jail at Ft. Worth, Texas, fighting extradition to California.

On 1/9/64, SOOST said that he understood WINTERS was still in jail at Ft. Worth, Texas, awaiting the outcome of his appeal of an extradition case ruling and his wife, JAMIELLE, was working as a waitress in a cocktail lounge in either Ft. Worth or Dallas.

On 1/20/64, SOOST said that Mrs. RENORA LEBECK of Bull Run Rd., Ewing Township, Trenton, N.J., notified him she was leaving for Ft. Worth, Texas, as her son, ROBERT PAUL WINTERS, had attempted to blind himself by scratching out his eyes at the Tarrant County Jail, Ft. Worth, Texas. He said Mrs. LEBECK told him her son had lost the sight of one eye and would lose probably the sight of the other eye.

On 2/11, 26, 29/64, SOOST advised that he understood bail had been reduced on ROBERT PAUL WINTERS in Ft. Worth, Texas, and California had dropped charges against him and he would be returned to Mercer County, N.J., to stay with his mother at 140 Bull Run Rd., Ewing Township, N.J.

SOOST, on 3/5/64, said he had arranged to have WINTERS brought into Mercer County Court, Trenton, on that date with his wife, so that he could be released from the bonds he had put up on both of them. He said that because WINTERS had blinded himself in one eye and the sight was poor in the other, Mercer County Judge GEORGE H. BARLOW had released WINTERS and his wife in their own recognizance on charges against them in Mercer County, N.J.

On 3/13/64 and 3/18/64, SOOST said he had learned that DAVID FRED HAGLER had been piloting a plane from Florida to Texas and it was wrecked in Texas. He said that HAGLER had indicated he had problems in Texas involving the airplane and he was considering returning to New Jersey to try and find some employment.
