SUBJECT: MASFERRER (ROJAS), Rolando Arcadio aka
MASFERRER, Roland Rohas

A covert national agency name check was conducted on Subject in January 1950 but his services have never been utilized by the Agency. Subject, born about 1916 in Havana, Cuba, is a former Cuban Senator and Cuban Communist Party member from 1933 until 1945 when he was expelled from the Cuban CP. He is an enemy of CASTRO and was described as a former "goon squad commander for BATISTA's private army". He has been a political refugee since January 1959. His files contain numerous FBI reports regarding his activities as head of an anti-CASTRO organization known as Milicias Anticomunistas Obreras y Campesinas (MAOC) and his attempt to invade Cuba in 1960. This matter was investigated by the FBI as an Internal Security - Cuba; Neutrality case.

Latest information in his file is dated February 1967 and concerns consideration by the Internal Security Division, Department of Justice, to prosecute Subject and certain of his followers as co-conspirators. He and 75 of his followers had been arrested at Cocoa Plum Beach near Marathon, Florida while preparing to leave for an invasion of Haiti. Outcome of the case is not reflected in his file.

Subject had asserted that his plotting had been approved by the U. S. Government. On some occasions Subject claimed approval by CIA and at other times intimated approval came from the FBI. Unfavorable publicity and compromise of Agency and sources and personnel were matters being considered if the criminal charges against Subject were pressed in court and the Agency was forced to document its denial of involvement.
