UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI

DATE: OCT 11 1961

FROM : SAC, MIAMI (105-new)

SUBJECT: UNIDAD PARA LA GUERRA
(UNITY FOR WAR)
NEUTRALITY MATTERS; -IS - CUBA

FD 217

Enclosed herewith are 9 copies of a letterhead memorandum, captioned as above.

The source in this letterhead memorandum is PSI WILFREDO ROBIANA, Miami. The Miami Office wishes to point out that REINALDO PICO and MIRTO COLLAZO were formerly members of the Cuban Prison Exchange Commission, whose defection from that Commission in May, 1961, caused considerable controversy among the anti-FIDEL CASTRO, Prime Minister of Cuba, elements in the USA. The defection of these two individuals, according to PSI WILFREDO ROBIANA, caused considerable dissension among Cuban exiles in Miami and brought about and contributed towards disunity. PSI ROBIANA stated that both COLLAZO and PICO are in favor of direct military action on the part of the Cuban exiles in Cuba and that the organization, Unidad Para La Guerra (Unity for War), has been organized for the purpose of furthering such direct military action in Cuba.

Miami indices contain no identifiable information concerning the newly formed organization, Unidad Para La Guerra.
