Reference Miami letter 5/6/64, Bureau letter 5/19/64 and Miami airtel to Bureau 3/19/64.

The San Juan Office and the New York Office, by letters May 20 and 28, 1964, respectively, advised that sources contacted by them were negative concerning subject.

The Bureau, by letter dated May 19, 1964, requested Miami comments concerning the potential of MARGER for development as a source in the Dominican field.

Bureau is referred to referenced Miami airtel or March 19, 1964 and LHM which accompanied airtel. It is noted that LESLIE BALOGH BAIN reportedly said that MARGER had been BAIN's friend and attorney for some period of time.

Miami files contain information regarding LESLIE BALOGH BAIN which originated with CIA, indicating that BAIN was pro-Soviet and critical of the United States federal and state governments.

The Miami Office does not feel any attempt should be made to solicit MARGER's assistance or any action taken which would allow MARGER to claim at any time he had been cooperating with the Bureau on a regular basis, as it is felt such action could result in possible future embarrassment to the Bureau.
