Bernandez Rocha, Sec. General, DRE of Cuba.

States DRE grateful to U.S. for initial support but DRE can no longer operate under restrictions of U.S. policy. " ... we also demand that your government understand that the Cubans cannot continue waiting for (the) international policies, because those dying of hunger are Cubans, because it is our country that ~~is~~ suffers slavery, because it is our blood that runs in Cuba."

DRE

③ 1 April 1963 - Dade County: 11112178

DRE Statement Concludes:

a. Cubans never received real military support from U.S.

b. U.S. has confined Cuban exile leaders in unjust prison, within the city limits. In joint action with Gr. Britain, U.S. has settled blockade designed to protect Cuban Communist regime from Cuban exile attacks

c. Believe these measures were part of secret dealings that took place between U.S. and Russia during October crises

d. Cubans were not represented in those dealings nor their desires, so cannot accept them

e. Believe as a sovereign Country, nobody may limit our right to undertake whatever actions necessary to obtain freedom

f. Believe by ourselves, without help & hindered by limitations imposed on us, we will continue to pursue our freedom.

oracles because of their contact with & ability to receive money from CIA. Clustered around the 5 are a group of about 30 on the payroll. Group is considered infant terrible of CIA by other exile groups. DRE would disintegrate without CIA support - members would become normal juveniles of exile community. Because of CIA support, DRE continues to play an inordinately large role in exile community.

~~CIA~~ JMWAWE recommends that more militant members of DRE be encouraged to join Argentine forces.
