The services of subject had been terminated prior to my arrival at this station and, in fact, subject has not been residing here since my arrival.

Subject was in Panama on a business trip and was introduced to me by HDBICD. In the course of the conversation, subject indicated a desire, after he becomes more settled in Mexico City, to have contact with our office there.

Since Headquarters and particularly [redacted] are in a better position to judge subject and whether he might be of assistance to our station in Mexico City, no recommendation is being made.

The address of subject will follow in a separate dispatch.

OPERATIONAL REVIEW

COUNTRY: YAMER. PERIOD COVERED: October 1948 - March 1949.

SUBJECT: HYRCL.

1. Subject is no longer an active operative of this station. He was forced to discontinue his activities on our behalf because of the press of personal business. HYRCL is now in contact with HYRACID and HYROL I has been taken over by HYROPHOBIC.
2. During the period of his connection with this station, HYRCL failed to submit any informational report which in itself merited transmission to the Home Office. None of his operations were clean in the sense that a U.S. Government influence had to be introduced into the actual activation of each of his sources. This coupled with the fact that he lacked follow-through has given a slightly sour aspect to all of his operations. We intend to discontinue our connections with Subject.

WICHTRICH, Alfonso Rudolph

4 December 1947

On December 3, 1947 the investigative files of Confidential Government Agency (L-2) were examined and disclosed the following:

Included in the file is an Investigative report dated June 25, 1943 regarding one Captain Al. R. Wichtrich, Army Serial Number 0377220, which revealed no adverse information regarding Subject. It was mentioned, however, by four informants that Subject's father was suspected of having pro-German leanings during World War #1, but these suspicions were not verified by the informants. Persons interviewed vouched for Subject's father's loyalty at the time of the investigation.

It was noted that Subject's Personal History Statement dated February 16, 1943 indicates that he was born on October 30, 1915 at Willcox, Arizona. The investigation verified the fact, however, that Subject was born in Chihuahua, Mexico on October 30, 1915.

In a casual conversation with another officer, Subject volunteered the following information with respect to records of his birthplace. Subject stated that he had no birth certificate and had moved from Chihuahua Mexico to El Paso, Texas, with his parents, when he was one or two years of age. Subject stated that he had never inquired about, nor realized that he was born in Chihuahua until he was in high school, having previously presumed that he was born in the locale in which his childhood was spent, viz; Willcox, Arizona.

Subject stated further that he gave his birthplace as Willcox, Arizona on his application for enlistment in ROTC to eliminate conflict with any previous records which would then require a lot of "red tape" in making what he considered then a minor discrepancy of no consequence, inasmuch as his father's naturalization automatically made him (Subject) a citizen of the United States.

It was the opinion of the officer making the above report on Subject's birthplace, that any conflicting records of Subject's birthplace was not due to any motives of subterfuge, but was most probably due to Subject's desire to expedite his entrance into college without encountering the difficulties of time required and uncertainty of results in procuring certain papers which might be required if Subject were to indicate Chihuahua, Mexico, as his birthplace.

The file indicates further that records of the Superior Court, County of Cochise, Bisbee, Arizona, disclose that Subject's father, Gustave Wichtrich, was naturalized at Tombstone, Arizona, September 15, 1923; Certificate Number 1738933; Port of Entry, El Paso Texas, June 19, 1916. On his petition for naturalization, Subject's father gave as one of his several sons, Alfonso Wichtrich who was born at Chihuahua, Mexico, on October 30, 1915. Subject's family was residing at Willcox, Arizona, on May 15, 1922. Subject's father was born in Germany.

The above-mentioned Personal History Statement indicates that Subject's mother is Bermina Fernandez Wichtrich who was born in Mexico of Spanish National origin. As of February 16, 1943, her application for U. S. citizenship was in process.
