DETAILS:

PCM

The informant advised that the PCM continues to be very quiet in regard to political matters. He said one notable event that happened came about because of the campaign that was going on for union positions in the union elections that took place on April 19, 1964. It seemed that FRANCISCO MURRIETA, who was the candidate for treasurer on the non-Communist ticket met one of the pro-Communist union members, FRANCISCO BOJORQUEZ in a bar and in the argument that followed, MURRIETA knocked BOJORQUEZ down and broke his leg. A few days later AVELINO MORENO SOTO and LUIS BOJORQUEZ charged that MURRIETA and his followers had viciously assaulted BOJORQUEZ and sought to make a political issue of it in order to gain sympathizers for their cause in the union elections. The informant advised that their propaganda efforts were short-lived however, because BOJORQUEZ went to the Union Hospital and in order to get the union to pay his medical expenses he claimed that he broke his leg falling down in the street. In the union elections, the non-Communist slate of officers won out over the pro-Communist slate which was headed by GILDARDO MONGE. The informant supplied a complete list of the names of the non-Communist and pro-Communist officers by position in the election and these names are the same as the names supplied by PX 633-S.

The informant went on to advise that JUAN JIMENEZ ARVIZU was seen by him in Cananea only once since the last contact and on that occasion he visited the house of LUIS QUIROGA and the barber shop of GERMAN RIOS, both of whom are old friends of his. He discussed the political situation with them and was overheard at the barber shop to endorse the candidacy of GUSTAVO DIAZ ORDAZ.

PX 100-3353

FEP/CCI

The informant advised that these parties have been engaged in carrying on much propaganda throughout Mexico in order to win a following but in Cananea everything is quiet. He said that all of the people in Cananea appear to be supporting the PRI and it appears as if it will be a very quiet election as far as Cananea is concerned.

LOCAL ELECTIONS

The informant went on to advise that in the local elections the only candidates that are expected to be proposed will be those belonging to the PRI. For the position of Municipal President of Cananea there are two prominent candidates, both seeking the endorsement of the PRI and they are CONRADO XIVILLE, the present president of the Chamber of Commerce and JUAN MELICOF LOSTAUNAU, former Chief of Police. MELICOF appears to have the support of the union while XIVILLE that of commercial interests.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The informant advised that whereas LEE HARVEY OSWALD is now a famous name throughout Mexico as the alleged slayer of President JOHN F. KENNEDY, he had never heard of OSWALD prior to the assassination of the American President. He advised that he is well acquainted with almost every American that has lived in Cananea within the past 25 years and he is positive that LEE HARVEY OSWALD never lived in the Cananea area nor spent any time here.

that it will be one ANTONIO LORETO, a merchant in Agua Prieta.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

should he be selected, will be easily managed in office by this element. The informant advised that one of the significant factors in the economy of Naco at the present time is the failure of most of the night clubs and houses of prostitution in the past six months. He said he believes there are only eight prostitutes now working in the town whereas formerly there were over 20 and this has been brought about by the recent clamping down of visits by soldiers to Naco, Sonora, by the Military Authorities at Ft. Huachuca. He said the result has been to enable the decent citizens of Naco to come to the fore and they now hope to oust the criminal and immoral element from political power.

JUAN JIMENEZ ARVIZU

The informant advised that JUAN JIMENEZ ARVIZU spends most of his time when not working, in Cananea and is not seen much around Cananea. He said little is known of his contacts in the Naco-area.

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

The informant advised that he had never heard of LEE HARVEY OSWALD before the assassination of the late President JOHN F. KENNEDY. He said that he is well acquainted with all of the American who have lived or spent any amount of time in Naco, Sonora, during the past 10 years and he is sure that LEE HARVEY OSWALD never spent any time in this town.
