SAC EDWARD J. KRUPINSKY

SUBJECT: INTERVIEWS OF FBI EMPLOYEES BY CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES

By memorandum to All Employees dated May 28, 1975, captioned, "Interviews of FBI Employees," all employees were advised of the necessity of securing FBI Headquarters approval prior to submitting to interviews by representatives of congressional committees. The necessity of securing this approval is prompted by the Employment Agreement all employees have signed.

You were advised that Congressional Staff Members were conducting interviews of former and/or current employees and that this Bureau had pledged its cooperation with Congress. Our cooperative efforts, of course, must be consistent with Bureau procedures.

Recently, we have had attempts by Congressional Committee Staff Members to interview current employees without prior contact with FBI Headquarters. You are again reminded that if a representative of a Congressional Committee should contact a Bureau employee, that employee should decline to respond to questions posed to him and advise the Congressional Staff Member of the necessity of receiving FBI Headquarters approval before responding to questions.

Senate Probe Reaches Gordon

By David Beeder

A Gordon, Neb., automobile dealer, who spent three years in Army intelligence, has been questioned by a U.S. Senate committee investigator, the dealer confirmed Thursday.

Jerry Borman, 27, said he is "not at liberty" to discuss what questions he was asked by the representative of the Senate committee investigating the Central Intelligence Agency and other federal intelligence activities.

"It wasn't any big deal," Borman said. "I don't even remember the name of the man who questioned me. He came to town and left. It was about two weeks ago."

Borman, who attended Creighton University from 1965 to 1967, said he enlisted in the Army about seven years ago.

Rank 'Classified'

He said he was assigned "to several posts" in Army intelligence work, returning to Gordon about four years ago where he now operates the Chevrolet agency.

Borman declined to say where he was stationed. "My rank is classified information, too," he said in a telephone interview.

At one point, Borman inquired:

"You're not going to print this are you?"

That Borman was questioned by a Senate investigator apparently was known only to a few persons in Gordon, a town of 2,100 in Sheridan County.

First report that a Senate investigator had been assigned to visit Gordon was made Wednesday by The World-Herald, Washington Bureau.

A committee spokesman in Washington declined to elaborate except to say the mission had no connection with the American Indian Movement takeover at Wounded Knee, S.D., near Gordon, in 1973.

'No Notification'

Subsequent inquiries by The World-Herald brought to light a report that Borman had been visited by a Senate investigator.

The committee investigating the federal intelligence establishment is headed by Democratic Sen. Frank Church of Idaho.

Church's committee apparently did not notify Sheridan County authorities or federal officials in Nebraska that it planned to send an investigator to Gordon.

Both the FBI office in Omaha and U.S. Atty. Daniel Wherry said they had no knowledge of the visit.

"I know nothing about it," Sheridan County Atty. Mike Smith said Thursday.

Senate Committee Sending Investigator to Gordon, Neb.

WORLD-HERALD BUREAU. - An investigator is being sent to Gordon, Neb., by the Senate committee that is investigating the Central Intelligence Agency and other government intelligence activities, a source said.

A committee spokesman said that the investigation has nothing to do with the American Indian Movement takeover of Wounded Knee, S. D. He said he could not discuss the matter further.

"We haven't been in the custom of identifying different interrogations that are going on," a committee spokesman said. To do so, he said, "could dry up sources."

Much the same reply came from an aide to Sen. John Tower of Texas, the ranking Republican on the committee that is headed by Sen. Frank Church, D-Ida. "We haven't been talking at all about the committee's activities," he said.

While the committee's investigation of the Central Intelligence Agency has attracted the most attention, it also is looking into the intelligence activities of other agencies, such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

DATE: 6/9/75

FROM : SA L. JOSEPH HERSLEY

SUBJECT: SENSTUDY 75

BUFILE: 62-116395

Captioned matter has been in pending status within the Omaha division since 5/2/75. The matter has to do with the possibility of former SA JOHN J. QUINN, currently employed at the Iowa Law Enforcement Academy (ILEA), Des Moines, Iowa, being contacted by representative of investigative committee relative to SENSTUDY 75.

Mr. QUINN was recontacted by SA HERSLEY on 6/9/75 and has had no inquiries or requests that he avail himself for interview or questioning.

It is, therefore, suggested this matter be closed within the Omaha division. It is not felt that correspondence to the Bureau is mandatory. In the event QUINN is later contacted by a representative of the committee he will immediately inform SA HERSLEY who will, in turn, appropriately notify the Bureau.
