Re Miami letter, 9/21/67.

In accordance with instructions concerning the handling of double agents there are enclosed herewith ten copies each of two separate letterhead memoranda.

These letterhead memoranda have been classified SECRET, in order to protect the identity of a double agent of continuing value to the United States.

The Cuban Intelligence Service (CIS) instructed the double agent to make periodic written reports concerning activities of the anti-Castro organization, COMANDOS L, at Miami, Florida. These written reports were to be photographed for subsequent passage to HOMERO SAKER in New York City in late September, 1967. Accordingly, these letterhead memoranda set forth the texts of two reports prepared by PSI in accordance with these instructions.

It is to be noted that these reports are rather brief, general and somewhat naive but are in keeping with the informant's capabilities and comprehension of such matters. Information contained therein is generally non-specific in nature, widely known in the Cuban community, and much of it has appeared in local Spanish speaking news media. (S) (u)

The Bureau is requested to advise whether or not [the informant can be authorized] to make this [information] available to SAKER on or about 9/29/67. (S)
