PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

On February 9, 1961, a source advised that the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee (PYOC) was established at a national socialist-oriented youth conference held in Chicago, Illinois, December 30, 1960, through January 1, 1961. This conference was the result of a mandate issued by the National Executive Committee, Communist Party, USA, calling for a youth conference to establish an organizing committee whose objective would be to set up a national socialist-oriented youth organization. The conference scheduled a convention to be held within a year to found a new national socialist-oriented youth organization. (S)u

On June 18, 1962, a second source advised it was reported at the meeting of the National Council of the PYOC held in New York, New York, June 16 and 17, 1962, that although it had been planned to form a Marxist-oriented youth organization by the Fall of 1962, it would not be possible to form such an organization for the next few years. (u)

On May 7, 1963, a third source advised the PYOC has its headquarters at 80 Clinton Street, New York, New York. (u)

H. WARNER KLOEPFER
306 Pine St.
New Orleans 18, La.

On September 12, 1951, the Office of Naval Intelligence furnished a copy of a report entitled "Antarctic Colony Associates," which contained a list of the founders, associates and supporters of this organization. H. Warner Kloepfer, Ph.D., academic dean and professor of biology at the College of the Ozarks, was included on the list. The organization was established for the purpose of establishing a working colony for the early exploitation of possible mineral deposits in the Antarctic.
