Annexure I to
BRIP/O/11/441
dated 30 Nov 57.

TRANSLATION of the postscript written by Margot GOTTSCHALK.

Dear Brother-heart !

As you have not let us hear anything from you, we are trying once again. If this (letter) does not get a reply I will leave you in peace. Jimmie says that we live our lives here and Moma should live her life. I hope you will not be angry with Jimmie because he had written this letter. We know that it is not your fault. Jimmie said that I should ask you if you are coming for Christmas. We do hope so. This week we move into new accomodation, 2 rooms and a kitchen. So we have bought new curtains, a large dining-room table, 4 chairs and a gas-cooker. You see, we are getting forward. We also have a budgerigar. He is called Peter. Today he gave Jimmie a kiss. You should have seen it. And in the morning, if I do not get up at once, he makes a noise until I do get up and talk to him.

I will close now,

Many Greetings and a Kiss
From your sister Maggie.

Write again soon, yes ?
