NLK Material Seen by the "Assassination Team"

1. Material in Container SE 512 (@ National Archives, 6W3)

By provenence this material is a part of the National Security Files (see below), which were the working files of the Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs (who was not an official of the National Security Council or its staff).

- a) Maxwell Taylor Report on the Bay of Pigs (about 750 pages, TOP SECRET) - Includes the basic report and associated memoranda and background material.
- b) Memoranda to the President, 1961-1963 (3 folders, up to TOP SECRET)
- c) Folder entitled "Taylor" containing additional material relating to the Cuba Study Report, above (1 folder, up to TOP SECRET).
- d) "MONGOOSE" (one folder, up to TOP SECRET)
- e) McGeorge Bundy Chronological Files (33 folders; mostly unclassified, but up to TOP SECRET)

(Approximately 3.2 cubic feet)

(Other material in this cabinet, such as FIAB reports, was not shown to staff members as it was irrelevant to their search. The determination was made by the committee staff members based on a list of folder titles and based on a verbal characterization of the contents in general terms by William W. Moss of the NLK staff.)

2. Material in the Kennedy Library - National Security Files

(Accessioned into the Kennedy Library as a part of the Papers of President Kennedy, these were the working files of McGeorge Bundy and his deputies supporting Bundy's function as Special Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs.)

- a) Countries series
 - 1) Dominican Republic (1 box, up to TOP SECRET)
 - 2) Congo (2 boxes, up to TOP SECRET)
 - 3) Cuba (24 boxes, up to TOP SECRET and including some codeword)
- b) National Security Council series (comprising material generated by Bundy and his staff relating to the National Security Council and its subordinate bodies; and including, for archival convenience, the assorted memoranda to Bundy and the President from a number of assistants and advisers.)

b) National Security Council series (continued)

- 1) Meetings (2 boxes, up to TOP SECRET)
- 2) Standing Group (1 box, up to TOP SECRET)
- 3) Executive Committee (1 box, up to TOP SECRET)
- 4) Selected National Security Action Memoranda (approximately 20 pages, up to TOP SECRET)

(Note: For the above files, 1) through 4) a topical folder title list was provided, from which staff members indicated the ones they wished to see. No irrelevant items were permitted to the staff members. For example, they were not permitted to see a memo of a meeting on nuclear testing simply because it shared the same box and was adjacent to a memo on a meeting on Cuba. Individual items were pulled for viewing.)

- 5) Index of Weekend Papers (1 box, up to TOP SECRET)
- 6) Special Group (CI) (1 box, up to TOP SECRET)
- 7) Staff Memoranda as follows (mostly SECRET)
 - a) Clifton (1 folder)

- d) Countries series
 - 1) Congo (6 folders, up to TOP SECRET)
 - 2) Cuba (9 folders, up to TOP SECRET)
 - 3) Dominican Republic (4 folders, up to TOP SECRET)

(Approximately 1 cubic foot)

- 4. Material in the Kennedy Library - Oral History Interviews
(Not a part of the Papers of President Kennedy, the oral history interviews were collected after his death and donated by the narrators to the Library.)
 - a) George Smathers (one transcript, less passages closed by the interviewee)
- 5. Material in the Kennedy Library - Roswell Gilpatric Papers
(Personal papers of Roswell Gilpatric, donated by him to the Kennedy Library and open to the public except for some few items withdrawn under donor restrictions in the deed of gift.)
 - 4 boxes, all unclassified, including Gilpatric's appointment books and diaries.
- 6. Material in the Kennedy Library - Robert F. Kennedy Papers
(These papers, not yet donated by deed to the Kennedy Library, were made available by special arrangement with Mrs. Ethel Kennedy.)

 - 7) Dominican Republic (1 folder, up to TOP SECRET)
 - c) Diaries, Telephone Messages
Thirteen volumes of unclassified diaries, appointment books, and telephone messages.
 - d) Oral History Interview
Three relevant pages of a John Barilow Martin oral history interview with Robert Kennedy, selected by William W. Moss of the Kennedy Library staff.

6. Robert F. Papers (continued)

(Approximately 5 cubic feet)

7. Material in the Kennedy Library - Presidential Tape Recordings

(From a topical index committee staff members selected those they wished to see transcripts of. Kennedy Library staff members advised the committee staff members of cases where the material was irrelevant and denied access in several cases where the material was clearly irrelevant. Of the material made available, only four or five words of one transcript were deleted under the terms of donor restrictions.) Each transcript listed below ranges in length from a few pages to 40 or more.

REMARKS

Backup material for info. on Church Committee access. Note total cubic footage again revised to 46 vice 54. (I'll stick with it, now.)

Note, also, that Greg Treverton is scheduled to arrive today to listen to a short passage of tape (#78, John McCone) to verify what they have and want to use in the report. This will be the first listening to tape.
