROLD SMITH, SR., on an alleged contract made with a member of the San Jose group in 1954.
