MEMORANDUM FOR MR. JOHN CRIMMINS
Coordinator of Cuban Affairs
Department of State

SUBJECT: Interdepartmental Coordinating Committee of Cuban Affairs: Transmittal of Information

Reference: Dept of Army Memorandum, subject as above, dated July 29, 1963

Reference memorandum forwarded information concerning the possible organization of a new counterrevolutionary activity in Cuba.

The following supplemental information has been received:
One of the leaders of the group who is currently employed by the U. S.
Naval Base at Guantanamo has been requested to attend a meeting of the group in Miami. The purpose of the meeting appears to be the final prelude to the commencement of operations. The text of the communication is as follows: "Dear Guillermo: Come up to Miami!
The die is virtually cast! (Do) you require travel funds? Yours faithfully for a free Cuba, Antonio."

Gonzales has applied to the Department of Navy for leave from Guantanamo on/about 19 September 1963. This application will be approved in the absence of advice to the contrary from representatives of the Committee.

The Department of State postpones the release of this document under the provisions of the JFK
