ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN F. KENNEDY

Re London cable 12/19/63.

Remyairtel 12/2/63 reporting an individual had called the American Embassy and identified himself as HASSAN. He said the UAR was behind President KENNEDY's death. This information was immediately furnished to British Security Service, MI-5, with the request that it be followed. (S)

On 12/18/63 the following report, classified Secret was furnished by MI-5: (S)

"HASSAN had already been in touch with the police and he told them that one TEWFIQ had stayed with him the night before and had boasted of being involved in the shooting of President KENNEDY. TEWFIQ, according to HASSAN, was probably sailing on the SS "EL GISA", an Egyptian ship, from London that evening. The ship was searched but no trace of any individual resembling TEWFIQ was found. (S)

"HASSAN's full name is YAKLA ZAKARIA HASSAN (of whom we have no trace). He came to this country in 1953 and as regards his contact with TEWFIQ I do not think that I can do better than to give you below verbatim Special Branch's report. (S)

'HASSAN told me that about two years ago, when he was the 'restaurant manager' at the Egyptian Club in London, he met an Egyptian named TEWFIQ, who was a fairly frequent visitor to the club. He had the impression that TEWFIQ obtained regular sums of money from the UAR Embassy and drew the inference that he must be some kind of government employee. (S)

'He saw no more of TEWFIQ until Wednesday, 11/27/63, when they met in an Arab cafe in Leman Street, much used by Arabs of various nationalities and classes. They exchanged a few words on that occasion, and TEWFIQ asked for HASSAN's home address, promising to visit him there shortly. (S)

'The next day, Thursday, HASSAN was invited by an Egyptian acquaintance to visit the Egyptian ship "El Gisa", then lying in West India Dock; as they were leaving the ship later on, HASSAN saw TEWFIQ making his way towards it, and assumed that he was known to members of the crew. (S)

'That evening, TEWFIQ visited HASSAN at the latter's home. During the course of conversation, TEWFIQ mentioned that he had recently been in New York, visiting a friend. Later, after he had been drinking heavily and while a program on President KENNEDY was being shown on television, he made offensive remarks about Americans in general and about Mr. KENNEDY in particular, producing a revolver from his pocket, he said, 'We have completed our work in America - now we shall be returning to Egypt.' HASSAN is in no doubt that this remark referred to the assassination. (S)

'By the end of the evening TEWFIQ was fairly drunk and insisted on staying the night. As HASSAN and his wife were frightened by his manner, they complied with his demand, and a bed was made up in one of the rooms. TEWFIQ left early the next morning and HASSAN has not seen him since. Two letters and a photo were found in the flat by HASSAN, evidently left behind by TEWFIQ; the letters, in Arabic, contain nothing of interest, while the photo, showing TEWFIQ talking to a young girl, is, according to HASSAN, a reasonably good likeness. 'The police have made inquiries and they state that TEWFIQ is known to his Egyptian and other Arab acquaintances as ~~TEWFIQ SHAWKI EL-HADIDI~~ and was understood to be or to have been a Captain in the Egyptian Army and to be now working as an Intelligence Officer. According to further information, so far unverified, he was in the U. S. a short while ago. He is also believed to have a brother, ALI SHAWKI EL-HADIDI, who may be an official at the UAR Embassy in Vienna. (S)
