SOURCE (EVALUATION DEFINITIVE) Person with good contacts [in BAYO's office] (S)(C)

[About 27 July 1959 Alberto BAYO Cosgaya, high Cuban Air Force official, told his secretary he would be absent from his office during the week beginning 3 August 1959 to fly patrol in Camaguey Province. Due to the secrecy and the air of growing excitement in BAYO's office and an increased pace in bombing training, the secretary believes BAYO is actually going on a bombing mission connected with a Dominican invasion. (Field Comment: There have been persistent reports recently of preparations in Cuba for a new invasion either directly against the Dominican Republic or indirectly through Haiti.) (Headquarters Comment: BAYO is the son of Alberto BAYO Giroud, who has been prominent in Caribbean revolutionary activities for several years and who trained Fidel CASTRO's original force in Mexico.)] (S) C
