CARL JOHN WILSON

T-1, a confidential source abroad, advised on December 18, 1963 that WILSON, aka. John Henry Wilson and Juan Wilson Hodson, was born in Liverpool on November 29, 1915. (S)

In 1936 while attending Liverpool University he took part in some Communist Party (CP) activities. This was due to his association with a Russian engineer whom he met at the University and at the engineer's invitation spent 17 weeks in Russia in 1935. (S)

During 1936-1938 he was in Spain on three occasions and furnished a series of highly colored and exaggerated accounts of his achievements with the Spanish Republican Air Force. He advised he was shot down on more than one occasion, was captured and made his escape. T-1 stated another individual who knew WILSON in Spain advised that WILSON was useless as an airman, was never a pilot and flew on one occasion only as a gunner. (S)

T-1 stated in 1938 when he returned to England he spent three months in prison for passport fraud in connection with his trip to Spain. Later in 1938 he went to Buenos Aires and then to Chile where his anti-British activities caused embarrassment to the government and nearly led to his expulsion. In 1954 WILSON attempted to act as an intermediary in a copper deal with a Chilean firm. T-1 appraises subject as a psychopathic case, always eager to inflate the importance of his activities and to seek publicity for them. (S)

Chief Inspector JOHN PEARCE, New Scotland Yard, advised on December 27, 1963 that in addition to subject's three months imprisonment in 1938 he was also fined £5 on August 2, 1935 in Liverpool for false pretenses. (S)
