1. Chief, KUSODA, has advised, in response to your query contained in Reference A, that "at this late date Subject has no recourse to overturn ODACID's ruling that he lost his PBPRIME citizenship by his accepting employment in the PERUMEN Government. To protect the PBPRIME citizenship of an individual who engages in activities which would normally expatriate himself requires prior agreement between KUBARK and ODACID. This was not done in Subject's case. Then, too, Subject, by his application for and acceptance of an immigration visa to enter PBPRIME as a permanent resident alien is in effect an admission by him of loss of his previous PBPRIME citizenship".

2. The above opinion reiterates that expressed in a previous review of this case, see reference B, which was the basis for Subject's applying for his immigration visa.

3. While we regret any past misunderstandings on the part of Subject and, in particular, any misinterpretations which may have been presented to him by his various KUBARK contacts, we ask that JMWAVE inform Subject that KUBARK cannot now intercede on his behalf for restoration of citizenship.
