1. The information provided in the reference dispatch was not of such assistance in answering ODEWY inquiries. It would appear that an indigenous agent with police cover, for instance, would have had more chance of obtaining information of value than did HENRIER, and possibly an informal request through police sources would have been productive. More planning should have gone into the operation.
2. No indication is given in the reference as to the current status of the investigation. It is assumed that the case will be kept open, and that further efforts will be made to procure the information requested. However, in instances such as this the Station should always indicate what further actions are proposed, or at least that the investigation is being continued.

SUBJECT | GENERAL Communist Matters

Reference: HRS-W-149, 5 November 1954

1. In reference, Headquarters requested coverage of the Puerto Limón area to follow up a tip to ODENVY that Subject, American Communist Party fugitive, was hiding there.
2. The Station sent HUMIDOR to Puerto Limón for the period 13-15 November to investigate the report. HUMIDOR was instructed to watch especially waterfront area bars, which Subject assertedly frequented. HUMIDOR was cautioned not to become involved with Subject, but only to try to identify him from the photograph forwarded San José by Headquarters, and then to try to learn where Subject lived, if possible.
3. On his return to San José, HUMIDOR reported that he had had no luck in spotting Subject. HUMIDOR said that there are no bars along the waterfront area in Puerto Limón, but customs-houses, adiaras and railway buildings. The first bars are located a block up the street from the waterfront. HUMIDOR checked the cantinas, most of which are located near the central market place, among them such likely hang-outs as the Salon Central and the New Harlem Bar. He also covered Negro dance halls, as well as the Barrio Cienagueta, a run-down Negro suburb near the airport. HUMIDOR reported that it was like looking for a needle in a haystack, since the population of Puerto Limón is largely Negro. He said that he could not claim definitely that Subject was not there. HUMIDOR stated that Subject could be in hiding, or he could have missed seeing him if he does appear publicly. For example,

IRI CO. 241-6887

HUIDOR said that many of the Puerto Limón dives have "reservados" - boats with closed doors - in which an individual could remain unseen for hours. HUIDOR said that with more time, a more thorough investigative check could be made, with such sleuthing techniques as checking the Negro and Chinese cantina crowd for information on an obviously American Negro, with no Jamaican accent. Another potential source of information on Subject's whereabouts would be Negro sailors in Puerto Limón who work snipping between Puerto Limón and Gulf and Atlantic ports.

SUBJECT GENERAL Communist Matters
SPECIFIC Henry Winston

1. A memorandum from the Federal Bureau of Investigation, dated 13 October 1954, addressed to this headquarters, requests information concerning the whereabouts of Henry Winston, one of the American Communist Party fugitives who was rumored to be in hiding in Guatemala as recently as May 1954, and is now suspected of being in Puerto Limon, Costa Rica.

2. The memorandum from the Bureau is quoted herewith:

"A representative of another agency of the United States Government in New Orleans, Louisiana, has advised he received a telephone call from a confidential source who had received information from an unnamed source regarding the subject (Henry Winston). This source is allegedly a former member of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade and the Communist Party and as such reportedly was acquainted with the subject.

"The source has allegedly advised the source that he had seen the subject and spoken to him in the latter part of September or early October 1954 at Puerto Limon, Costa Rica, where the subject reportedly was frequenting bars on the water front.

"The representative of the other government agency has advised that his source refuses to be interviewed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation concerning this matter since he does not desire to become involved and does not desire to disclose the identity of the source."

Communist fugitives

1. Reference is made to 105-167 and previous cover evidence about the American Communist Party fugitives who have been reported to be hiding in Guatemala.
2. The Federal Bureau of Investigation recently furnished the following data for our information:

A confidential source of information who has been known to other facts with confidence who has been described as "eccentric" advised on 2 March 1954 that he had received information from informant Winston, one of the Communist fugitives, in Guatemala. The source refused to identify his informant but stated that he had seen a place on a map of Guatemala known as La Esperanza and also a place near the town of La Esperanza in the state of Quetzaltenango as the location of Winston.

3. The Bureau concludes by Winston they would appreciate any information regarding the reported presence of Winston in Guatemala.
