In several instances this information has also been placed, in greater detail, in the enclosed letterhead memorandum. u

Although it is noted that the period of this report is in excess of sixty days, it is pointed out that this case receives daily and expeditious handling and the Bureau and all interested offices are kept apprised of GIANCANA's activities through daily summary teletypes. u

AUSA DAVID SCHIPPERS, Chief, Special Investigation Unit, United States Attorney's office, is currently preparing to issue subpoenas to GIANCANA and a number of his associates in connection with a Grand Jury investigation into organized crime in the Chicago area. Present plans call for GIANCANA to be called in approximately two weeks time for his initial appearance before noted jury. SCHIPPERS has advised that he intends to utilize the Immunity sections of both the Narcotics and Federal Communications Commission Statutes pertaining to immunization of witnesses before Grand Juries. u
