the course of our investigation of the subject. It is noted that a copy of the attached memorandum was previously made available to a representative of your Agency [at Mexico City.] (S) (U)

The attached memorandum reflects that the subject was arrested by the Mexican Bank Police on June 10, 1954, in connection with the printing of fraudulent check forms and that the subject escaped from the custody of the Mexican authorities on June 16, 1954. The subject's possible fugitive status in Mexico was brought to your attention through liaison channels on November 23, 1954. At the same time it was suggested that the information concerning the subject's present whereabouts, which is set forth in your communication of November 22, 1954, be called to the attention of appropriate Mexican authorities. On November 24, 1954, you advised via liaison that you did not desire to make this information available to Mexican authorities in order not to jeopardize your source of information in this matter. (S) (u)

In view of the foregoing, no further action is contemplated by this Bureau with respect to the information set forth in your referenced communication of November 22, 1954.

These data are for your information and are not intended for further dissemination.
