Herr WERNER SMOYDZIN, Assistant Chief, Right-Radicalism
Section of the Bundesamt fuer Verfassungsschutz - (BfV - West German Federal Agency for the Protection of the Constitution) [S] advised as follows on April 17 and 20, 1964: (S)

The interview of former General WALKER appearing in the "Deutsche National-Zeitung und Soldaten-Zeitung" (DNZSZ)
on November 29, 1963, probably was conducted by one HELMUT HUBERT MUENCH. The interview was conducted under a pseudonym known to be used by MUENCH. MUENCH has been known to the [BfV] (S) for some time because of his connection with right-radical activities. He is known as a contributor at least to the DNZSZ.
He has a legal residence in Hamburg and is a West German. (S)

MUENCH was reportedly in the United States some time prior to November 22, 1963, conducting interviews and research for the paper. He purportedly interviewed Senator GOLDWATER, among others. (S/W)

MUENCH is also considered the most likely candidate
as author of the short article "The Strange Case of Oswald." (S/W)

There is a German student named DICK KUMERT who is also a contributor to DNZSZ. He has been studying at the University of Dallas. The only address known for him in Dallas is Post Office Box 1330. He was supposed to have returned to West Germany on April 1, but this has not yet been verified. (S/W)

BONN 62-36

The [BfV]<sup>(S)</sup> is attempting to locate both MUENCH and KUNERT and will interview both of them if necessary to determine who conducted the interview with WALKER and who wrote the article "The Strange Case of Oswald." The [BfV]<sup>(S)</sup> will also determine the basis for the assertions in the article, if possible.

The [BfV]<sup>(S)</sup> is procuring original copies of the DNZSZ wherein the interview and article appeared.

It is suggested that Dallas conduct investigation to determine if KUNERT has returned to West Germany and that Dallas interview him if he has not.
