Chief Counsel and Director
Select Committee on Assassinations
House of Representatives

Dear Bob:

Herewith our comments on the reprise (or redoublement d'attaque) on the "implications" paper on anti-Castro plotting. We won't repeat comments on the unchanged errors in the earlier version (some of which were errors, not contested presentation). Nor will we address new substantive additions at this time. As we are at the end (and from what we have been told, this is the last end before final submission for the formal security review) our future comments to you will be limited to security matters.

In conclusion, we continue to find security problems in the footnotes. As you mentioned to us on 20 March that those we had not seen would not present a problem, I am concerned that your people may have overlooked things that would strike us differently. It would be unfortunate if some oversight in processing the material resulted in unexpected difficulties at the last minute. You should take steps to avoid such a possibility. We stand ready to review these.

Sincerely,

S. D. Breckinridge
Principal Coordinator, HSCA
