STANLEY BARRY LIEBMAN, dba L & H Tours, (with partner RICHARD MARK HOROWITZ), also agent for Galaxy Tours, 434 Franklin Avenue, Hartford, Connecticut, residence 3 Camelot Drive (apartment #2), Bloomfield, Connecticut, was interviewed at his office address.

He recalled that about eight or nine months ago his partner, RICHARD HOROWITZ, went to England, where, at George Raft's Sporting Colony Club, Berkley Square, London, England, he spoke with ALFRED SALKIN ("ALFIE"), an official at that club. HOROWITZ went there as he desired to acquire the agency for handling "junkets" to that club from New York. SALKIN told him that he would have to make arrangements for dates of such junkets through DINO CELLINI, Travel and Resort Enterprises, DuPont Plaza Center, Suite #619, Miami, Florida, and that CELLINI handled all of the plane junkets coming to the club from the United States.

Since that time L & H Tours has handled such junkets arrangements from New York to George Raft's Colony Sporting Club, London, through DINO CELLINI. CELLINI arranges the plane reservations, and dates of travel by securing such on regularly scheduled flights on major lines (recently KLM and Air Italia, and currently arranging with the Japanese line). CELLINI contacts the L & H Tours by phone or letter furnishing the booking dates and openings. L & H advises him of the individuals taking the trip. (L & H secures the individual's checks for passage, $1,000 each, and deposits them, later remitting the overall check to cover the person's traveling.)

LIEBMAN said that he considers his business dealings are perfectly proper and above board, and volunteered that L & H Tours arranges similar bookings from Kennedy Airport through WILLIAM KOZIOFF, the owner of the Casino at the Intercontinental Hotel, and the Flamboyant Hotel, Curacao, Netherlands, Antilles. In this matter L & H Tours deals directly with GEORGE BERNSTEIN, M.V. International 372 Jericho Turnpike, Minneola, New York. L & H Tours, he said, also books junkets to Las Vegas going to the Aladdin Hotel, dealing in this regard with FRANK DENTON and MEL PRELL (nephew of MILTON PRELL, a substantial owner

The subscriber to New York telephone PL 1-5350 has been identified as HENRI W. GINE, 36 Central Park South, New York, New York. Records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York reflect that as of 1950 HENRI GINE was employed in television programing at 1697 Broadway New York City. He is also identified as formerly being employed by Music Corporation of America, 598 Madison Avenue, New York City. His address is 36 Central Park South, New York City.

The subscriber to New York telephone number JU 6-4814 has been identified as the office of FARRELL & BRACA, 870 7th Avenue, New York, New York. This company is engaged in business of public relations.

STANLEY R. MOIR, Assistant Commissioner - Crime, Bahamas Police Force, Nassau, Bahamas, made available an official transscript of the report of the Royal Commission of Inquiry into Bahamas gambling. This report revealed that the Commission of Inquiry heard evidence relative to junket flights to Bahamas casinos. It was reported in paragraph 173 of the official report that the Bahamas Amusement Company, Ltd. had two representatives in New York. The report identified the New York representatives as FARRELL & BRACA. It was stated that it is the responsibility of these two individuals to round up gamblers with "suitable qualifications", and organize flights to the Bahamas casinos. The commission recommended that the junket flights to the Bahamas gambling casinos be discontinued. Assistant Commissioner MOIR indicated that it was believed that the junket flights were a source of revenue for the racketeers in the gambling casino field. (X)(u)

The report identified FARRELL & BRACA as being associated with their counterparts in the Miami area, DAN DUSTY PETERS and HERMAN STARK. Both PETERS and STARK had been identified as having been identified with individuals believed to be associated with the MEYER LANSKY group. (X)(u)

It has been reported that calls were made to a number subscribed to by ARMAND GALLUCCI of Rochester, New York.

Detective Lt. JAMES LEE, Special Criminal Investigations Unit, Rochester, New York Police Department, has identified ARMAND GALLUCCI as former owner of the Keyboard Restaurant. Lt. LEE advised that as of September 20, 1967, GALLUCCI operated the Page One Travel Club, 700 E. Main Street, Rochester, New York. Lt. LEE advised that GALLUCCI is associated with LOUIS D'OVIDIO and WILLIAM HAMILL in this business. Lt. LEE further advised that GALLUCCI handles junket flights to Las Vegas, Nevada, London, England and Antigua, British West Indies.

Records of the Rochester, New York Police Department reflect that ARMAND GALLUCCI, identification number R14277 has a record dating back to 1949. He has been fingerprinted in connection with suspected gambling violations. The record fails to reflect a sentence imposed on GALLUCCI for his offenses.

MM T-2 advised on December 2, 1967, that DINO CELLINI is engaged in the business of operating a travel agency at the Dupont Plaza Hotel, Miami, Florida. The source reported that GEORGE BERGER is associated with DINO CELLINI in the operation of this business.

The following investigation was conducted by Agents of the Denver Office:

On December 12, 1967, Mr. JEROME C. JAY DEVERAUX, 222 Grand Avenue, Laramie, Wyoming, advised he operates the Rams Horn Boys Ranch, located 16 miles N.W. of Dubois Wyoming. The boys ranch is advertised nationally. As a result of advertising, a call was received about June 1, 1967, from DINO V. CELLINI, 12459 Keystone Road, Keystone Point, North Miami, Florida. CELLINI said that he was associated with the Grand Bahama Development Corporation as a business consultant. CELLINI arranged to have his son DINO R. "RICKY" CELLINI, age 14, attend the Rams Horn Boys Ranch from June 18, 1967 to July 18, 1967.

A check in the amount of $412, which amounted to the total cost of room and board for the boy at the ranch, was received. The check was drawn on a Miami area bank, but he was unable to recall exactly what bank was used.

Mr. DEVERAUX advised that the boy's parents listed their names as DINO V. and HELENA CELLINI. No further contact was made between DEVERAUX and Mr. CELLINI.

As set forth in this report, STANLEY BARRY LIEBMAN was interviewed at Hartford, Connecticut on December 12, 1967, relative to the business of L&H Tours and the association between this agency and DINO CELLINI. It was pointed out in the interview by LIEBMAN that CELLINI has the exclusive agency for arranging junket flights to the Colony Club Casino, London, England. LIEBMAN mentioned that business in this connection in the Hartford, Connecticut area is passed through DINO CELLINI in Miami.

Following the interview of LIEBMAN, PETER ZACCAGNINO, attorney, Hartford, Connecticut, advised interviewing Agents that he represented LIEBMAN and L&H Tours. He requested that he be contacted should additional information be needed relative to contacts between L&H Tours and DINO CELLINI.

MM T-3 advised on November 29, 1967, that DINO CELLINI and MACHO GENER were in contact with individuals who were close to SANTIAGO REY of Santo Domingo. REY was further identified as the unofficial right-arm man of President BELLAGUER of Santo Domingo.
