1958, he had a telephone call from NATIE MARTIN concerning two hustlers who got themselves into some trouble and MARTIN requested PG T-16's help in the matter.

PG T-16 said MARTIN was calling about ELIZABETH and ANN who once worked for a madam known as RENEE and a pimp named BUTCH or PHIL. According to MARTIN, these persons were giving the girls a hard time and PG T-16 assured MARTIN that he would call RENEE and straighten the situation out if possible. PG T-16 said that MARTIN did not elaborate as to the nature of the trouble in which the girls were involved.

PG T-16 said that a few days later he was able to reach RENEE at telephone number Churchill 2-2127 and in conversation RENEE made the statement that ELIZABETH and ANN are either related to JOHN FONTANA or working for him. According to PG T-16, the girls now live in New Kensington somewhere over a club and are hustling out of the Jacktown Hotel in the evening. PG T-16 said that JACKIE, the head waiter at the Jacktown Hotel, is acquainted with the girls and might be able to fully identify them. PG T-16 also said that RENEE also commented that FONTANA had called her regarding the girls sometime ago.

PG T-16 said it is possible that ELIZABETH and ANN could be identical with GINA and VICKIE who once worked for RENEE in the 5700 block of Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh. PG T-16 recalled that at that time GINA and VICKIE claimed to be sisters.

PG T-17, who has furnished reliable information in the past on October 24, 1958, stated that telephone number Churchill 2-2127 is an unpublished number listed to RENEE LEVITT, 1696 Monongahela Avenue, Pittsburgh 18, Pa.

PG T-5 on November 17, 1958, stated that JOHN FONTANA is operating a craps game at the White Star Hotel and Tavern in Kinloch, Pa., a suburb of New Kensington, fronted by JIM AMARAS (phonetic). According to PG T-5, AMARAS was arrested by Special Agents of the Internal Revenue Service in New Kensington several months ago for being involved in a numbers violation at 1002 Second Avenue, New Kensington. PG T-5 said that the craps game operates on the second floor of the hotel and two prostitutes are hustling out of the room next door, one of whom is believed to be from West Virginia.

as JACK PERRONE of Springdale, Pa. After leaving the office HANNA drove his car to the rear of the motel and entered a room directly behind and to the left of the motel office accompanied by the blonde. When HANNA left the office, NAFFAH advised SA FORSYTH that it was obvious to him that HANNA recognized SA FORSYTH because HANNA did a "double take" and winked at NAFFAH several times while registering. NAFFAH advised that he has had HANNA as a paying guest in the past on the average of once every ten days, always in the afternoon but added that he did not know HANNA personally.

HANNA and the young woman were still in the motel room when SA FORSYTH left the premises at approximately 6:00 p.m., November 18, 1958.

PG T-5 on December 9, 1958, stated that on December 7, 1958, HANNA told him he was "broke" and wanted to borrow some money. PG T-5 asked HANNA why he did not obtain the money from the MANNARINO organization and HANNA indicated that he is in the midst of a "falling out" with the gang. PG T-5 loaned HANNA $10.

PG T-5 pointed out that HANNA's father, ALEX HANNA, told him that his son was wounded in the hand and leg while serving with the U. S. Marine Corps in the Okinawa campaign during World War II.

PG T-5 stated that he also learned that about a year ago one of his friends cashed a U. S. Government disability check for HANNA that exceeded $100.

The Department of Health, Bureau of Vital Statistics, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on December 8, 1958, advised that a Certificate of Birth (file number 175908-26) is on file with reference to NAZIE HANA, born October 15, 1926, in New Kensington, Westmoreland County, Pa., the son of ELIAS HANA and FORTINE KELLY.

racket is opening up again in New Kensington, Pa., on the authority of newly appointed Chief of Police JOHN BORDONARO.

PG T-20 said that two New Kensington pimps named NIP VURDEN and HORACE JARNIGAN have been allowed to re-open their business at 1151 Fourth Avenue and that a hustler known as "JACKIE" is working for them at that address.

PG T-5 on November 17, 1958, stated that five prostitutes are now hustling on the second floor of a house on Barnes Street, not further described, near the Kenmar Hotel in New Kensington and are required to pay newly appointed Chief of Police BORDONARO and Mayor RAYMOND GARDLOCK $75 a week each for protection.

The "Pittsburgh Post Gazette" in an article dated October 28, 1958, reported that JOHN BORDONARO, Chief of Police, New Kensington, Pa., testified for 33 minutes before the Federal Grand Jury on October 27, 1958. The press speculated that BORDONARO was called before the Grand Jury along with other gamblers in New Kensington in connection with the gambling losses of JOHN KONOWAL, JR., at the Triangle Billiards gambling casino.

DANIEL J. ZELOYLE
Former Chief of Police
New Kensington, Pa. (deceased)

PG T-5 on October 14, 1958, stated that approximately two weeks ago DANIEL ZELOYLE's widow telephoned PG T-21, of unknown reliability, and requested PG T-21 to come to the ZELOYLE farm immediately on a matter of importance. PG T-5 said that when PG T-21 arrived Mrs. ZELOYLE, her daughter, and son-in-law told him that they had been looking all over the farm to find ZELOYLE's money but had absolutely no luck and asked PG T-21 how much he would estimate that he paid ZELOYLE when the latter was Chief of Police of New Kensington. PG T-5 pointed out that during the period 1944 to 1950 when PG T-21 was operating a house of prostitution in New Kensington with ZELOYLE's permission PG T-21 paid ZELOYLE in excess of $250,000. PG T-5 said that PG T-21 told him he advised Mrs. ZELOYLE that he had paid her husband that amount and further that he

PG 92-228; 92-236

It is recalled that during February, 1958, PG T-4 stated that SAMUEL MANNARINO in early 1957 purchased a hunting lodge surrounded by 200 acres of land. At the time PG T-4 understood MANNARINO to say the lodge was located in Somerset County, Pa., and extensive investigation was conducted to identify the lodge in an effort to locate GABRIEL MANNARINO who might logically be expected to be hiding there.

PG T-4 on October 28, 1958, learned through JACK KRUPA, New Kensington, Pa., councilman and long-time hunting companion of the MANNARINO brothers, that the hunting lodge is not located in Somerset County, Pa., but is actually a twenty room farm house generally referred to as a hunting lodge surrounded by approximately 200 acres of densely wooded land in Pennsylvania near the Pennsylvania Maryland border approximately a fifteen minute drive by automobile from Hagerstown, Maryland. PG T-4 was unable to obtain any additional information because of the likelihood of arousing KRUPA's suspicions.

Examination of road maps of the area indicate that the hunting lodge could be located in Franklin County probably in the general vicinity of Waynesboro and Greencastle, Pa.

PG T-4 on October 28, 1958, recalled that he was in SAM MANNARINO's office at the Ken Iron and Steel Company during December, 1957, when the press and radio carried the first accounts of GABRIEL MANNARINO's being called before the Federal Grand Jury in New York. PG T-4 stated that while he was at the office Deputy Marshals were then attempting to locate GABRIEL MANNARINO when his brother, SAM, received a phone call from GABRIEL and hurriedly told him "They are trying to serve you with a subpoena, take off for the brush." PG T-4 said that in view of MANNARINO's prolonged disappearance it would seem logical to assume that if SAM MANNARINO's remarks were interpreted literally his advice "take off for the brush" could have been his subtle way of telling GABRIEL to hide out at the hunting lodge.

By way of background information PG T-4 pointed out on October 28, 1958, that the lodge or farm house near the Maryland border has several four wheel drive trucks parked on the property that are used from time to time by local residents. PG T-4 said that according to KRUPA the area is thickly populated with whiskey stills and that local game wardens are reluctant to enter the area apparently because that MANNARINO and LA ROCCA could be in Youngstown, Ohio.

PG T-35 went on to say that several years ago MIKE GABLE was sent to Youngstown, Ohio, by VALENTI and hide out for several months with ANTHONY CORBI. PG T-35 described himself as a former close associate of CORBI in a venture in Youngstown and added that CORBI has a brother named FRANK CORBI who is a well known racket figure in Baltimore, Maryland.

In conclusion PG T-35 stated that if either MANNARINO or LA ROCCA is in Youngstown, Ohio, or Warren, Ohio, he feels that he can locate them.

It is noted that the information furnished by PG T-35 confirms information given by PG T-36, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on August 25, 1958.

PG T-37, with whom contact has been insufficient to determine degree of reliability, on November 9, 1958, furnished additional information concerning GABRIEL MANNARINO and JOHN LA ROCCA's possible presence in Warren, Ohio, with CHARLES MURGIE:

"I could not find out about that party yet, as that crew are very secretive, I have an idea that they may be in Warren, Ohio again. I think it would be worth a try to watch that Charlie Murgie, from the Sunrise inn again, or watch his house at 753 Wildwood N.E. as he had them hidden down there, then he took them to Florida, but I think they must be there again, as I know they like to stay close to home as John Larocc's Wife is going to have an operation soon."

It is noted that Mrs. LA ROCCA did undergo surgery recently in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Hot Springs, Arkansas

PG T-38, another Government agency conducting intelligence investigations, on November 12, 1958, stated that a postcard or letter was sent to GABRIEL MANNARINO's home at 540 Charles Avenue, New Kensington, postmarked October 31, 1958, addressed to PAT CORSO from the Buck Staff Bathhouse, Hot Springs, Arkansas. PG T-38 considered it likely that
