Dear Mr. Fallis:

I have been advised by Ms. Sheila Lee, Staff Counselor, Select Committee, to communicate with you regarding possible employment by the committee.

Ms. Lee inquired as to my availability for possible full-time work with the Select Committee. I advised her because of my personal situation here, what with building a new house, etc., it would be extremely difficult for me to relocate to the Washington area for an extended period of time.

However, I talked with Ms. Lee this morning and a suggestion was made that I possibly could come to Washington and work for the committee on a trial thirty-day period. This would give me the chance to evaluate the situation and give your organization time to evaluate me and my performance.

Should you wish to consider this type of arrangement, please advise and we shall explore this situation further. On that basis, I will withhold any questions regarding salary, expenses, etc., until such time as you indicate whether the suggestion is amenable to your particular operation.

Thanking you for your time and attention.

Sincerely,

Conrad Baetz
