LEVYA requested an indicies check of our office concerning MOOREE and also asked if the writer could ascertain from the Veterans Administration any information indicating that MOOREE had any mental history.

Indicies of the SJO were negative concerning MOOREE.

Mr. JORGE L. RIVERA ALVERIO, Chief, Services Division, Veterans Administration, San Juan, Puerto Rico advised SA ARNOLD W. O'BRIEN the following on 11/23/63:

JOHN LOURENCO MOOREE, Jr., VA Claim #C-19-371-068, is a disabled veteran having been discharged from service for mental reasons. His condition was described as "Schizophrenic-Paranoid Type". Up until January 15, 1963, MOOREE was considered "Incompetent" to handle his own financial affairs. Upon being examined on January 16, 1963 he was determined to be "Eompetent" to handle his own financial affairs. According to RIVERA ALVERIO, MOOREE is on 100% disability.

Results of the indicies check and information obtained from the Veterans Administration was immediately furnished to FRANK LEVYA on 11/22/63 by the writer.

On 11/23/63, Mr. FRANK LEVYA advised as follows:

LEVYA ascertained that MOOREE had first placed a telephone call to Gettysburg, Virginia, in an attempt to contact Mr. DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, former President of the United States. This call was placed at approximately 1:35 p.m., (SJ time) 11/22/63. When unable to reach Mr. EISENHOWER, MOOREE then called the White House and was turned over to Secret Service at the White House.

According to LEVYA, LEVYA contacted Mr. JACK O'BRIEN, Assistant Director, Veterans Administration, in charge of the Veterans Administration Hospital and arrangements were made to have MOOREE confined in the Mental Ward of the Veterans Administration Hospital.
