To the Government of the King: Because of the failure to find the end of the war, which is the new situation. The failure has been caused by the abandonment of the principle of non-interference with internal affairs of the Philippines. The failure has led to the formation of a new administration in all the provinces of the Philippines except Cebu.