After Mr. GOLDBERG became a Certified Public Accountant in the State of Maryland in 1932, he decided to engage in public practice of accounting on a full time professional basis. At that time, the economic situation in the country was poor and he found it difficult to make a living. In about 1937, he developed Mr. ROY MC GINNIS as a client. MC GINNIS operated a music machine distributing business and is currently in the coin machine business under the name of Roy McGinnis Corporation, Maryland Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland. In about 1940, Mr. MC GINNIS took Mr. GOLDBERG to Pittsburgh, Pa., where he introduced him to SAM MANNARINO and his associates who were in the same type of business. At the request of SAM MANNARINO and some of his associates, he took them on as clients and performed auditing and tax return services for them. Through MANNARINO he became associated with SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA, MIKE GENOVESE and ANTHONY RIPEPI. He also became acquainted with CHARLES J. MARGIOTTI, then attorney and political power in Pennsylvania who is now deceased. Through MARGIOTTI he took over the accounting for the Filben Corporation of Chicago, Illinois, which was organized to manufacture coin operated music machines. Although this company has been defunct for a long time, Mr. GOLDBERG made other contacts which resulted in developing clients. For example, in Baltimore he acquired the account of the Cee Cee Music Company, which was organized by JOSEPH GIGLIOTTI and LOUIS COMI. When the Filben Company ran into financial difficulties, it resulted in an investigation by the Internal Revenue Service, and a great deal of newspaper publicity was given to alleged irregularities in the operation of this business. Mr. GOLDBERG had been placed in a compromising position by officials of this company and realized at that time that he had been taken advantage of by MARGIOTTI and his associates. He also realized that these men were engaging in questionable activities and felt that if he continued his association with them it could jeopardize his standing as an accountant.

In about 1950, he decided to discontinue his relationship with MARGIOTTI and his associates. He wrote registered letters to MARGIOTTI, GENOVESE, RIPEPI and others, advising them he would no longer handle their accounting. At that time he would have discontinued his association with LA ROCCA except for the fact that he was then doing accounting for LA ROCCA in connection with some litigation involving most of LA ROCCA's financial interests. LA ROCCA asked him to continue doing his accounting work at least until litigation was completed. Actually, this situation has continued and LA ROCCA has become further indebted to him, so that at present LA ROCCA owes him a considerable amount of money for accounting fees.

In the past several years, LA ROCCA has entertained Mr. GOLDBERG at his residence for dinner and to meet his family. Therefore, in the latter part of 1957, when visiting with LA ROCCA, Mr. GOLDBERG invited him to attend the wedding of his son, which was to be held at Philadelphia, Pa. In February, 1958, the wedding was held and LA ROCCA appeared accompanied by ANTHONY RIPEPI. At this time, LA ROCCA stated that his wife was ill and could not accompany him. Mr. GOLDBERG at that time did not know that LA ROCCA was wanted by the Government or that there was any Federal Grand Jury proceeding in which LA ROCCA was involved.

He recalled that when he last visited with LA ROCCA prior to the wedding, LA ROCCA was having some trouble with his throat, but at the wedding he did not notice any trouble in this regard.

Mr. GOLDBERG emphatically stated that he has had no contact with LA ROCCA since the wedding in February, 1958. He assured that if he has any contact with LA ROCCA in the future, he will contact the FBI on a confidential basis. He stated that he has every intention of cooperating fully with the Government concerning LA ROCCA and concerning any matter in which the Government may have an interest.

Mr. GOLDBERG stated that handling the accounting for coin machine operators and others close to this type of business has been a very small part of his accounting practice. He stated that he still has some clients in this type of business, but to his knowledge none of them are numbers operators or are engaged in illegal activities.

During the course of the aforementioned interview, GOLDBERG requested that his identity be concealed in reporting any information furnished by him. He assured the interviewing agent of his desire to cooperate fully with the FBI in any investigation where he could be of assistance. Although he furnished no information of particular specific importance it was believed by the interviewing agent that his friendly attitude and cooperation merit recontact so that if anything specific arises in which GOLDBERG can furnish immediate assistance the proper groundwork will already have been laid.

NELSON in the Monroeville, Pa., vicinity which would undoubtedly have to have the approval and overall financial backing of SEBASTIAN JOHN LA ROCCA.

It is further anticipated that former Pittsburgh top hoodlum SAMUEL NATHANIEL LEVINE, who is now a PCI for the Pittsburgh Office and who is well acquainted with LA ROCCA, will be contacted at regular intervals so that a more complete picture of the racketeering activities in the City of Pittsburgh may be obtained.
